Oliver, Nicks For Empire Games Trials

Nova Scotians Win All But One Event At Maritime Meet

Charlottetown Athletes Capture One First And Two Second Places At Halifax Saturday, Lodge Winning Mile Run.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, July 8—Two Nova Scotian runners will entrain for Hamilton, Ont., tomorrow to represent the Maritime Provinces in the Canadian trials there for the British Empire Games.

Blood Frankie Nicks, sensational young Halifax quarter-miler who bettered his own Maritime record for the 440 by 1-5 of a second at the Maritime Track and Field Championships here yesterday, and Roy Oliver, of New Glasgow, king of Maritime long distance runners, were the only ones in a field of more than three score athletes from all parts of the Provinces by the Sea who qualified to be sent to Hamilton. They will be accompanied by Coach Jack Thomas.

Tough Break for Fox and Ryan

Freddie Fox of Lunenburg won the 100 and 220 yards dashes and gave Nicks a great race part of the way in the 440, but he was ruled from the team because his times were too slow.

Earl Ryan of Truro suffered a similar fate. The classy Truro field star won the hop-step-and-jump event, set up a new Maritime record in the broadjump at 22 feet 1-3-4 inches, and came second in the pole vault.

Only two records were broken at the Maritime track and field championships—the quarter mile by Nicks at 49-2-5 seconds and the broad jump by Ryan. Records were made by Roy Oliver in the six-mile race and by his team-mate Bernie Rogers in the three-mile, but Maritime records had never been set up before in these events as they were not run in previous Maritime championships.

Wins By 50 Yards

When Frankie Nicks, who only one short year ago was still in schoolboy ranks, breasted the tape at the end of the quarter-mile he was 50 yards ahead of Freddie Fox, his most serious contender in the race. One of the more laggard runners who was even farther behind the slim speed-king fainted just as he reached the finish.

Only one Canadian has ever run the mile in faster time than Nicks, and that was done in 1900 by Robert of Toronto in 49-1-5 seconds. The Canadian record of 48-3-5 is held by W. C. Robbins, a New Yorker.

Oliver had lots of time to spare after he had won the six-mile run in 32 minutes, 27 seconds. When Wallace Rodd of Charlottetown arrived at the finish line, Oliver had had his picture taken, shaken hands with Sheriff C. D. Shipley, President of the Maritime Athletic Union of Canada, and made a few wise cracks at some of his friends standing near the finish line. He looked more like one who had just come out of a theatre than an athlete who had run a gruelling six-mile race in a blazing sun.

Lodge Only Winner Outside Nova Scotia

Other runners did not prove sensational. The only athlete to take an event from Nova Scotia was M. Lodge of Charlottetown who won the 100 yards race. Nick Skinner of Saint John, one of the speediest sprinters in the Maritimes, was unable to come to Halifax.

Team prize was won by Truro on the toss of a nickel. Truro A. C. and South Shore A. C. were tied with 23 points when the meet ended, with Earl Ryan winning the broad jump. It was decided to toss for the cup and Ryan produced a five cent piece he had won from one of the bystanders who had bet the Truro athlete he wouldn't break the jump record Sheriff Shipley officiated.

HARD-HITTING ANCHOR TEAM BEATS HAWKS

13-hit Barrage Gives Westend Team 8 to 3 Win In Industrial League.

Combing the southpaw offerings of Plus Boger for thirteen safe blows, West End Anchors hung up an 8 to 3 victory over Lefty Hawks in a week end game of the Industrial Baseball League.

The winners went to work early and before their half of the first inning had been completed garnered what proved to be enough runs to win the tilt, five Anchor players crossing the plate on as many hits and a costly error.

The losers tightened up after the deluge but the damage was done; they threatened on several occasions but McCallum, young Anchor hurler, and winner of five games so far in the League, proved too good in the pinches, the rallies being snuffed out without any perceptible harm.

