Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The Rights of Pythias had a most enjoyable time last night when an official visit was paid by Grand Chancellor Tingley of Moncton, N. B.

A drunken man was arrested by the police yesterday. He had evidently been fighting for his face was cut and bleeding when he was taken in charge.

H.M.S. cruiser Brilliant did not arrive at this port yesterday as expected. It appears by exchanges as if she is expected to spend a day or two at Sydney, C.B.

Lots of people are getting all their job printing done quickly and neatly at this office. Orders left with F. R. Newson or his assistant at the subscription counter will have prompt attention.

Rev. Dr. Grant returned missionary will preach at Belfair first Sabbath at 11 a. m. and at St. Andrews Church, Orwell at 3 p. m. Rev. S. D. McPhee will preach in Orwell Head Church same day at 11 a. m.

Persons sending advertising matter to The Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear as desired.

Last evening about seventy-five of the students of the Union Commercial College gathered in the college rooms to hold their first social meeting. A good program was provided by the staff and students, consisting of gramophone selections, violin music, readings, and games and guessing contests. One of the main features was a Limerick contest, first prize going to Miss Margaret McLeod, and second to Miss Edie Snellgrove. Refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable evening ended with three cheers for the U.C.C.

Daniel McDougall, a native of Bangor, and formerly a teacher of this Province was, with his wife found dead in their home in Boston on Wednesday. When they went to bed the night previous they left the gas-burner in their room turned on as there was no gas passing through the meter. Their daughter arrived home later on and put twenty-five cents in the slot of the meter, thus procuring a further supply of gas for the house, totally unknown to the danger to her parents. In the morning they were found suffocated. The deceased was about forty years of age and married a Miss Belle Hume of Murray River. He left here last year, and was working for an insurance company. There are two sons and one daughter, the latter nineteen years old, left to mourn.

Inquirers about Limerick are informed that any competitor may send as many lines as he chooses provided that each line is written upon a separate coupon and each coupon is accompanied by ten cents. The Guardian cannot undertake to answer Limerick enquirers by letter. No notice is taken of lines not accompanied by money. It has happened in a very few cases that no remittance was enclosed with the lines received. It is useless to write two or more lines on one coupon. In such cases only the first line is considered. Competitors should take care that their lines make rhyme with the first two lines of the Limerick and are of the same measure with those lines. Too many are careless in that respect. Judging from letters received the competition is much enjoyed. Fifty Limerick lines were received yesterday from the following:

- Miss J. H. City.
- P. L. M. Millview.
- Miss C. M. Pine's.
- L. G. P. Murray Harbor South.

Miss Lucy Blanchard, Charlottetown's popular contralto, will sing at We do land tomorrow evening. She has a charming song and everyone should hear her.

An extended report of the decisions of The Master of The R's in the Chartery Court cases heard by him at Summerside this week, will appear in tomorrow's Guardian.

It is simply useless for correspondents to send The Guardian items of news unaccompanied by the names of the senders. In many cases neglect or forgetfulness is the reason the communications are unsigned. Nothing can be done however with these offerings except to consign them to the waste basket.

The Guardian news office closes at twelve midnight Saturday and does not open again until midnight Sunday. In the meantime any news items, duly signed by the writer and dropped in the letter box in The Guardian main entrance door, will have prompt attention when office opens.

On Monday evening last a pleasant evening was spent in North Carleton when a party of invited guests assembled at the home of James and Mrs. McGrath. The evening was spent in dancing and singing. Those taking part in the singing were: Thomas McGrath and H. McKenna of Waterford, Lot 1, and the Misses McGaughey of Bonshaw. The party retired to their homes at an early hour.

A WRINKLE FOR CAKE MAKERS.

If you are your own cake baker—and surely you are—you perhaps have noted the difference there is in flour.

There are two principal constituents in flour—starch and gluten. All wheats, contain both, but in varying quantities. Ontario fall wheat is rich in starch, while Manitoba spring wheat contains a large percentage of gluten. By combining the two kinds of wheat scientifically a flour is made that gives delightful results, whether for cake, pastry or bread.

Millers are now blending these two kinds of wheat in such a way that the rich elasticity of the first is combined with the strength of the second—making an ideal flour.

Expert cooks have given Blended Flours exhaustive tests, and they are one in the opinion that no other flour can make such white, light, wholesome cake; pastry and bread.

Housekeepers will find Blended Flours without equal, both for making dainty foods and substantial baking and they will find Blended Flours most economical too.

$50,000.000 FOR ADVERTISING.

James B. Duke, the tobacco king of Long Branch, New Jersey, recently claimed in an interview that he had spent more money in advertising than any other living man. He said that the figures would reach fifty million dollars.—Newspaper.

Yet James B. Duke is to-day one of the wealthiest men in the world. When you see a liberal advertiser you see a rich man. The business man who in this age of advertising is afraid to invest his money in publicity will never accumulate a fortune.

WHEN THAT COLD COMES.

How is it to be cured? This method is simplicity itself. But the chest and throat well with Nerville, use it as a gargle and take some in hot water before retiring along with one of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Next morning find you refreshed, free from cold and bright as a dollar. These household remedies are wonderfully successful, and certainly won't fail in your case. For sale at all dealers.
