LIST OF GRADUATES AND PRIZE WINNERS

The UNION COMMERCIAL COLLEGE closed for the holidays on Friday morning at 10.30. Before presenting the certificates, medals and prizes were being reviewed by the Principal, Mr. J. C. Martin. The class was an exceptionally large one and excellent results were obtained. A number of this year's graduates have already obtained positions.

The Principal referred to the strict rules regarding "Punctuality" and "System" to both of which is due a large measure of the excellent results obtained in the different classes. Two young ladies who only attended one session a day for the best part of the term, were among the graduates and prize winners, his showing what can be accomplished by hard work and close application to study.

During the coming term, new equipment will be installed and everything will be done to make the U. C. C. one of the best schools in the Maritimes. In conclusion the Principal thanked the student body for their cooperation in every way, and expressed the hope that they would spend a pleasant holiday.

The following is the list of graduates and prize winners:

HAD NARROW ESCAPE—Shortly after one o'clock yesterday Master Arthur Howatt, a pupil of Queen Square School, was knocked down by a horse and wagon receiving quite a shaking up. The little lad was carried into Queen Square School where medical assistance was at once secured. He was then driven to his home. The driver of the team, who waited until he learned the boy was not seriously injured, stated that the little chap ran out in front of his horse after a ball.

KING'S DAUGHTERS HOLD AFTERNOON TEA—The Willing Circle of King's Daughters of Trinity United Church held a most enjoyable afternoon tea on Thursday at Edgewater the beautiful home of Mrs. F. R. The door was attended by little Misses Marion Saunders and Catherine Ramsay and a bevy of King's Daughters assisted in serving. Delightful music was furnished by Miss Thelma Teed and Miss Nan Shaw. The floral decorations were mauve sweet peas, lilies of the valley, apple blossoms and bougainvillea. The committee in charge were—Mrs. J. A. MacNair, Mrs. G. Elmer Ritchie, and Miss Olive Ritchie.

WILLIAMS—MACNEVIN—A very pretty June wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening last at the residence of the officiating minister Rev. J. W. S. Lowry, of Cambridge, Mass., when Miss Margaret MacNevin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. MacNevin, of Argyle Shore was united in marriage with Mr. Thos. Edgar Williams, late of Alberton, P. E. I. The youthful bride was very handsomely attired in a wedding dress of blue crepe de chine with trimmings of cream lace and hat to match, while the groom wore the conventional black suit. After the ceremony and customary congratulations, the happy couple left on a motor trip to New York City and other points, where a short honeymoon is being spent. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Williams will take up their future residence in the adjoining town of Somerville, Mass.

Tourists Parties For Maritime Provinces

All records for the number of organized tourist parties to the Maritime Provinces will be broken this year, according to indications at the Regional headquarters of the Canadian National Railways here.

These tours include Canadian, American and British parties, and are composed of people of very wide range of interests. From French Acadians lured to Acadia through sentiment, to members of the British Imperial Parliamentary Association who are touring Canada for the purpose of further acquainting themselves with the Empire, and parties of British Boys and Girls, selected students from the schools and colleges of the motherland, who have received travelling scholarships for the purpose of visiting Canada.

There are five tours arranged under Canadian National auspices, from Washington to Montreal, thence to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia including a visit to the Point du Chene beach near Moncton. The various tours and parties will be entering these provinces through the various gateways where connections are made with the National system. For instance, via Montreal and Levis, via Fredericton and Saint John, or by way of Boston and Yarmouth, and the Canadian National south shore route to Halifax, and by way of Pictou and thence to Halifax, or through Halifax travelling westward.

The first of the Washington tours will leave Washington July 1st, and the last will conclude its tour September 7th, practically embracing the two midsummer months. These parties will visit Moncton, Point du Chene, Halifax, Kentville, Grand Pre, and Yarmouth.

The American Express Company are sending a party of about 90 people, who will visit Halifax, New Glasgow, Pictou, Sydney and Saint John.

