Death of Mr. S.C. Moore Yesterday

THE LATE MR. S. C. MOORE

News of the death of Mr. S. C. Moore, one of Charlottetown's most widely-known and most respected citizens, which occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at noon was received with regret by his many friends. Death was due to pneumonia and followed an illness of about three weeks.

Born in Bermuda 83 years ago the deceased was a son of the late Rev. Frederick Moore and Mary Davies. He came to this province with his parents at the early age of two and has resided here ever since.

He was for a number of years employed in the drygoods firm known as the London House and later became associated with Mr. Herbert Haszard in the printing, bookbinding and stationery business. After the death of Mr. Haszard, some years ago, Mr. Moore was appointed representative of the Eddy Match and Paper Co.

The late Mr. Moore was a prominent figure in sport circles, curling being his favorite pastime.

He was the oldest active member of the Charlottetown Curling Club and had competed in many bonspiels in the Maritime Provinces, and some in other provinces. Only last spring he skipped a Charlottetown rink in the big International Bonspiel at Quebec.

He will be fondly remembered by many Wolf Cubs and former Cubs in the city for his great work amongst them. For years the late Mr. Moore was connected with this important boy's movement and at the time of his death was Assistant Provincial Commissioner of Wolf Cubs.

Some years ago he was a prominent member of the Salvage Corps, attached to the Charlottetown Fire Department.

He was also an excellent rifle shot and in season sought the ducks and geese with the energy of much younger men, and was also an adept at "fly" fishing.

Possessed of a friendly and jolly disposition he quickly made and retained a large circle of friends, all of whom will regret to learn of his passing.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, one son, Stewart, of the Department of Transport, City, and two daughters Mrs. Willard J. MacDonald, Saint John, N.B., and Mrs. Arthur Vinnicombe, Halifax, N.S. His wife predeceased him about nine years ago and one son, Terrence, who passed away in Winnipeg about four years ago.

Surviving are two brothers, Lieut.-Colonel F. W. L. Moore, Victoria, B. C., Daniel in Australia and one sister, Miss Amy Moore of Halifax, N. S., now summering at Cavendish; also two grandchildren, Shirley MacDonald and Donald Moore.

To the sorrowing family and relatives the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Block Jap Raid On Chungking

CHUNGKING, July 27 — (AP) — United States warplanes which roared out to meet a squadron of perhaps 30 Japanese raiders saved this often-bombed Chinese capital from attack tonight while its tens of thousands of people huddled anxiously in caves and shelters for two hours and five minutes through their first air raid alarm in 11 months.

It was not known immediately whether the American planes actually engaged the Japanese. However, none of the raiders which roared in at dusk from across the eastern boarder of Szechwan province reached the vicinity of the capital.

In Memoriam

MRS. J. W. BROWN

The passing of Mrs. J.W. Brown in the early hours of Saturday morning July 11th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Milligan Tyne Valley came as a severe shock to her loved ones and friends despite the fact that her health since the death of her beloved husband just sixteen months ago had been a matter of deep concern to them. She had been his constant companion and devoted nurse during his prolonged illness, and a tower of strength during their long and happy married life: On July 21st 1939 they celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary and their many friends rejoiced at that time to see them in the enjoyment of such good health and still able to take an active part in church and all other worth while affairs.

During their early married life they carried on a successful mercantile business, first at Port Hill then at Tyne Valley, Retiring from business thirty-four years ago, they spent a great deal of time in the U.S.A. but the lure of the homeland was strong enough to bring them back to spend their summers in Tyne Valley among old friends and associations and where they had the satisfaction of seeing the many monuments to their skill and industry, several of the finest buildings in the village having been built or remodelled by them. Mrs. Brown whose maiden name was Sarah Lenora Hopgood was born at Northam on August 4th 1859, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hopgood. Mourning the loss of a kind and devoted mother are two daughters Amelia J. (Mrs. Wm. H. Ellis) and Fannie I. (Mrs. A.W. Milligan) Tyne Valley and one son George Waner of Wellesley Mass, U.S.A. Also nine grandchildern and ten great-grandchildern. A brother Mr. Hume Hopgood of Malpeque and one sister Mrs. Wm Capen, Concord, New Hampshire, also survive. The funeral service on Monday July 13th was held in the United Church and was conducted by Rev. Hugh M. Creeser, assisted by Dr. Murray of Willington and Rev. Mr. Crowdis of Malpeque. Rev. Mr. Creaser took for his text a part of verse twelve in 1st Cor Chapter 13. For now we see through a glass darkly. The hymns used during the service were favorites of the deceased "Rock of Ages"—"Safe in the Arms of Jesus", and "Lead kindly light." A solo In The Garden was very feelingly rendered by Mr. G. Roy Phillips.

At the conclusion of the service the casket with its profusion of beautiful floral tributes from friends here and elsewhere bearing mute testimony to the esteem in which the departed was held, was conveyed to the adjoining cemetery by the pallbearers: Woodland Colwill, Ernest Ellis, Thomas Nisbett, Hartz Lidstone, Stewing Williams and Lloyd Sharpe, and all that was mortal was laid to rest beside the husband who had so recently gone before.

ENEMY CLAIMS

es into one of the greatest battles of history.

It appeared by far the most important battle fought on Russian soil since the Germans first crunched into Russia's western buffer front June 22 last year. The oil, mineral and agricultural riches of the Caucasus are at stake and with them Russia's southern lifeline from her allies in the Middle East.

Both the Germans and the Russians put on a terrific show in the skies, according to advices reaching Moscow.

Day and night the heavens were filled with fighters and bombers. The roar and whine of planes in twisting combat, the blasting of aerial cannon and the thunderous burst of bombs at times blanketed the tumult of battle aground.

The whole steppe land inside the Don Bend and the river slopes in places were splotched by the wildfire of battle. Fires spread through ripening grainfields which provided ideal terrain for tanks manoeuvring by the hundreds.
