W. Tidmarsh, Dr. J. C. Houston and many others connected with the institution.
After going through the Hospital, His Excellency said to Mr. Tid-marsh:
"I can only say to you, sir, as Governor-General, that the first thing we have to look after is the health of our people, and that good hospitals are essential to health."
"I am delighted to know that you are taking part in this good work of raising a construction and equipment fund for a new and strictly modern hospital, and I wish you the greatest success in your noble undertaking."
Lady Willingdon also expressed great interest in the campaign, and asked many questions of Mr. Tid-marsh, Mr. Rogers, Dr. Johnson and others in the group.

Three Excellent Meetings

Three excellent meetings in the $250,000 Prince Edward Island Hospital campaign were held last night in Eldon, Morell and Marshfield.
Addresses setting forth the Hospital's need of a new building were made by Mr. W. F. Tidmarsh, Mr.
W. K. Rogers, Dr. J. W. McKenzie and others.
Entertainments provided by Mrs. J.
A. C. Rodgeron, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee went from Charlottetown to all three of the towns and rendered interesting programs. The artists were Mrs. R. E.
Mutch, reading; Miss Frances Wood, solo; Mr. MacKinnon, solo; Mrs. J.
A. C. Rodgeron, accompanist at Eldon; Miss Mae Sinclair, reading; Mrs.
Willard Spencer, solo; Miss Mae Sterns, accompanist, at Marshfield; Miss Annie Danarel, solo; Mrs.
Guthrie Ealing, reading and Miss Fannie Bell, accompanist, at Morell.
Marked enthusiasm was shown by the three audiences, and the district chairmen assured the Charlottetown visitors of warm local co-operation in the fund raising movement. The three district chairmen who presided at the meetings were the Rev. Dr.
Genge, at Marshfield; James J. Larabee, at Eldon, and H. H. Cox, at Morell.

Claims Reasonable

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Oct. 7.—Senator Gideon D. Robertson, Minister of Labor in transmitting his reply to Premier L. A. Taschereau of Quebec on unemployment says: "Not the slightest indication has thus far appeared, that any province has sought to derive political benefit as your letter terms it, save your own indulgence in that direction." Six provincial Governments had already sent representatives to Ottawa and established reasonably their claim for help, and agreements had been entered into with these provinces to relieve unemployment. Senator Robertson declares. The province of Quebec, the Minister emphasized, would be treated with the same spirit of fairness and equality upon the need being similarly established.
Senator Robertson in his communication expressed the hope that, "his outline will give you a clearer understanding of our proposals and of the intent of the act of Parliament so that no further misunderstandings may arise in our attempt to fairly administer this act."

Conditions Good

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 7.—"Fundamental conditions in Canada are sound; the clouds which at the moment obscure the rising sun of Canada's prosperity will soon be dissipated. There is no reason to fear the final turn of events," said Dr. John

General Burial Service

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Burial of the bodies of all those lost aboard the R-101 will probably be in a common grave and at a single ceremony. The Air Ministry tonight mailed letters to relatives saying that because of the impossibility of identifying the majority of the bodies with any certainty, a general burial service would be dignified and appropriate.

Single Memorial

The ministry pointed out that a single memorial could be erected over the grave at or near Cardington home port of the R-101 and of the R-100. The dead men's relatives were asked to signify their assent as soon as possible.

Service on Friday

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Great Britain today planned fitting honors for the victims of the R-101 disaster which has plunged the nation in grief.
The Admiralty announced that the destroyers Tempest and Tribune have been ordered to proceed to Erance to take aboard the dead and return them to their homeland.
Honors for the victims will begin with the bodies lying in state at the Beauvais Town Hall not far from the scene of the airship's fatal plunge. Services at Beauvais Cathedral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.
The bodies then will be taken by rail to Boulogne where the destroyers will take them aboard for the shores of England. The port of entry will be Dover.

secretary of the Canadian branch of the Empire Parliamentary Association, recalled last night that Lord Thomson delivered two speeches on airship development—one at London, Ont., and the other at Hart House, Toronto. He also spoke in French at Sherbrooke, Que.

Christopher Birdwood Thomson, first Baron of Cardington, who perished in the destruction of the dirigible R-101, was appointed Secretary of State for Air by England's Labor government last year.
He was born in 1875, son of the late Major General David Thomson Educated at the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, he received his commission in 1894 and served in the Boer War.

He was a member of the faculty of the Chatham School of military engineering from 1902 to 1905 and later was connected with the War headquarters of the British Army in France in 1914. In the next three years he was chief of military commissions to Rumania and Palestine.
In 1918 and 1919 he was a member of the Supreme War Council and was retired in 1919 with the rank of Brigadier General. In 1924 he served as Secretary of State for Air in the first Labor government.
He was the author of several books including a work on aeronautical problems. He was unmarried.

ing treatment at Dr. Acker's Clinic.
Their Excellencies then visited the Prince Edward Island and Charlottetown Hospitals. At the latter hospital Her Excellency was presented with a bouquet of roses by a member of the nursing staff.
Her Excellency expressed her pleasure at the splendid work which is being carried on by the local branch of the Society.
The party then visited the Blue Doors Library and the Checkers Fox Ranch. The party was very much interested in the milk section of the ranch.
Their Excellencies entertained the following guests at luncheon in their private car: Lieutenant, Governor Heartz and Mrs. Heartz, Hon. Prem-

Rough Seas

Rough seas were running in the Channel as the two warships plowed out from Boulogne breakwater. The coffins at the final ceremony on French soil had been divided between the two destroyers. Three of the survivors of the disaster were well enough to make the trip; they were J. J. Leach, A. V. Bell, and J.
H. Binks. Leach was navigating the R-101 when she crashed into the wooded hillside near Beauvais.

inally contemplated and the orders to take care of the needs of the coming year will be placed shortly.
The announcement says, that the programme laid down provides for payment by the Dominion Government of interest charges involved for a certain length of time as outlined recently at Ottawa by Hon. G.
D. Robertson, Minister of Labor.
The projects were approved by the Government in a recent conference with the Company and are in addition to the programme which the Company had already arranged to commence this fall and winter and also in addition to the extensive works now in progress, which will be carried through to completion.
In connection with the Saint John Station, the announcement said, "The Canadian National Railways have recently constructed a new train shed and an office baggage and mail express wing. It is now proposed to build the headhouse of the station proper."

Mrs. MacDonald, Lt. Col. G. Elliot Full and Miss Margaret Full.
At 2.45 His Excellency was welcomed at the golf links by Mr. W.
K. Rogers, Lord Willingdon drove a ball over the course, and formally declared it open. The caddies were lined up, and the lad recovering the ball was given $5 by His Excellency.
The ball was presented to the club as a memento of the occasion. In a round of golf Lord Willingdon and Mrs. V. L. Goodwill won from Lady Willingdon and Mr. W. K. Rogers by one hole. After the round was finished the vice-regal party was entertained at tea at the Club house.
The members present were presented to Their Excellencies, who complimented the club on the new course, and expressed their thanks to the club for the pleasure they had had during the afternoon.
