The purchase of these animals at a cost of over $2,000,000 was made possible by grants to the Association by the Provincial Government.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

The services in Trinity United Church on Sunday, Oct. 28, were conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie. For the sermon in the morning Dr. MacKenzie chose as his text Genesis 49:22 "Joseph is a fruitful bough planted by a well and his branches run over the wall." This is a word picture of the life that has learned the secret of living according to God's plan for human life to root the soul in God by a faith that issues in obedience. Joseph had a varied career working through adversity to great influence in adversity. The story tells us that he learned the secret of victory over self and circumstances because God was with him over and over again. The history of a vital personal religion reaching out into a social religion fulfilling Biblical description of a fruitful life in the service of his fellowmen in ever enlarging circles. No life is good unless good for something and its finest fruitage is that others are enabled to live better because of what they receive from it. The universal range of a true religion is suggested by the branches that go over the wall. The grapes that grew outside the wall were for the weary passer-by. It is a picture of what the Missionary enterprise of the Church has accomplished that has paid such dividends during the war. Surprised newspapermen tell of the friendliness of the Islands of the Pacific when our allies were left stranded by sea or air and what China demonstrates of the recreating power of the Christian life in the Government of that country saving it from being a liability to becoming an asset for the future in making a friendly world.

The choir sang the anthem "The Heavens are Declaring"—Beethoven arranged by Dudley Buck. Mr. Harvey McPherson took the solo part.

In the evening Dr. MacKenzie spoke on the "City Four Square". A picture given to hearten the persecuted Christians of the first century when totalitarians felt, if they were to succeed, the Christian Church must be liquidated if their own plans were to succeed, that, too, was Hitler's way, but the Church stood. The four sides suggest different motives that bring Christians into an experience of Christ but all become merged in a common fellowship and each finds on entrance more than he expected. He especially stressed the call of the east gate at this hour as a call of a sunrise, a call of youth and the call to dedicate their creative powers to the service of God to find their highest fulfillment in the working for the new society that good men, by the grace of God, are seeking to build.

For the evening anthem the choir sang "Teach Me O Lord"... Attwood, and Mrs. G. W. Hammons sang the beautiful solo "Agnus Dei"..Bizet. Mrs. Keith S. Rogers presided at the organ at both services.

And now, we are faced with the still greater problem of building a new humanity with the spiritual and moral attributes that can use such stupendous power for the benefit of every human being. The new world of inter-communication and inter-transportation, of new textiles and new expressions of energy require a closer fellowship and greater understanding of spiritual values." The timely subjects of the Educational Seminar are creating much interest. The subject on Tuesday evening is "Is There Life After Death? If So, Where?"

SPECIAL SHOW — Canadian Legion Rooms last evening were well filled with many servicemen and veterans when through the kindness of Mr. B. Graham Rogers, Mr. George Moss, president of Arrow Films, Ltd., brought his demonstration De Vry projector and showed an excellent four-reel film with musical shorts. The large audience was most appreciative. Arrangements for this special show were made through Mr. Ira M. Brown, local supervisor, C.L.W.S.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of mother, Mrs. Lyda Hunter, who passed away three years ago today.
The month of October again is here
One of the saddest of all the year
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.
Gone and forgotten, by some she may be,
But never forgotten by us, will she be.
Two little words not hard to write
But I will remember them all my life—My Mother.

Always remembered by her daughter, Margie and son-in-law, Wilfred. 10-29-1i

NOW IT'S OUR TURN TO TAKE OVER

They carried him out under the noses of machine guns, and put him in hospital. Now it's our turn: He will need long medical care. When he is well again, he will need training for a new job and many other things.

So we must take over, until he is off safely to a new start.

That is one of the jobs your Victory Loan dollars must do. It's a job that cannot wait.
