

STRIKE TORN CUBA

Rebels estimated to number 800 were moving through Mantanzas Province, cutting communication lines as they headed for the town Colon, in the centre of the Province, said reports from that area.

To the east Juan Blas Hernandez, most picturesque of Cuban rebels, was in the hills with an army estimated variously at from 1 down to 2,000 men. After clashing with Government forces near Moton yesterday, the rebel chief, according to reports received here, was adding recruits and splitting his forces into small bands.

It was by this method he was able to annoy the troops of former President Gerardo Machado two years ago.

There were contradictory reports about the activities of Major Lico Balan in Oriente Province. Some said he had set out and was holding the town of Gibara. Others said he had not taken up arms against the Government at all.

The name of the leader of the Matanzas rebels was not immediately learned.

Britishers Prisoners

Reports from Cienfuegos in Santa Clara Province said trouble was expected at the Soledad Sugar Mill near that city. The Soledad Mill is the oldest American-owned sugar works in Cuba. Several British subjects are among the officials.

The food problem in Havana was not improved as the strike of warehouse men continued. It was estimated foodstuffs now in the stores would be exhausted in about 1 week.

The political situation was a bit more complicated after the refusal of Grau supporters to accede to the demands of his opponents that he resign.

The Grau supporters, led by the student directory, set to work drafting a counter-proposal.

The students claimed that Miguel Mariano Gomez, leader of the Marianistas, heretofore aligned with other opposition groups would offer a formula to solve the deadlock. The retention of Grau as President, they said, would be included in the plan.

AMENDMENTS

Commissioners with not less than eight and not more than 12 members. The travelling Pension Tribunal of nine members will be disbanded while the pensions appeal court of three members will remain a part of the system.

It is understood that some difficulty in deciding the necessary appointment has held up re-organization but the activities of the tribunal ceased over a week ago and several of the members have already left for their homes. The expectation is that all the former commissioners who wish will be absorbed in the new pension commission and some of the members of the tribunal may receive appointments.

"PEG" WHEAT DOWN; TRADE CLOSES HEAVY

(Canadian Press) WINNIPEG, Sept. 22—Heavy selling, which swept the market in the closing stages, put the skids under wheat prices on the grain exchange today. The close left values 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents under the previous close, after they had held fairly steady most of the day, only fractionally lower.

Source of the selling spurge was undetermined, but support was thin and little resistance was offered to the movement. Last-minute trading was quite active, and values quickly tapered off.

Export business in Canada wheat was estimated between 250,000 and 300,000 bushels. Closing quotations showed the October at 65 1/2, the November at 66 1/2, December at 67 1/2, and May future at 72 cents.

Most of the early support was credited to export interests and a local house while hedging sales, and scattered selling orders from the south constituted most of the offerings.

Quite active at the outset and during the initial hour, the market turned dull after mid-session, and values held at levels slightly under the previous close. The Chicago market had considerable influence on Winnipeg prices. The southern market near the close was about stemming occasional bursts of buying.

Liverpool wheat, reflecting easiness in North American markets yesterday closed 1/2 to 3/4 lower, while Buenos Aires at the opening showed a fractional decline.

Australian wheat shipments totalled 2,044,000 bushels for the past week and the movement from Argentina was 2,633,000 bushels. Total shipments from these two countries last week was slightly less than 3,250,000 bushels.

Cash grains trading was heavy with spreads fractionally easier. Aside from fair investment buying in barley, coarse grains operations were routine in character and prices followed the trend of wheat.

Excursionists Arrive In Boston Today

(Special to the Guardian) MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 22—Tomorrow (Saturday) Boston will be invaded by a large number of Maritime excursionists travelling on a bargain trip operated over the Canadian National Railways and connecting lines. Over five hundred from points in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island and in New Brunswick east of Moncton left here today on a sixteen car train which will pick up other excursionists enroute to Saint John. This is the second of these all rail excursions to be operated from the Maritime this year to Boston.

Two United States immigration inspectors joined the train at Moncton to facilitate the entrance of the excursionists into the United States. Return limit is Monday, September 25th.

Discuss Air Traffic Across The Atlantic

(Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—The public works administration today was studying an application for a $30,000,000 loan for the construction of five huge landing bases for aeroplane traffic across the Atlantic.

Public Works officials said aviation experts of the army, navy and commerce departments would be consulted to determine the practicability and whether the plan falls within the policy of "social and economic worth" in making allotments.

