He obtained it free by smoking Rosebud cut plug.

One of the happiest wives in all the Maritimes is the little lady who is wearing a new pearl necklace presented by her husband. And one of the nice things about the gift is that it did not cost a penny extra.

Abbies In Great Come-Back

Defeated Taunton In Afternoon And Evening Fixtures By 4-3 Score.

After suffering a double defeat on Tuesday at the hands of the Taunton ball players, the Abegweits came back strong yesterday in the second double bill to realize sweet revenge in a come-back win by the two-game twin score of 4 to 3.

The locals, rejuvenated a hundred per cent, waded into the boys from below the "49th parallel" to carry the battle to them in a manner new—very new in the history of Maritime baseball.

Putty Connors, the only and original, stalked to the mound in the afternoon offering to hold the Yankees to a few scattered hits and the above mentioned runs. Needless to say his "buddies" behind him played the "American game" to a nicety.

In the evening tilt, Frank Carbonnell mounted the tough hill to hurl his premier fixture. This fiery thatched starboard deliverer did his stuff in a way sweet to see. He was equal to every occasion, and came out of holes that had the fans on the edge of their seats with frenzied cheering.

Scout News and Notices

The Boy Scout camp broke up last Monday, much to the disappointment of the boys who wished they could have extended it, at least for another week, in order to enjoy the full benefit of this splendid camp. The inspection on Monday was won by the Goose patrol, who succeeded in winning the flag three times in succession thus securing first place for the whole week's inspection. The Goose patrol was made up of scouts from the Kirk troop, under patrol leader Niall Burnett and second, Joe Hunter. Second place was secured by the Moose patrol made up with scouts from Zion and Baptist troops under patrol leader Fred Brown, and the Beaver patrol from St. Peters troop under patrol leader Maitland Owen.

PROGRAM FOR MONDAY

- 1—Test passing, first aid. 2—Judging distances and measuring river. 3—Swim. 4—Photographs.

During the days at camp the boys devoted a great deal of their time to the passing of badges. Among the most outstanding were the swimmers, rescuers and pioneer badges. To obtain the swimmer's badge a scout is required to: 1 Swim 50 yards with clothes on, 2 Be able to undress in water beyond his depth, 3 Swim 100 yards without clothes, using breast stroke, and fifty yards on the back with hands either clasped on the arms or the arms folded in front of the body, 4 Be able to dive when swimming in six feet of water, and bring up some specified object of at least five pounds in weight from the bottom.

To obtain the Rescuer's badge, a scout must: 1 Perform in water four methods of rescue and three of release from the clutch of a drowning person; drawing person, about same size as rescuers to be carried at least ten yards in demonstrating each of the rescue methods.

2 Dive from the surface to the depth of at least five feet and bring up a stone, brick or iron weighted object of not less than five pounds. 3 Demonstrate the Schaefer method of resuscitation and the promotion of warmth and circulation. 4 Swim 50 yards and undress before touching ground.

To obtain the Pioneer badge a scout must show extra efficiency in the following:

- 1—Fell a 6 inch tree or scaffold pole neatly and quickly. 2—Tie eight kinds of knots in the dark or blindfolded. 3—Lash bars properly together for scaffolding. 4—Build a model bridge or derrick. 5—Make a camp kitchen. 6—Build a hut of boughs, sods, grasses or similar material, or alternatively. 7—Weave a satisfactory mattress of straw, hay or boughs on a camp loom.

Abies—McCabe safe at first, and goes to second on overthrow; Bolger caught out by McAvoy; McCabe scores on Murley's single. 1 run, 1 hit, 0 errors. Umpire—Dougan. Bases—Power, Ryan.

Canadians Too Broad-Minded To Be Misled

(By Thomas Green Canadian Press Staff Correspondent) DUNDAS, Ont., July 22—In Dundas Riverside park late today, Hon. R. B. Bennett, gave his strong endorsement to the candidature of Gordon C. Wilson, official Conservative candidate for Wentworth. Two other candidates in the field are, S. R. Weaver, Independent Conservative, and F. C. Biggs, Liberal, former Minister of Highways in the Progressive Government of former Premier E. G. Drury.