Features of the game were Harold Gaudet's long home run to left field in the sixth, Chipman's three base wallop in the first and a smart double play, Bill Ryan to brother Stan, which retired the side in the eighth with Hawk runners on second and third.

A packed gallery of thrilled spectators, including Their Majesties the King and Queen, beheld the English Sunday school teacher turn back the formidable threat of Miss Jacobs Saturday, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3.

Run half to death and many times more made to look completely bewildered by the sun-tanned minister's daughter, Helen only could say at the finish, "How are you going to beat Dorothy when she plays like that?"

Even the British spectators, who are almost fanatically fond of Dorothy, were astonished at the perfection of her game. They gave her an ovation lasting a full five minutes after her victory and then did it all over again when the new champion, acting as though she were scared stiff, courtied before the Royal box.

King George and Queen Mary joined in the applause.
The Americans drew some solace as their national champions, Lester Stoenen and George M. Lott, Jr., crushed the veteran French pair of Jean Borotra and Jacques Brugnon 6-2, 6-3, 6-4 for the men's doubles title. Elizabeth Ryan, the Londoner who still retains United States citizenship, paired with Mme. Rene Mathieu of France to beat Dorothy Andrus, of Stamford, Conn., and Mme. Jung Henrotin, of France, 6-3, 6-3.

Stoenen, after having played so indifferently heretofore that Captain R. Norris (Dick) Williams sent over a hurry call for Wilmer Allison, chose to show England just what manner of tennis player he really is. With Lott playing his usual masterly game the big blonde from California raged along the net, volleying and smashing like a man.

After the match Williams emphasized that there still had been no definite decision on the makeup of the cup team and that Stoenen still was very much in the running, both for a singles and a doubles berth.

Homer And Double By Ruth Give Yankees A 6-3 Victory Over Senators

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, July 8—Babe Ruth today celebrated his 21st year of baseball with a home run and a double, knocking Monte Weaver, ace Washington pitcher, out of the box in the fifth inning and giving New York Yankees the game 6-3. The homer—it was the Babe's 13th of the season and his 699th accounted for two runs.

Jimmy Deshong held the Senators to nine hits and was only in blow in two innings. Gehrig went hitless and failed to drive in a run after sending at least one over the plate in his last 10 games.

Fox Hits Two Homers
Boston Red Sox at home took both ends of a doubleheader from Philadelphia Athletics before a crowd of 24,008, taking the first game 7-4 despite three Athletic home runs and the second 7-2.

Henry Johnson pitched the opener for the Sox, striking out seven. The doubleheader was won by 12-7 but Dietrich's wildness cost him the game. He walked nine Boston batters and hit one with a pitched ball.

Jimmie Foxx, Athletic first baseman, hit his 25th home run of the season in the seventh inning and his 26th in the ninth, making of the first game. His teammate, Bob Johnson, smashed out his 25th in the final inning of the first game.

First Double Win for Tribe

The Indians won their first doubleheader of the year at Cleveland defeating the White Sox 5-1 and 10-5.

Willis Hudlin won his eighth game in the early battle, outpitching Sam Jones and allowing the Sox only seven hits. Unsteady in the pitcher's box, he struck out six in the first two innings of the second game. Monte Pearson, to his credit, pitched a four-hitter in the last five rounds and won his 10th victory. A four-run attack on Whitlow Wyatt, Chicago pitcher, gave the Indians their winning margin in the third inning.

The double victory put Cleveland back in the first division of the American League.

Tigers Win in Ninth
Two costly errors by Melillo and a pair of timely singles, all in the ninth inning, gave the Tigers a 5-4 victory over St. Louis Browns at Detroit.