A party of American Engineers will arrive at Halifax from Boston via ship of the Furness Withy Line on September 3rd, and they will visit Truro, New Glasgow, and Pictou, visiting the coal and salt mines. Returning to Halifax they will then proceed to Newfoundland by steamer, and after visiting in the "Ancient Colony" will return to Canada via North Sydney, thus giving them an opportunity of visiting the great coal fields of that section of Nova Scotia. They will then proceed to Boston, by Canadian National via Truro and Moncton.

What is to be known as the Catholic Tourists of America will start from New York August 3rd and proceed by way of Fall River and Boston to Yarmouth, where they will be taken over the Canadian National Halifax and Southwestern Lines along the Atlantic Coast to Halifax. They will then return to Moncton, they will then proceed to Quebec via Canadian National, and there make a visit to Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

The Frost Steel and Wire Company will start a party to visit Moncton, Charlottetown, Digby and St. John.

Besides these purely travelling tours there will be a number of national conventions held in the Maritime Provinces this season. The first of these will be the convention of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League to be opened in Saint John on June 11th. This will be closely followed by the Canadian Medical Association Convention to be held in Charlottetown, P. E. I. June 18th to 23rd.

On August 5th there will arrive at Quebec the party of young men and women from the schools and colleges of England, who have been given the title of the "Young Ambassadors of the Empire." After passing Quebec they will leave for Moncton, arriving here August 6th, thence proceeding to Truro, Halifax, from Halifax to Pictou, Pictou to Charlottetown, Charlottetown to Moncton, and return to Quebec, after which they are to tour Canada through to the coast.

The Toronto Saturday Night this week has a cute photo of little Peggy Palmer and her dog sitting on an old P. E. Island spool bed which her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Palmer, have converted into a garden seat at their home.

Miss Sue Nash and her niece, Miss M. Wood, have been enjoying a week's holiday among the apple blossoms of the Annapolis Valley.

The King and Queen were the central figures in a very interesting group of picture-lovers whom the president of the Royal Academy, Sir Frank Dicksee, escorted through the principal galleries at Burlington House, London, recently. Prince George accompanied his parents, and Queen Maud of Norway, Princess Victoria, the Princess Royal and Princess Beatrice met their Majesties there during the afternoon. Lord and Lady Harewood and Lord Lascelles were other visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Rogers, accompanied by Mrs. W. Bruce Muir, have gone on a fishing trip to Sherbrooke, Nova Scotia.

In Gallery Three, the King and Queen saw Sir Arthur Cope's portrait of the King and Richard Jack's picture of Princess Mary. Mr. Jack's picture of Lord Lascelles' Library at Chesterfield House also interested them, and the Queen spent a little time in front of Arthur Nowell's portrait of herself which she had not previously seen completed.

The portrait of the late Lord Minto, who visited Prince Edward Island while Governor-General, is now on view in the Beaux Arts Gallery, together with sixteen others painted by Miss Dorothy Vica]. This portrait of the former Governor-General of Canada is destined to hang in Ottawa.

Rev. Samuel Trivett, Rector of Oakfield, Halifax county, formerly of Milton, celebrated last Sunday his fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the ministry of the Church of England. Rev. Mr. Trivett was 76 years of age on May 6th last.

GOLF

At the Golf Links this afternoon at 2.30 the first stage for the beautiful trophy, donated by Messrs. W. Chester, E. McLure and Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., will take place, when it is expected the largest turn out of players so far this season will be on hand to get in the running for this splendid trophy.

The play will be mens singles, eighteen holes, match play, handicap. The second stage must be played before June 23rd, third stage by July 4th, fourth stage by July 11th, and finals on or before July 27th. Results of each match, should be communicated to the chairman of the Games Committee at the finish of each stage.

Messrs. McLure and MacKinnon, by their donating of this trophy show they are enthusiastic supporters of the grand old game of Golf and no doubt it will be responded to by the same enthusiasm on the part of the members.

