WOMEN FOLK ASKED TO WAIT AWHILE

LONDON, April 12.—(CP)—The Dean of Windsor, Dr. Albert Ballie, is expecting crowds to visit St. George's Chapel at Windsor this week.

There will be so many Coronation visitors from overseas "whom we are anxious to treat as hospitably as possible," that the dean wants English visitors to come another year. He has made a request that organizers of English parties give St. George's a miss this summer.

CITY COUNCIL

The police force. Authority was also given to call for tenders for the making of the police uniforms.

The advisability of appointing another permanent police officer was discussed. It was decided to have the Police Committee prepare regulations and requirements for police officers for presentation at the special meeting next week. The question of the appointment was discussed also it was understood.

Coun. Dougan, chairman of the Tender Committee, told the meeting that tenders had been called and received for providing rest rooms and toilet facilities in the Market Building but on request of the Public Property Committee had not been opened.

Coun. Posier, chairman of Public Property, told the council that he had been informed by responsible citizens that the proposed plans for rest rooms and toilet facilities at the Market Building were not what the Tourist Association, the country or the city required so he had thought it advisable not to proceed.

The Public Property and Market Committees were advised to get together and prepare a report on alternative office, rest room and toilet facilities at the Market Building and present it at the special meeting on Tuesday.

The Building Inspector would be requested to investigate complaints that two shacks were under construction or had been constructed on Esker Street, the Council declared.

Attempts would be made shortly to eliminate the dog nuisance in the city. Coun. McIntyre, chairman of Police told the meeting. He told the Council also that he had been informed by the Board of Railway Commissioners that two wig wags and two signal bells would be placed at the Grafton Street railway crossing.

Coun. Chandler reviewed briefly the activities of the Coronation Committee and the proposal for the celebration of Coronation Day in Charlottetown.

Conciliation Board Will Report Today

OTTAWA, April 12.—(CP)—Reports were current here tonight a settlement of a dispute between the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees would report tomorrow recommending full abolition of the 10-per-cent wage cuts imposed by the roads as a depression measure.

It was said the Board, headed by Judge L. F. Smiley of Ottawa, would place its report in the hands of the Labor Department and that it probably would be made public sometime tomorrow.

The Brotherhood, representing about 15,000 railway employees not connected with the running trades, sought a separate settlement of its claims for restoration of the 10-per-cent cut from its members' wages and did not participate in efforts of the 18 International Unions whose case was considered by a Conciliation Board under chairmanship of Justice A. K. MacLean of the Exchequer court.

Will Provide For Premier's Salary

LONDON, April 12.—(CP Cable)—Home Secretary Sir John Simon moved reading of the Ministers of the Crown bill in the House of Commons today and sought the cooperation of the whole House in setting right the anomalies in ministerial salaries.

"We are not engaged in increasing the Prime Minister's salaries—we are engaged in getting him one," Sir John said.

The measure would provide £10,000 ($40,000) for the Prime Minister and a standard rate of £5,000 for cabinet ministers.

The Pre School Child

Each year among the first grade pupils the Public Health Nurse finds defects which may have occurred some years before and which have had very little or no attention at all.

The opinion of school medical officers the world over is that many of the pronounced defects in hearing, vision, tonsils and teeth—which handicap some children in their school work had their onset long before the child entered school.

How many mothers are there who feel that once the period of meticulous care in the first and part of second year has passed, that careful guidance and supervision are unnecessary? It is during this period that the foundation

G. M. OFFERS CONCESSION IN STRIKE

Deadlock Continues, However, As Hepburn Refuses To Confer With C. I. O. Representatives.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, April 12.—Still strongly opposed to John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario late today revealed concessions. General Motors of Canada officials are prepared to make in an effort to solve the strike at their Oshawa plant.

Increased wages and improved working conditions, including adoption of the "shop steward system", are offered by the firm in attempts to have the 3,700 strikers return to work. Mr. Hepburn, in announcing these concessions, declared the presence of C. I. O. representatives in the strike situation should be resented by all Canadians.

"I believe we are quite capable of settling our own domestic problems, labor or otherwise," said the Premier.

With Mr. Louis Fine, Labor Department conciliation officer, Mr. Hepburn declared he believed the Company offered in the concessions complete solution of the problems "insofar as they effect wages and working conditions for the General Motors employees."

Mr. Hepburn said the firm was ready to extend a straight wage increase of seven cents an hour to those receiving 55 cents an hour and less. Those receiving more than 55 cents an hour would receive an increase of five cents an hour.

OSHAWA, Ont., April 12.—Attempts to enlist parts and service department employees in the United Automobile Workers' Union and completely tie up the General Motors of Canada, Limited, plant here were planned for a meeting tonight. Fifty day of the 3,007 workers continued their strike at the plant.

Picket lines patrolling the parts and service building included men who worked there as strike-breakers Saturday and have since joined the union, its officials said. Despite the boom and jeers directed at them by about 300 picketers, 83 workers entered the building this morning. Invitations to the meeting will be extended these workers.