Trailing 4-2 as the final inning opened, the Tigers got to Blacholder for two singles which sent that pitcher to the showers. The singles were hit by Owen and Rowe. Newsom supplanted Blacholder and the first man to face him was Fox who hit a grounder which Melillo booted, allowing the bases to be filled. Cochrane walked to force in Owen and Wells went in for Newsom. At this juncture Goslin bounced to Melillo and the latter threw wildly to the plate trying to catch Rowe but both Rowe and Fox scored.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 8—Fred Fitzsimmons earned an even break for New York Giants in their four-game series with Brooklyn Dodgers at Brooklyn today by pitching a three-hit game to the victors, 2-0. Only one Brooklyn player reached third base.

Zachary allowed eight hits. Manager Bill Terry's double and Mel Ott's single gave the Giants a run in the fifth. Fitzsimmons pitched and scored when Frey committed a wild throw on a grounder by Hughie Critz.

Wins First Major League Start

Euel Moore, Indian hurler recently obtained by the Phillies from Baltimore, won his opening Major League start by defeating Boston Braves 5-3 at Philadelphia. Moore allowed 10 hits but was well supported by his mates. He did not issue a base on balls and was tight in the pinches. Dolph Camilli hit his 11th home run of the season in the sixth inning with one man on base.

Cubs Split With Pirates
An overflow crowd of 47,138 saw the second place Cubs divide a doubleheader with Pittsburgh at Chicago winning the second game 12-3 after losing the first 11-4. They slipped another half game back of the Giants whom they now trail by two games.

Paul Waner led the Pirate offense in the opener with a home run, three singles and a double. Gabby Hartnett hit a home run for the Cubs in the second game. Billy Herman, Cub second baseman, got a single in the opener and a pair of ground rule doubles and a single in the second game to stretch his new hit streak to 18 consecutive games.

44 for "Dizzy"
The Dean brothers act started brilliantly and ended dully as St. Louis Cardinals split a double header with Cincinnati, winning the first game 6-1, then dropping the nightcap at St. Louis, 8-4.

Dizzy Dean got his 14th victory of the season as he fanned 10 Reds while the Cardinals were bringing in the necessary runs.

In the second game Paul Dean started for the Cardinals but, after hurling six strikeouts in three innings, was met by a homer by Pool with the bases loaded. The same inning Piet doubled to score two more runs.

Repeats Triumph In Sculls

(C. P. - A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, Eng. July 8—An orgy of record-breaking tonight served to mark the Royal Henley Regatta as one of the most stirring in years. Dominating the Regatta, concluded Saturday, was the achievements of the Leander Rowing Club of London, in breaking three records in as many days.

While Leanders smashed through an impressive victory over Princeton Varsity's eight in the final for the Grand Challenge Cup Dr. Herbert Butz, German and former holder of the Diamond Scull, rounced Wintthrop (Bill) Rutherford of Princeton in record-equaling time to again win the sculls.

The Leander eight, composed of former Oxford and Cambridge University's "Blues," led Princeton to the finish by three-quarters of a length in six minutes, 45 seconds for the distance of one mile, 550 yards. The time was only one second short of the low mark set by Leanders in the semi-finals.

Princeton, clocked unofficially in 6:48, also was under the old record of 6:51, which had stood for 37 years so that the Tigers had the satisfaction of being the second fastest crew that has ever rowed in the Grand Challenge Cup.

Dr. Butz, in repeating his 1932 triumph in the single sculls, equalled the record of 8:10 as he led Rutherford by three and a half lengths at the finish.

The final of the Thames Challenge Race, also for eight, resulted in a surprise victory for the Thames Rowing Club over the London R.C. which had set a new record of 6:58 in the semi-finals. Thames R.C. won today by one-third of a length in 7:04.

EDWARDS STARS IN HALIFAX TOURNAMENT

Makes Clean Sweep of Men's Singles And Doubles For County Titles.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, July 8—Commander J. C. Edwards, recently transferred here from Ottawa, was back at his old tricks again when he cleaned up in the men's singles and doubles in the Halifax County tennis tournament finals at St. George's Club, Dartmouth, Saturday.

