

BIG UPSET IN RUGBY TUSSE

Caledonia Defeated, 6-7; Star Back In Serious Condition In Hospital.

GLACE BAY, Oct. 3.—Caledonia defeated in a Cape Breton Rugby League match for the first time in a dozen years, Benny Cipin, star three quarter of the Glace Bay Guards is in the New Waterford Hospital in a critical condition with his spinal cord injured and Francis McEachern, one of the Guards forwards, is out of the game with two broken ribs.

The Highlights Above are some of the highlights that marked the opening of the Cape Breton rugby season yesterday.

The Caledonia champions of the Cape Breton League every year since the war, were defeated for the second time in that period by the No. 11 Colts, the score being seven to six. The last defeat for the Caledonians was in 1920, when after playing a scoreless tie with Dalhousie, during which game several of the Caledonians were crippled, a weakened team went to Morien and were defeated three to nil in a league fixture two days later. In yesterday's game at New Waterford the Trojans won from the Guards by a score of eight to nothing.

The accident to Cipin occurred about four minutes before the New Waterford game ended. Cipin had taken a pass and was running at top speed towards the Waterford line close over against the side line. Two of the New Waterford players were pursuing him and the first to try to tackle him failed but the other brought Cipin down hard. He seemed to fall backwards into a sort of drain at the side of the field and his feet went over the side line wire cable to keep the crowd back.

LOCAL RUGGERS AWARDED BY E

HALIFAX, Oct. 3.—Charlottetown Abegweits were admitted to the Maritime Rugby Union with a bye in the final playoffs and Acadia University was readmitted to the Halifax City Rugby League at meetings held here over the week end.

The Maritime delegates voted to adopt the official rules of English Rugby, including the matter of scrum formation with the various clubs being allowed to work out their own system so long as it conformed with the rules, stating that the ball going into the scrum must have passed three feet of the team entering the ball before it can be heeled.

The Association of rugby football referees had suggested the adoption of a three man front line scrum.

The Nova Scotia final will be played in Cape Breton this year and the New Brunswick champions must come to Nova Scotia.

The Charlottetown club will play their bye on the field of the club winning the Nova Scotia vs New Brunswick series.

Fred Kelly, Wolfville, was elected President, E. Royden Colter, Vice-President and T. W. Thompson, Halifax, re-elected Secretary.

Opening Of The Community Fair Last Evening

Carnival And Merchants' Exhibition Largely Attended At Forum — Firemen Stage Excellent Entertainment.

The Community Carnival and Merchants' Exhibition opened last evening at the Forum, and was attended by more than a thousand people. The firemen who had charge of the entertainment put on an hilarious comedy. The merchants' booths were without exception very tastefully designed, and added much to the colour of the surroundings. Before the opening the firemen with their equipment paraded through the streets headed by the Canadian Legion Band. Then for almost an hour they entertained the large crowd at the Forum in a skit which portrayed an impromptu party at the firemen's rooms with the veteran fire chief, John Hearn in charge of the brigade. Choruses and popular songs were sung, a club swinging act was staged by hook and ladder man Scantlebury, and a vocal solo was rendered by Mr Leo Dolron. The old veterans' duet sung by engine driver Roy Large and hoseman J. Austin Trainor contained many local "hits" and carried the old people back to the days of the Tremont engine. The veteran firemen's step dance was executed nim-bly by ex-hoseman P. Craig, accompanied on the violin by ex-hoseman R. Weeks. In the midst of festivities a fire alarm was sounded and there was a wild scramble toward the burning house where a celebrated movie actress was trapped in her apartments. The firemen were hampered in their work by the fact that the coupling of the hydrant stuck from a recent coat of paint. The actress gallantly slid down a rope badly burning her hands. This part was taken by hoseman Percy Cameron. Mr. Austin Connolly presided at the piano, and handled the different musical numbers well. The show was produced by hoseman J. Austin Trainor and John Hearn. The veterans appeared in costumes of almost seventy years ago, while the rest of the men were attired in present day uniforms.

The door prize which was won by Mrs. Spurgeon Diamond was donated by A. Pickard & Co. This evening a band concert will be given and another similar prize will be offered by W. D. Gillis & Co.

RUMORS OF U.S. BALL CLUB TRANSFER

(Associated Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Rumors of the transfer of a National League baseball club to Montreal with John McGraw as head of the new organization, went the rounds today without being denied or confirmed.

McGraw was absent from his office and could not be reached, but members of the New York Giants office said they believed there was nothing to the story.

From Montreal came a story that McGraw may be the next manager of the Royals, and Montreal may take over one of the National League franchises. McGraw paid a visit to Montreal some time ago, according to the Star, and looked over the ground, consulting with officials of the club. The St. Louis Cardinals were connected with the rumors as the club most likely to be transferred to the Canadian city.

President Sam Breadon of the Cards declared, however, that his club was not for sale and would not be moved.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—On the evening of September 28th the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Allen, Albany, was serenaded by a number of their most intimate friends to congratulate them on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding day. Although quite unprepared to receive their guests they made their unexpected visitors welcome. The evening was whiled away in music and different sorts of amusements. Mention might be made of the contests which caused much merriment. The first prize being won by Mrs. E. V. MacLeod and Mr. R. Cameron. The prize for the fowl contest was equally merited by Mr. E. Jelly and Mr. Ballem, drawn by Mr. Ballem, the efficient operator reliever. Mr. Horace Mabey delivered an appropriate address to the bride and groom of twenty-five summers, while Mr. Harry Henniger presented them with an elaborate silver tea service showing the esteem in which they are held by their many friends. This occasion was the first time Mr. Allen's friends found him at loss for a word, but later he thanked them kindly on behalf of himself and his amiable partner. Before leaving the most rugged folks administered twenty-five lashes to the surprised groom but gave the bride a more fitting ovation. Then all departed hoping to meet again at Mr. and Mrs. Allen's Golden Anniversary.