Talk After-Care Of 'TB' Patients

(By The Canadian Press) LONDON, April 9.—Recognizing the problem of "after-care" arising when the tuberculosis patient, is discharged from the sanatorium, the Coronation period, with its influx from the Dominions, has been taken as opportunity for an Empire-wide conference on the subject.

Under the auspices of the Overseas League and the Papworth Village Settlement, the conference will be held in London May 3-8, under the presidency of the Marquess of Willingdon, former governor-general of Canada. The announced theme is "Care and After-Care of Tuberculosis."

The conference will provide a unique occasion for the exchange of views from all parts of the Empire. Speakers will include a number of distinguished medical men including Sir Kingsley Wood, minister of health; Professor S. Lyle Cummins, Lord Dawson of Penn, Lord Horder and Sir Penndrill Varrier-Jones. To these there will be added others from overseas.

Visitors will be enabled to inspect the Papworth settlement which is rapidly becoming a self-sustaining village. Former tuberculosis patients go there for care immediately after being discharged from sanatoria. They are given employment for a short period daily under medical supervision, and as occasion offers, returned to regular occupations and normal living.

for the future health of the child is being built—certain essential health rules must also be observed in this period if they are not, unforeseen consequences may result.

Well Baby and Pre School Conferences will shortly open in the Legion Room, 59 Grafton Street.

First Mackerel Catch Brings Good Prices To Fishermen

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) CAPE MAY, N. J., April 12.—Captain Anthony Linguata of the Gloucester fleet won the annual "mackerel race" today piloting his 110-foot Natche II to a wharf here with 4,500 pounds of fish that brought 18 cents a pound, cash on the spot.

The first mackerel of the spring were caught last night 45 miles southeast of Cape May, "Captain Tony" reported when his boat nosed in to the dock, where scores of buyers waited with trucks ready to bid for the coveted first fish. The mackerel were rushed to New York City.

Two hours after Captain Tony arrived Captain Jack Agrusa brought his 80-foot "Captain Drum" in with 1,500 pounds. He left early in the hope of winning the race, he said.

Meanwhile, 200 other boats from Gloucester, Boston and Maine were out hauling fish. Fishermen predicted 60,000 pounds of mackerel would be stacked on the wharf by tomorrow morning.

The fishermen will follow schools up the Atlantic coast all spring and summer, dropping their catches at the nearest ports as the chase moves northward. By summer the fishermen will be off Boston and Gloucester.

With meat prices high, the fishermen expected a much greater market for fish. Some calculated $500,000 worth of mackerel would be pulled in before the schools disappear in the Bay of Fundy.

German Paints Gloomy Picture Of Empire

BERLIN, April 12.—(C. P.)—A gloomy picture of the future of the British Empire as a result of the declining birthrate figures is painted by Dr. Johannes Stoye in an article which the "Lokal Anzeiger" publishes under the heading "The Empire: space without population."

The writer says the coming Imperial Conference cannot ignore the fact the Empire is too sparsely populated and appears to be convinced that Britain is not in a position to send the necessary number of people to the Dominions.

He declares: "The Dominions must increase their population if they want to recover economically. The British and the people in the Dominions must find ways and means of filling up the gap in the population with people who are not of their own blood."

Uigg And Grand View Livestock Shippers

At the Annual Meeting of the Uigg and Grandview Live Stock Shipping club a summary of the business done by the organization since its inception, Feb. 1st 1924, 12 years ago, was presented by the Secretary as follows:

No. of hogs shipped was 8,967
No. of calves shipped was 2071
No. of lambs shipped was 451
Nett value disbursed to shippers was $189,298.16.

This organization took as its initial object Montreal Market prices the Standard Market of Canada, to which Market several shipments were being made. Previous to organization local offerings were several cents below Montreal Market prices. The first shipment netted shippers within two cents of this market.

By the organization of the Maritime Live Stock Board, the margin was reduced to one and one half cents and later by taking a delivered price, the margin was further reduced to 1 cent. Finally when rail grading was introduced some shippers with a high dressing percentage received returns equal to prices paid in Montreal.

This business was carried on without extravagant outlay thereby bringing overhead expenses to a negligible expenditure.

It goes to show that farmers can carry on their own marketing if they have a common sense and a little patience.

One of our social difficulties and a detriment to progress may be found in the excessive expenditure of capital equipment both in public and private institutions.

This club has the honor of being the first co-operative organization in the handling of live stock in the Maritimes of which at present there are between thirty or forty.

Former Island Girl Linked In Robbery Case

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) DEDHAM, Mass., April 12.—Henry Baker of Boston's Dorchester district suspect in a $10,000 payroll robbery at Rochester, N. H., was sentenced today to serve from four to six years in state prison when he appeared in superior court on a charge of defaulting ball of $15,000 in a local case.