SIXTEEN CONTESTANTS

$10; Mrs. A. H. Burke, Southport; Earl Hickey, Summerside $10; James E. Hughes, Bradabane, $10; and R. M. Owen, Ch'town $10. Next in line and following exceptionally close was Mrs. John Weeks, Brookfield $5; Miss Margaret Mellett, Union Road $5; Miss Muriel Bowen, Wheatley River $5; Ernest McMillan, Ch'town RR $5; Frank Brown, Kensington $5; Miss Isobel Ferguson, Bonshaw $5; Fred Skerry, Alberton $3; Miss Ruby McLean, Clyde River $3; J. Other contestants who have done good work since the start of the big contest are as follows: Miss Lottie Affleck, Mt. Stewart; Miss Mary Brown, Ch'town; Miss Vivian Cameron, Ch'town; Miss Julia Garver, Mt. Albion; Mrs. S. Elliott, Ch'town; Miss Eileen Handrahan, Tignish; Miss Genevieve Jay, Moreil; Stirling McDonald, Ch'town; J.H.F. McCallum, Ch'town; Edward Norton, Crapaud; Eric Robin, Ch'town; Chas. Sabine, Ch'town; Miss Laura Hughes, Ch'town; Miss Lottie Proffitt, Spring Valley, Mrs. Fred Bertram, Fredericton; Miss Dorothy Moynagh, Souris; Chas. Bradley, Kelley's Cross; G.H. Deacon, Freetown. All candidates are to be congratulated on the wonderful amount of new and renewal business they secured during the special offer, and now the big question is, which contestants will win the ten extra cash prizes one week from tonight, Saturday, Sept. 30th?

Every worker in the Guardian's great prize distribution contest has already won a splendid amount of cash and now that the time is getting short and the prizes at stake are valuable, a little special effort put forth during the extra offers this week may mean the difference of your winning the twenty dollar extra cash prize one week from tonight and the six hundred dollar grand cash prize at the close of the contest, in place of a much smaller prize. Keep busy every minute from now until the close of the big prize offers Saturday, Sept. 30th.

Orphanage Threatened

Flames threatened the orphanage too for a while last night, and the little charges were led from the building but were allowed to return later when firemen declared the danger past.

Cause of the fire remained undetermined. Church authorities said nobody was known to be in the cathedral when it was closed up earlier in the evening. Fire broke out at 10.45 p.m. in a steeple and rapidly worked through the roof to spread to the convent roof a few yards away. Firemen called from Montreal made a thrilling dash to the scene of the fire and aided local firemen and volunteers in minimizing the damage to the normal school. Greater part of the fire force concentrated on shielding other buildings from sparks and embers as a wind fanned the tongues of flame leaping out of the convent roof.

Firemen Remain

The fire was extinguished at daybreak but tonight a small detail of weary firemen remained on the scene pouring water in stubborn isolated little fires amid the rubble.

Convent pupils whose homes are far from Valleyfield were billeted tonight with hospitable citizens. They will be sent to their homes tomorrow until it is decided what will be done about continuing the convent classes in temporary quarters.

PROGRESS MADE

not join in the imposing of any such penalties. This stand was made plain in a conference which lasted one hour and a half.

France, it was said, showed a willingness for her great army to be substantially reduced step by step in line with the conversion of the German Reichswehr (standing army) into a militia.

The four powers, it was added, agreed that the proposed convention should be divided into two parts. The first would comprise a transition period during which an inventory of the existing arms and man power would begin preparatory to transforming the armies into militias and to cease arming. The second would include the disarmament phase, when the nations would start abolishing certain weapons.

Italy and France were described as closer together than ever in ironing out their differences.

ROME, Sept. 22—It was learned tonight that a Mussolini disarmament plan has been written by Il Duce and his secretary during the past fortnight.

The pact was reported to have been presented at Paris informally during the disarmament discussions there in order to obtain the opinion of the various nations concerned before formal presentation at Geneva and it has been communicated to Germany.

The details have not yet been revealed, but it was stated the plan was confined to general principles without involving details and figures. It was believed concerned principally with reconciling the viewpoints of Germany and France.

CATHEDRAL

On Sunday the parishioners will gather in the street before the blackened ruins of their church to hear Mass sung by Rev. Canon Dolphis Neveu. From that time till the new cathedral rises, the faithful folk of the parish will worship at other churches in the city.

Speculate on Future

While the elder folk of Valleyfield looked with sorrow on the ashes of the stately cathedral which was admittedly the most magnificent in the countryside, day pupils of the large convent gathered in groups in the streets and recounting their experiences of the fire and speculating on the immediate future of their schooling.

Hundreds of convent girls in sombre black uniforms clustered all day long on the sidewalks bordering the convent. Older girls under supervision of the firemen and nuns, entered the dripping lower floors of the normal school, removed armfuls of textbooks and stored them in the orphanage of the Sisters of Providence.
