MAY BE CHANGE IN JAM TRADE—There is a heavy demand for jams, as well as for canned fruits and dried fruits of all kinds. It is thought that possibly the price for pure jams (which are made simply from the fruit named and sugar) will work the trade into what is known as pure fruit jams. Pure fruit jams, as distinguished from pure jams are made with apple in addition to the fruit named. They are perfectly wholesome and satisfactory, but being made with apple are of course more cheaply manufactured and consequently can be sold at much more popular prices than have to be charged for the so called pure article.—Maritime Merchant.

WEDDING BELLS.—All Saints Church, Cardigan, was the scene of a happy event on February 11th when Miss Christian Foley, became the bride of Ex Private Theolosis Christian, St. Georges, Rev. Bernard Gillis, P. P. officiating. The bride was attired in a suit of navy blue and wore a black picture hat. They were attended by Mr. J. D. Johnstone, nephew of the groom and Miss Nellie Foley sister of the bride. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride where breakfast was served after which they left on a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside at St. Georges. They were the recipient of many costly presents which shows the popularity in which they are held. The groom who is a prosperous young farmer and also one of our Island's returned heroes. The Guardian wishes Mr. and Mrs. Christian many happy years of wedded life.

MORTGAGE RELEASES.—Of 30 mortgage notices published in this week's Dunn's Commercial and Legal Record, 17 were releases. Every week for nine weeks the releases have predominated.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—Advertisers are respectfully reminded that copy and instructions must be in the Guardian Office not later than twelve noon each day except Saturday, when the latest hour for changes or new copy is 10 a. m. dtf.

CARD OF THANKS.—The relatives of the late Mrs. Mary C. MacDonald wish to tender their heartfelt thanks to the good Sisters of the Charlottetown Hospital for their untiring care and devotion to Mrs. MacDonald during her illness. They also take this opportunity of thanking the kind friends who assisted them in their bereavement as well as those who made offerings of Mass cards and spiritual boquets.

FLY CAMPAIGN IN WINTER.—A question frequently asked is what becomes of the house flies during the winter, and where do the spring flies come from? The opinion was held for a long time that flies hibernated in warm and protected places. Closer investigations found this theory to be erroneous. It has been shown that house flies exist and propagate in winter as they do in summer only in a much smaller scale. Temperatures of from 1° to 15 degrees Fahrenheit are quickly fatal to houseflies. Nature has equipped the fly with that tenacity to cling to life common to the insect life. Hence with the advent of cold weather they seek places where warmth and food may be obtained. With the advent of warmer weather these surviving winter flies breed millions of their kind. This demonstrates that fly campaigns could be much more economically carried on in the winter and probably more successfully.

HYMENEAL.—One of the season's most interesting events in the social life of East Point occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rose, Lakeville on the evening of February 17th, The occasion was the marriage of their daughter Edna Gladys to Mr. William Baker. The bridal couple entered the parlor as the wedding march was being played by Mr. Aeneas Bailey, and took their place under a floral arch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. MacWalker. Good wishes and congratulations were tendered the young couple after which the guests partook of a wedding supper. The remainder of the evening was given over to a musical programme., Tangible assurances of the place both bride and groom occupy in the hearts of their friends were to be seen in the beautiful display of useful and valuable gifts among them a goodly number of cheques. "Many years of happy wedded life", is the wish that springs spontaneously from the hearts of many friends.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty and interesting wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art McGinnis, 32 Urchless St. Rumford, Maine, when her sister Miss Olive Shea of Waterford, Prince Edward Island became the happy bride of Mr. Patrick J. Curran, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Curran, sister of the groom, while Mr. Jos. Shea, brother of the bride, ably supported the groom. The bride wore a beautiful suit of blue, carrying a bouquet of pinks and roses. After the ceremony a wedding dinner and supper was served to about one hundred of their friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Curran were the recipients of a large number of presents including silverware and cut glass, etc. Those beautiful presents showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held. A very pleasant afternoon was spent for the old people, while the young enjoyed the evening by music and dancing till the wee sma hours. They all dispersed by wishing the most popular young couple of Rumford, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Curran, many years of wedded life.

In Memoriam

MRS JAMES HOWARD.

At the family residence, Cornwall, P. E. I., on January 27th, 1920, Penelope Davis, wife of Mr. James Howard exchanged this life for the life which is immortal and invisible. Mrs. Howard was the daughter of the late Robert Mutch and Maria Farquharson of Mount Herbert, P. E. I. She was blessed with a long line of Methodist ancestors. One of her earliest recollections was of a time when divine services were held in her father's house prior to the erection of a church in Mount Herbert. The ministers of these days were kindly welcomed and hospitably entertained in her home. Among the pastors whose names she recalled were Revs. Starr and Black and Drs. Pope and Milligan.

Mrs. Howard was a faithful and consistent member of Cornwall Methodist church and was always deeply interested in the various departments of its work especially the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. of which she was an honored life member. She was devoted to the interests and welfare of her family and they cherish the memory of a loving wife and mother.

About two years ago she suffered from a slight stroke of paralysis which affected her sight and weakened her constitution which was never robust. She bore this weakness with christian patience and fortitude and went on to the end in the full possession of her mental powers and in the blessed hope of a glorious immortality.

