RECEPTION TO NURSE AND RETURNED SOLDIER

On Thursday evening, Oct. 30th, a reception was tendered Miss Apple MacDougall, nurse, and Lieut George E. MacMillan, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacPhee, Cumberland. Shortly after 8 p. m., a large number of friends assembled to welcome this heroine and hero of the Great War. Addresses of welcome and appreciation of their noble services were read by the Misses Mary Lowther and Bessie MacEwen, while the Misses Anna MacPhee and Annabelle MacNeill, presented Miss MacDougall with gold and Mr. MacMillan with a silver ring. Mr. MacMillan made a fitting response. Then Rev. W. A. Wood, acting as chairman, called upon Hon. John MacMillan, an uncle of the honored hero, Inspector Doyle, Mr. Arch. MacDonald and Mr. A. K. MacPhee, who all spoke very appreciatively of the noble sacrifice of the two. A solo by Miss Edna MacEwen and a reading by Miss Edith Stewart (encored) were very much enjoyed by all. West River feels especially proud of Miss MacDougall; not many districts have the proud distinction of sending a nurse to the battlefields of Europe. The ladies responded in the characteristic gracious and generous manner, and so all sat down to what proved a very tasty and even sumptuous tea. The younger members of the company found amusement in numerous games, which were followed by singing of patriotic and Scotch songs. The wee small hours of the morning approached all too soon. The company broke up by the singing of "They are Jolly Good Fellows," "Three Cheers and a Tiger" and the National Anthem. A vote of thanks was extended Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee for their kindness in opening their home and their hospitality.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF POINT DE BUTE TRAGEDY

SACKVILLE, N. B., Nov. 14.—A distressing fatal accident occurred on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. Cecil McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McKenzie, of Point de Bute, accidentally shot himself while out shooting on the marsh. It appears that the deceased had been working on the marsh with his father and Mr. Thomas Miner of Westmoreland Point. He went ahead of the other men to get something out of the carriage, which was a short distance away. There was a loaded gun in the carriage, and the unfortunate man was apparently in the act of taking it from the vehicle when it went off, the shot going right through his chest. His father and his companion were startled at the discharge of the firearm and rushed to the spot to find out what was happening. It is stated that the deceased walked about ten or fifteen feet, and then sinking to the ground, gasped "Oh father"—and lapsed into unconsciousness. The accident happened at 2 o'clock and the young man passed away about 4 o'clock, without having regained consciousness.

Deceased, who was only about 22 years of age, returned from overseas in June last. Besides his sorrowing parents, he leaves to mourn their sad loss, six sisters, Nellie in the West; Mrs. Trainor, of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mrs. James Ferguson, of Truro; Gladys, Doris and Phyllis, at home; and three brothers, Hugh, Fort Lawrence; Willie in Nova Scotia, and Austin at home. The community is shocked at the sad fatality and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

NEW BRUNSWICK GIRL'S WAR ROMANCE

The Boston Globe relates the romantic story of the engagement of Miss Mary T. McGuire, of Petersburg (N. B.) formerly an American army nurse and Starke M. Slaughter, once a private of the United States army and now a student of technology at the Massachusetts Institute. Mr. Slaughter, who is twenty-three years old, and a native of South Carolina, went to France with the 42nd Division, was wounded at Montigny and the equipment, Major Magee, D. D. believed fully that for months his life was despaired of. After three months in hospital at Fort McPherson (Ga.) where Miss McGuire was one of the nursing sisters. He underwent an operation and during the tedious days in which he slowly regained health, he was cared for by Miss McGuire. When two months after Slaughter's operation, Miss McGuire received orders for her transfer to a hospital in Siberia she had promised to become his wife on her return. Slaughter was not discharged from the hospital until three months later, and did not meet Miss McGuire again until one month ago when he went to Boston to enroll at the institute. In the meantime, Miss McGuire had returned from Siberia and visited her New Brunswick home before going to her fiancé in Boston. They are to be married this week and will make their home in Boston.

H. M. S. RENOWN, LOST OVERBOARD

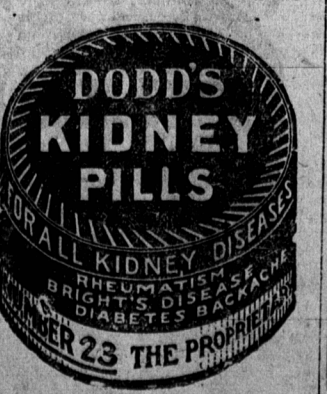

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Will Franklin and John Laight, able bodied seamen of the crew of the British battle cruiser Renown, were lost at sea last Sunday morning when the Renown ploughing through a gale, was coming here from Trinidad to take the Prince of Wales home. Midshipman Richard Knight was taken from the big battle cruiser today by the Presbyterian Hospital with both legs broken as the result of the tempestuous weather. Shortly after running into the gale midshipman Knight with a crew of four, hastened to make fast some of the movable gear of the ship. While they were working a heavy sea swept over the bows and jammed them against the breakwater, fracturing the midshipman's legs and carrying Laight overboard. A lifeboat was lowered, manned by a crew of fourteen. As this boat reached the water it was capsized by another huge wave and its occupants were thrown into the sea. General quarters was sounded and a port side lifeboat was lowered. All of the crew of the first lifeboat except Franklin were rescued.

THE SQUIRRELS SAY A MILD WINTER

"Old Joe" Arkwright, as they call him up around Mineville, N. Y., came to New York yesterday, as he does each year about this time, and as usual brought along his "neverfall" weather forecast for the coming winter. This year, according to Mr. Arkwright it's to be mild, very mild.

Mr. Arkwright was at the McAlpin Hotel yesterday. He is a hunter and trapper, and he declared that the squirrels up in Essex County are storing very small hoards of nuts for the winter months, and furthermore their fur is not very long or heavy. This, he explained, is proof positive that the winter is to be mild.

"Wherever I see them storing few nuts," he said, "I know the winter will not be severe. When I see them storing quite a few nuts, but still have little hair on their backs, I still think there's not to be much cold. But when I see them storing few nuts and going around at this time of the year with hair barely covering 'em, I'm fully decided we won't need much coal or wood for the fireplaces."—N. Y. Herald.

TORONTO TO DISCUSS COMPULSORY VACCINATION

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Instructions were issued by the Board of Control today for the calling of a public meeting in Massey Hall next Wednesday for the purpose of discussing the question of compulsory vaccination.

This action was taken as the result of the presenting of a petition by the Anti-Vaccination League and other citizens.

While the Anti-Vaccination delegation was being received by the Board one of the delegates, Mr. Blackburn, charged that Dr. Munn, one of the physicians vaccinating for the Board of Health had forcibly vaccinated her little girl, although the child had been vaccinated only four years ago and had with her a note from her teacher certifying to that fact.