Baker's girl friend, Catherine S. MacKinnon, 28, former Summerside, P. E. I., resident who was charged with being an accomplice in the payroll robbery, was sentenced from three to five years in New Hampshire state prison previously.

The pretty auburn-haired girl was arrested shortly after two gunmen held up the company's payroll guards as they were on the way to the bank. As the men fled in an automobile, she first stalled her own car and then swung it around in front of a police automobile, enabling the robbers to escape.

Baker frequently was referred to in her trial, first in which a woman had been charged with participation in a payroll robbery in New Hampshire. In his room in Cambridge police found a typewritten letter which had not been completed beyond the salutation: "Dear Catherine." He was arrested after police received anonymous tip as to his whereabouts.

Income Tax Problem Discussed At Rotary

"If it is found in such an investigation that had the taxpayer taken advantage of the allowance for depreciation, such allowance would more than offset the additional income, this will not be allowed, as the rulings distinctly state that, for depreciation to be allowed, it must be incorporated in the regular books of account of the taxpayer."

"There is a well established rule that, if a taxpayer is legally liable to pay a tax, such tax must be paid, regardless of the apparent hardship which may be entailed."

WILL PROTECT

"It has been necessary to take into account the practical aspect of the problem arising out of efforts of the insurgent forces to invest Bilbao by sea and land. "Bilbao is in close proximity to the war zone. There is a constant and serious risk to shipping in Bilbao harbor from bombing by aircraft. In addition there is a grave risk for any ship seeking to enter the harbor unless minesweeping is first carried out."

"His Majesty's Government have come to the following decision," the Prime Minister said. "They cannot tolerate any interference with British shipping at sea. They are, however warning British shipping that in view of the conditions at present prevailing in the neighborhood of Bilbao they should not, for practical reasons, in view of the risks against which it is apparent that it is impossible to protect them, go into the area so long as these conditions prevail."

"branches, flagrant breaches" of the agreement. Eden asserted the "knowledge that many governments, despite all discouragement, were working for neutrality had greatly reduced the risks of a general war. He said these risks were high last autumn. "They may be considerable again, but they should not and need not."

He concluded by reiterating his statement of some months ago that in finally the Spanish civil war is over the Spanish people probably would like best those who fought the least on their soil, would feel scant gratitude for those who had killed fellow Spaniards and would understand the motives of that nation which confined its intervention to saving Spanish lives.

TABLES REPORT

late rate", and filed this rate with the Board. This change resulted, in the month of January, in a saving of $473.17 or 5.36% of the value of electricity in Charlottetown. To make this clear—had the light consumed in Charlottetown during this month been paid for at the rate prevailing at the time our complaint was filed, it would have cost our citizens $8819.47, while with the reduced rate in effect it cost actually $8346.30.

"Thus Your Worship will see that these reductions themselves indicate that our complaint was neither frivolous nor mischievous, and apparently not unjustified. To pursue this further, and admit the very remote possibility that in spite of this, the Board rules that our complaint should never have been filed, and assesses the costs against the City, and that the cost is $10,000.00 as the anonymous writer, previously referred to, estimates. The custom, and again I get my information from the authorities to whom I referred before, is that the Public Utility pay these charges, and in turn collect them from the complainants, and other users of electricity, by an increase in rates, over a period of five years. Accepting the figure of $10,000.00 and considering its relation to $202147.11, the receipts of this Company for the year 1935, you will find that to liquidate it over this five year period would mean an increase in rate of almost exactly 1%. This for the month of January last would amount to about $88.19, whereas the saving resulting from the reduction made since the complaint was filed, is, as I mentioned before for that month $473.17. You will see from this, I hope, Your Worship, that your Light Committee has not extravagantly wasted $10,000.00, as suggested. Disregarding altogether the saving of $1200.00 a year to the City for street lighting, and admitting the almost absurd possibility that we may be required to pay for the investigation, and obtain no further reduction from it,—drawing as dark a picture of the whole proceedings as you possibly can without trifling with the facts and figures, you find that our citizens pay an extra $88.19 a month, and receive in return a reduction of $473.17, or a roughly estimated net saving of $4620.00 a year, after paying the costs of the investigation.

This I must emphasize is the worst that can possibly happen, while on the other hand if we might venture to be a little optimistic it is not difficult to anticipate a further substantial reduction, and in any event the vexed question of light rates will have been thoroughly explored, and definitely answered.

I have taken up this amount of your time, and the time of the Council in an endeavour to have a clear statement of the situation reach the citizens of Charlottetown and thereby prevent any possible alienation of the public's support by an anonymous letter writer, who appears to be attempting to discredit Your Worship and this Council by a deliberate campaign of misrepresentation, which on occasion descends to downright falsehood.

I use this last word after proper consideration, because I'm prepared, if invited, to prove it, and because I believe the citizens of Charlottetown should be informed of the nature of the campaign being waged against the City's credit by a party whose motives might be
