AMONG THE CHURCHES

This week at the Salvation Army Citadel special night meetings for the young people are being conducted by Commandant Hiscock. As these meetings are proving very popular and successful the attendance being especially good, they will be continued throughout the succeeding week.

At last Tuesday night's meeting of the Canadian Girls in Training of the Methodist Church, Mrs. Andrew McNair favored the members with a very interesting account of her last visit to Scotland, which was greatly enjoyed and much appreciated by the girls.

A very enjoyable social event took place in the Social Rooms of the Methodist Church on Tuesday night when members of the congregation tendered a banquet to the Church Choir. Mr. Henry Smith presided at the speech-making, which was followed by a pleasant half-hour spent in games.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Cathedral held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, when it continued the preparation of a bale of clothing to be sent to mission stations.

A Confirmation class has been begun at St. Peter's Cathedral and is held every Wednesday afternoon.

The Monthly Meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. James Church was held yesterday afternoon and was well attended.

The United Teachers' Class is again in full swing after the break at the beginning of the year. A large group of teachers and others weekly take advantage of this gathering.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Hector Campbell, Rollo Bay West who departed this life February 6th, 1924.

He is not dead, just gone ahead a little space, And we who mourn, Have but to wait in patience for awhile, And we again shall see the tender smile.

We knew so long, upon his dear, dear face.