Last season the play for this trophy created great interest and this year the Games Committee are hopeful that greater competition than ever will be shown throughout the series.

The links were never in better condition than this season and right now it looks like better scores than ever before will be hung up by the members. A professional Golf teacher will arrive here about the 15th who will look after beginners or any person wishing to improve their game. On Thursday evening the Club held a most enjoyable dance and bridge which drew a large attendance and judging from the good time had by all next Thursday's dance will draw a record crowd.

PROMOTION FOR PRINCE EDWARD ISLANDER

Deputy Chief of Police Samuel McLeod has filled a very difficult position so tactfully and well that we have the hope that as Chief of Police he will clean up the vicious places and smooth out the rough places and put the department on a higher level. For the truth is the police department is in a demoralized condition and has been so for a long period.

We have no position to criticize anybody who has held the office in recent periods. The last chief was a well intentioned officer of experience, but he was a sick man when he took the position and he was in no condition, physically, to cope with the intrigues and rivalries and jealousies within the department that have so impaired its efficiency. The chief who preceded him was likewise a man of good qualities but he held the office but a short time, was forced to accept some political dictation retired because his health was not standing up under the strain.

During long intervals in the past half dozen years there had been no chief, and Deputy Chief McLeod has the nominal head of the department. But during these periods the deputy has realized his position was temporary, and that he was only a stop-gap of makeshift and he was not in a position to overturn things. He was merely keeping the place warm for an ultimate head of the department to use the organization as it existed and to do the best he could under restricted conditions—a part he played very well. But now it is to be very different. As chief of the department, Mr. McLeod is to be in a position where he can straighten out the department. The thing the police department most needs is a man who will insist upon supreme authority, one who will be the boss of the department and everybody in it. There are times when the officers have not known who was the chief. There were jealousies in certain groups. There have been times when inspectors would undertake cases without informing other inspectors of complaints, without informing the chief on occasions. Various men in the department were working for their own glorification. There has been no coordination throughout the force. And so it retrograded and cracked.

There has been no firm hand. While ago there were charges that the liquor squad had been blind to things that were being done in the sections to which they were assigned and instead of being fired, the members were merely shifted to other districts where they might establish new relations. It is reasonable to suppose this might happen with men who had been unfaithful in the first place. The job is not easy for one who is not disposed to assert himself but once it becomes evident there is a forceful man on the job, conditions can be reformed without difficulty.

New Bedford has an overmanned police force and properly directed a good many activities can be extended. We hope Chief McLeod will bring the force and the service up to the mark and we believe he will. If he starts to reorganize the force and hold it to a high standard, the city government and the people should back him.—Morning Mercury, New Bedford, Mass., May 14th.

Chief McLeod is a native of Melville, P. E. Island, and has numerous relatives in this Province including a sister, Mrs. Donald Ross of Roseberry.

The world's largest known deposit of mercury, at Almaden, Spain has been worked since Roman times having been operated by the Spanish government since 1845.

Minaid's Liniment for insect bites, stings.

BECOMES TEACHER AT 51

Probably the oldest person to graduate from a Missouri high school this year is Mrs. Bettie Taylor of Archie, fifty-one years old. Mrs. Taylor returned to school last fall to realize an ambition of thirty years ago to become a primary school teacher. She says that she found school work more difficult than when she was younger. In spite of her years she played guard on Archie high school girls basketball team and in addition to her school duties, she kept house and aided the family finances by raising chickens and making butter.

Nutt, mother of the bride, wore a gown of navy georgette with sand trimmings and hat of mauve flowers and navy lace. She had a corsage bouquet of mauve sweet peas. After a sumptuous wedding breakfast, Dr. and Mrs. Simpson left on a motor trip to Montreal, Toronto and New York, the bride travelling in a smart ensemble of black and grey check, with powder blue Kasha trimmings and small grey hat. They were accompanied as far as Forden by several car loads of young friends.
