

To Keep Before Your Mind
The "W. W. W." Wedding Rings

Every ring bears the stamp "W. W. W." representing a 45 years test in wearing qualities. Look inside Grandmother's ring and see if it is not a "W. W. W."

They are made in all widths and in 10k, 14k, and 18k. Of all rings the Wedding Ring should be the best.

W. W. WELLNER, Jewel.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province

HARTNEY HALL.—There will be preaching service next Sunday at Hartney Hall at 7 p.m., conducted by Mr. William Scott.

OFFICES CLOSE.—The offices of the wholesale merchants of this city will close for the summer months at one o'clock Saturday, commencing this Saturday.

MT. HERBERT.—There will be Sunday School at Mt. Herbert Hall next Sunday at 2 p.m. and preaching service at 3 p.m., conducted by Mr. William Scott, Clyde River, formerly of Mt. Herbert.

FOR INSPECTION.—The magnificent new steamer Evangeline, which will arrive in Charlottetown this afternoon will be open to the public for inspection between 8 and 10 o'clock, at the Plant Line wharf.

EARNSCIFFE.—Mr. Joseph McAulay, who has been in the employ of Messrs. John and Harry Tweedy for the past year, left last week for Boston. Mr. McAulay is a bright youth, of a mechanical turn of mind, and his friends wish him lots of success in his new field of labor.

GOOD PROGRESS.—Miss Katherine James, Supervisor of Women's Institutes, has this week been addressing institute meetings at York Point, Meadow Bank, Clyde River and Kingston. Her meetings have been well attended and the women are very enthusiastic and the women line of work they have taken up. Next week Miss James will address institute meetings on Tuesday, June 10th, at Kensington; Wednesday, Darnley; Thursday, Malpeque; Friday at Springfield. All of these meetings, with the exception of the one at Malpeque will be held at 2 p.m. The subject taken up will be Canning and Preserving. Every woman interested, whether a member of the Institute or not, will be welcomed. The meeting at Malpeque will be held in the hall at 7.30 p.m.

HOPE RIVER Farmers' Institute, recently organized, will be addressed by Prof. R. Robertson, formerly of Nappan Experimental Station, N.S., on the subject of "Institutes and Agriculture in General," on Tuesday, June 10th, at 8 p.m., in the Hope River Hall. Free admission, and every person interested welcome. The Department of Agriculture is endeavoring to stimulate agriculture in the Province by public addresses, live stock judging classes, sheep-dipping demonstrations, free distribution of literature on all subjects connected with agriculture; also two very liberal cash grants annually through the medium of Farmers' Institutes. Therefore it behooves the farmers of Hope River and surrounding districts, who haven't yet enrolled as members, to do so at once in order to be in touch with the Department and to receive full benefit of same.

From yesterday's evening Guardian. POLICE COURT.—At the Charlottetown Police Court this morning, John McMillan for being disorderly on the street was fined $2 or ten days.

PORK WANTED.—The ad. of Davis & Fraser in today's issue is to advise farmers who have hogs ready, to ship them before they stop packing and suggesting the advisability of having hogs ready early this fall when prices are generally highest.

"Princess Patricia is the name of the new perfume which we have made expressly for ourselves. It has become so popular that we had to duplicate our first order in a short time. Every day adds to its list of admirers. 10c. dram. 75c. oz. B. A. Foster, Central Drugstore. Mtt.