With scores of 6-3, 6-3, 6-1 in the singles against Bev Piers of Halifax, he was an easy victor, although in the first two sets nearly every game went to deuce before it was won. Both played a backcourt game and rarely went to net during the long rallies in which Edwards usually proved the steeper player.

In the men's doubles Piers and his partner, Harry Roper, however, put up a stiff fight in an attempt to hold their title for the fourth consecutive year before going down to defeat before the crafty commander and the Haligonian Eric Woodworth, 6-3, 2-6, 3-6, 6-4, 6-0.

But Piers had a partial revenge on Edwards, his rival in three of the finals and conquerer in two, when he and Mrs. F. V. Woodbury won the mixed doubles in straight sets 6-4, 6-4. Edwards was playing with Mrs. Harold Jones who previously had retained her women's singles title against Mrs. Woodbury 3-6, 6-3, 6-2. Losing the first set, Mrs. Jones rallied and her hard left-handed drives were soon keeping Mrs. Woodbury in subjugation, and making her opponent stay away from the net where she had flashed brilliant volleys in the first set.

The ladies doubles title was won by Mrs. Woodbury and Mrs. Harry Roper Thursday.

Fifteen Women Stars Picked For Canadian Team

Aileen Meagher, Halifax Ace, Collapses Within A Stride Of Victory In 220 — Ten Ontario Girls Selected.

(By Elmer Dulmage, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, Ont., July 8—Old Ontario and the West shared honors today on the first Women's British Empire Games team selected in Canada. Fifteen athletes, whose performances featured the two-day Dominion trials here Friday and Saturday, were appointed to places on the team that will invade London, England, this summer.

If finances permit all 15 will be sent overseas and it was confidently predicted that finances would permit. The national squad will start training at Hamilton tomorrow. It was the youngest team, and undoubtedly the best, Canada has yet mustered for international competition.

All-Ontario Band for 100 Yards

Replacing such sprint aces of former teams as Hilda Strike, tiny Montreal flyer and Mary Frizzell, Vancouver's 1933 Canadian dash title-holder, was a lineup of four 100-yards stars with little experience and a vast disregard for reputations. It was an all-Ontario speed band.

In the same order they finished in the final of the 100 yards yesterday, Audrey Dearnley, the new queen of the sprinters and three others were selected to carry the dash burden. The others are Peggy Matheson, Toronto; Betty White, Hamilton, and Mildred Fizzell, Toronto.

This was the greatest single cleanup by a battalion of youngsters who fought bravely to oust the reigning monarchs of track and field. The old brigade held its own pretty well after that smashing setback.

But the sprint finals, dramatic great duel between Betty Taylor of Hamilton and Roxie Atkins of Toronto in the 80 metres hurdles final proved the highlights of Saturday's all-day programme.

The 19-year-old Miss Dearnley, an intermediate last season, left no doubt about her superiority over the sprint section. She warmed up for the classic century by winning the senior 60 metres event which was an Empire trial. After these morning exercises she went back and whipped an even stronger field in the 100 yards.

In her wake she left the high-favored Miss Strike, who placed second at the 1932 Olympics, the dashing Miss Frizzell, and a powerful collection of challengers from Quebec and the West. Her time of 11.2 seconds was one-fifth of a second slower than the world record.

ENGLISH STAR DEFEATS HELEN JACOBS

Smashing And Unexpected Victory Gives England Men's And Women's Singles Titles.

(C. P. - A. P.)

(By Guardian's Special Wire) WIMBLEDON, England, July 8—England's tennis titans were in the limelight tonight as for the first time since 1908 both the men's and women's singles titles in the all-England championship rested in this country.

A smashing and unexpected victory by Dorothy Round over Helen Jacobs Saturday climaxed the English drive to regain lost honors which was successfully begun when Fred Perry downed Jack Crawford of Australia, ranked as the world's No. 1.