There were interruptions towards the close, when Mr. Bennett gave his unqualified support to Mr. Wilson, member in the last Parliament, who at the close of the session announced his retirement from public life on account of ill-health.

The three men responsible for the interruptions were taken to the outskirts of the crowd by a police officer and warned. Mr. Bennett asked that the men be let alone, "I will deal with them," he said, and charged that the interruptions were organized.

The Opposition warned his audience against backdoor canvasses, Canadians, he said, were too broad-minded to be misled. If the people, Mr. Bennett said, wanted idle factories, idle mills, then they should vote for the Liberal candidate. "But," he said, "if you believe in your country, in building up your country, vote for your old stalwart, Gordon C. Wilson." Applause broke out in the audience at this juncture. Three cheers were given for Mr. Bennett and cheers again given "for our next Premier." Some one then called three cheers for Weaver. The response came in a mingling of cheers and boos.

Keith MacKinnon. Lorne Ives. Arthur Carruthers. George Chandler. George Burnett. Sandy Lawson. Maitland Owen. Jimmy Williams. Bob Owen.

RESCUERS BADGE

Bob Beer. Jack Chandler. Malcolm Putman. Keith MacKinnon. Lorne Ives. Arthur Carruthers. Niall Burnett. Maitland Owen.

PIONEER BADGE

Fred Shannon. Bob Owen. Maitland Owen.

At the close of this camp the boys wish to thank Mr. Parent, provincial secretary, for his kindness, and devotion to the camp. We are sure it was not for Mr. Parent, we would not have enjoyed such an outing.

the party at Halifax profess absolute confidence that the three constituencies represented by Liberals in the last House of Commons, Shelburne-Yarmouth, Hants-Kings, and Antigonish-Guysboro, will all elect supporters of Mr. Bennett next Monday. They base this confidence both on the character of the meetings held in those constituencies, and on the official reports of the canvasses made in the various districts. The success of Mayor Walker of Yarmouth over Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of Defence, looks like an absolute certainty at the present moment.

In Hants-Kings, the Conservative wave is said to be sweeping with such force that Mr. Foster's majority over Mr. Isley is placed well up in four figures. Similar reports come from Antigonish-Guysboro, where Mayor Rice, of Canso, is expected to win handsily over William Duff, who won the riding in a by-election a few months after the return of the King Government in 1926. In Shelburne-Yarmouth, the Liberal majority in 1926 was 1,331. In Hants-Kings, Mr. Isley's lead over Mr. Foster was 80, while in Antigonish-Guysboro the late J. C. Douglas won out by 137 votes over the late Colin McIsaac.

NO REVERSES EXPECTED

In none of the constituencies held in the recently dissolved House, do the Conservatives expect to suffer a reverse, and in most of them they are confident of considerably increased majorities. In the last election the Conservatives carried Cape Breton North and Victoria by 1,593, Cape Breton South by 2,512, Cumberland by 1,567, Digby-Annapolis by 308, Halifax by 3,772 for Mr. Black, and 3,164 for Mr. Quinn. Inverness by 650, Pictou by 1,384, Queens-Lunenburg by 789, and Richmond West Cape Breton by 489. Any Conservative majority in the last election, it is contended, assures the seat this year beyond question, considering the forces of the tide that has set in everywhere against the King Government.

The seats in this province which are definitely conceded to the Conservatives are Halifax, Cape Breton North-Victoria, Cape Breton South, Colchester, Cumberland, Pictou, and Richmond West Cape Breton. In all these constituencies the Liberal contests are merely a matter of campaign strategy, to prevent acclamations. At the beginning of the campaign the Liberals professed to have hopes in Queens-Lunenburg, Digby-Annapolis and Inverness, but they make no serious claim in any of these divisions at the present time, though interesting fights are in progress in all of them. At worst, the general outcome should be 12 Conservatives to 2 Liberals, as it was in 1925 and 1926, but if the Conservative tide continues as at present, it would not be surprising if the "solid 14" aimed at by the party organization should be realized on election day.