the rate of $12.03 per capita. At least 75% of all fires are caused by carelessness. Fire Prevention can be carried on in many ways, including the protection of wooden surfaces from heat by insulation, the systematic cleaning of premises and complete disposal of rubbish in a safe way, the periodical inspection of fireplaces, stoves, furnaces and flue, as well as stovepipes. The elimination of inflammable materials, such as gasoline, from buildings, and in a general policy of carefulness every day of each year. In order to offset carelessness to some degree, fire-fighting equipment should be adequate for any emergencies that might arise. The speaker emphasized the importance of fire inspection and of fire-fighting equipment. A spirit of responsibility as regards fire prevention must be developed in the citizens. In conclusion Mr. Beer indicated clearly the dangers of fire uncontrolled. A vote of thanks, moved by Mr. K. M. Martin, seconded by Dr. B. C. Keeping, was tendered the speaker by the chairman, Mr. Phillip E. Palmer. Two new members, Inspector J. Fripps of the R. C. M. Mr. M. Alban Farmer Guest At Stag Party

A jolly crowd, friends of Mr. M. Alban Farmer, who is shortly to become a member of the Benedictines, assembled at the Canadian National Hotel on Saturday evening with Mr. Farmer as the guest of honor at a stag party, which was opened with "O Canada."

After partaking of a bounteous repast, Mr. Con Campbell, toastmaster, called on several to respond to impromptu toasts.

After the toast to the King had been honored, the others followed, and despite the fact many of the speakers were taken unawares they arose to the occasion without hesitation and throughout the evening speeches, full of humor and witty utterances kept the assemblage in laughter.

Several piano solos by Mr. Albert Blanchard were enjoyed as were also several choruses.

Before dispersing Mr. Farmer extended hearty thanks to his friends for their thoughtfulness and good wishes.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(By "Tec") Appreciative

The following letter from "A Citizen" has been received and we take much pleasure in reproducing it. Sir,—It is gratifying to a sport enthusiast to find in Charlottetown a willing and capable organization, presenting World Series Baseball Games in a manner of unquestionable perfection. The efforts of the Guardian in this connection are appreciated. With pronounced sincerity you have always given local sports the preference. With generous forethought you have recently offered to the public a graphic description of remote competition of major importance. Your sporting attitude is commendable.

I am, Sir, etc., A CITIZEN. Rugby

The junior rugby teams of West Kent and Summerside High, the game between which opened the football season on the Island on Saturday last, will clash again this week-end. As the opening game was played in Summerside, the second tilt will take place at the C.A.A. Grounds. Summerside High, with older players from Grade XI has a strong squad. The West Kent boys are confident that they can redeem themselves from the defeat which they suffered last Saturday. They have a well coached and smooth-working team, which as a unit works splendidly.

Band Of Hope Organized In North Bedeque

On the afternoon of Friday, Aug. 26th, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Grand Patron of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, held a meeting in the North Bedeque Hall and organized a Band of Hope.

The Board of Directors elected were as follows: Ralph McCaull, Donald McDonald, Wilbur Stavert, Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, Miss Jennie Muttart, Mrs. Earle McMurdo and Mrs. Clement Carruthers.

After Mr. Stavert had given an address on Temperance and had explained the three-fold pledge against the use of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes and against the use of tobacco and against the use of bad language, the following twenty-five young people took and signed this three-fold pledge: Jennie Carruthers, George Schurman, William Schurman, Marjorie Fraser, Eva Fraser, Albert Waugh, Jack Waugh, Robert Barwise, Betty Barwise, Dorothy Reeves, Roger want to make it four in a row," cried the Colonel as the Yankees descended on Chicago. This rousing declaration will undoubtedly be greeted with a shrill cry of pain from fellow-magnates, but the Colonel is like that. He loves victories more than pain, would be greatly gratified if his Yankees can win in four straight. It isn't often such a rousing statement comes headlong in such a series, but it is true nevertheless that the urge for victory often outweighs financial considerations in these affairs. Many hockey series have been wound up in jig time as a reference to records show. Maple Leaf marched right through Rangers last winter in three straight games. A fourth would have enriched the club coffers considerably, but there was no idea of anything else but a clean sweep if possible. It is the custom to deride pro sport in many places, but in the stress of competition the business angle doesn't really cut as wide a swathe as some imagine, when the playoff pressure gets under way.

A Coincidence

The Yankees on their trip to Chicago, kidded each other about their new record of making 10 hits—all singles—off Warneke. Lou Gehrig says he could not recall a game when anything so strange had happened, says a despatch, "in this slugging troupe's output of base hits."

"Enough Is Plenty"

Though battered, but with still smiling lips, Mickey Walker went on record Tuesday, tabbing Max Schmelling as the best fighter he ever met. "I don't think I'll ask for a return match right away," he said. "When I meet him again, I hope it will be socially."

Reeves, Norman Reeves, Douglas McMurdo, Helen Tucker, Norman Tucker, Will Tucker, Jean Tucker, Doris Clark, Denton Clark, Helen Arsenault, Zelma Arsenault, John Leckie, Virginia Large and Alexander Large.

The following are the officers of the Band of Hope:

President—Jennie Carruthers. Vice-President—Helen Tucker. Secretary—George Schurman. Treasurer—King Rattray. Guide—Jennie Muttart. Conductress—Jean Tucker. Sentinel—Eleanor Reeves.

In the work of organization, Mr. Stavert was assisted by Miss Florence McCaull.
