SOCIALIST PAPER NOW ADMITTED

TORONTO, June 12.—The socialist journa Appeal to Reason, is no longer barred from the use of the Canadian mails, as the new Postmaster General has revoked the order of his predecesor, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth. In a letter to Philip Thompson, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux says that Mr. Warren, managing editor of the journal in question, called on the late Postmaster General and submitted copies of the paper from the date of issue which led to prohibition. After careful examination of all the facts and Mr. Warren's explanations, directions were given that the order withdrawing statutory mailing privileges to Appeal to Reason should be rescinded.