She leaves to mourn, besides her sorrowing husband, one daughter Ella, the wife of Mr. R. B. McKinley, and one son Lee who devoted himself with assiduous attention to the comfort and happiness of his mother. The bereaved husband and son and daughter have the sincere sympathy of all who know them. There are also left to mourn one sister, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mount Herbert, and one brother Mr. G. Albert Mutch, "Ardgowan," Charlottetown, and two little grand daughters, the children of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McKinley. These with a wide circle of relatives and friends mourn their loss.

The funeral was largely attended by people from all sections of the country drawn thither by sympathy for the bereaved and respect for the memory of the departed friend. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Webster who made touching reference to her christian character and life. The floral tributes of loving friends were numerous and beautiful and bore silent but eloquent testimony to the place she held in their esteem and affection.

MR. HURBERT DEAGLE

(From the Glengary News, Alexandra, Ont.)

Alexandrians heard with deep regret Saturday of the death that morning which occurred in Temiskaming, Que., of a well known and most highly respected resident of this town, in the person of Mr. Hubert Deagle. Mr. Deagle having secured the position of millwright with the wellknown firm of George Fuller and Co., Temiskaming, left for that place on the 29th December last, immediately assuming his new duties. About a week prior to his death influenza being prevalent he with others contracted the dread disease, necessitating his removal to the Temiskaming Hospital where he was given every attention but pneumonia developed and he passed away on the above mentioned date. On learning of his serious illness, Mrs. Deagle left immediately for his bedside, but death had ensued some three hours before her arrival.

Mr. Deagle had been a resident of Alexandria for close upon 16 years, during which time he had many opportunities of amply exhibiting his skill as millwright and mechanic. He held a place all his own with the J. T. Schell Co., for some time. He was also associated with prominent contractors and at all times his work commended itself to those immediately concerned. He was one of Alexandria's leading young citizens, a man of few words, but the possessor of many sterling qualities. He was a devout member of the congregation of St. Finnan's and deep Christian and moral worth was an inspiration to all.

Deceased who was in his 45th year was born at Rollo Bay, P. E. I., being the son of the late Mr. Simon Deagle of that place. He is survived by his widow and four sons, Eugene, student of Ste. Therese College, Miles, Finnan and Francis, at home. He also leaves to mourn his passing two brothers Rev. A. Deagle of St. Rose of Lima Rectory, Kankakee, Ill., and Mr. Joseph Deagle of Rollo Bay, P.E.I. Another brother, Mr. James Deagle made the supreme sacrifice in the late war.

The remains arrived Sunday morning, 8th inst., and were met at the station by a large number of sympathising friends and conveyed to the family residence, Ottawa St. The funeral on Tuesday morning, to St. Finnan's Cathedral was under the joint auspices of Glengarry Council K. of C. and St. Alexander Court C.O.F., of which organizations he was an honored member. Requiem High Mass was chanted by Rev. C. F. Gauthier, while Rev. J. W. Dulin of the Church of the Sacred Heart, here and Rev. A. Deagle, and Rev. Chas. Bishop, of Lochiel, occupied seats in the sanctuary.

The pall bearers were Messrs John Angus McMillan, Antoine Chenier, F. T. Costello, Fred Bouchard, John Boyle and Jos. Lalonde.

As might be expected the funeral was a large and thoroughly representative one, further asknowledgment of his worth and the intense sympathy entertained for the bereaved relatives.

Spiritual offerings were received from Mr. W. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McIntosh, Miss Margaret M. McDonell, Mrs. Alex. McKinnon, Mrs. S. J. R. McDonald, of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McDermid, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McDermid, of Apple Hill; Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Chisholm, Lochiel; Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonell, Mr. and Mrs. D. Donovan, Mr. Ducan Cameron and family, Miss Janet McDonald, Miss Cecilia Bouchard, Mrs. L. D. Tourangeau, Mr. and Mrs. A. Chenier, Mr. and Mrs. J. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cuthbert, Mrs. W. Ritchie, Mr. Angus Hoey McDonald, and the St. Finnan's Sanctuary Boys, of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. St. Denis, of Cobalt, Henry Duggan, John Chisholm, Allan McDonald Jos. Cole and Bernard Larose, Class mates of Eugene Deagle at Ste. Therese.

Messages of sympathy were received from Mr. Jos. Deagle, Rollo Bay, P.E.I. and Mrs. Geo. H. McDonald of Nenver, Col.

MRS. MARY C. MacDONALD

Her many friends in this province and abroad will regret to learn of the death, after a short illness in the Charlottetown Hospital of Mary C. MacDonald, widow of the late Ronald C. MacDonald of Orwell, who predeceased her eleven years ago.

Mrs. MacDonald was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel MacDonald of St. Andrews and is survived by one sister Mrs. John J. MacIntyre of St. Andrews, and two brothers D. J. of St. Andrews and James of California; Another sister Mrs. Wm. McIntyre of Millcove passed away a few years ago. The late Dr. John MacDonald of Chatham, N.B., was a brother of the deceased.

The late Mrs. MacDonald was a woman of estimable character, a devout member of the Catholic Church and highly respected by all classes.

Her funeral took place from the home of her niece Mrs. John A. McKinnon, Euston Street on February 11th to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a High Mass of Requium was celebrated by Rev. Jos. C. MacKenzie of Revelstoke, B. C., thence by train to Vernon River where the funeral services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. P. D. McGuigan, P. P., and the mortal remains of a loving friend, a devoted wife and mother were laid to rest by the side of her husband and little daughter Marion, whose death occurred thirteen years ago. Requiescant in Pace.
