There never was a better prospect for the Dairy Industry in this Province than this year. Several of the factories had a larger amount of milk during the first week of June than ever before. This must certainly mean that the cattle are receiving better attention and better feed. This should bring out quite a number of entries in the Herd Competition, which is being carried on in each of the three Counties this year. Prizes to the amount of $60.00 are being offered in each county. A few entries have yet been received. It is to be hoped that the next week will bring in at least three or four in each County.

They are all bright, good-natured, and happy looking little ones and seemed not a bit inconvenienced by their tiresome journey. LIFE.

The poet's exclamation: "O Life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to arise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them—to feel life bounding in the veins. A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accomplished a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to try it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abundant. We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns.

The suspected presence in this Province of promoters of the white slave traffic is a fact is strongly supported by word which has reached this office in connection with the story of a young girl of Souris who mysteriously left her home on Tuesday last. The rumor current, which is supported by strong circumstantial evidence, goes to show that the girl in question, who is a very easy-going, left Souris Tuesday in company with two men enroute for Pictou, via Charlottetown. On Wednesday the three crossed to Pictou on the Northumberland. The men left the girl in Pictou while they went up river John where it was supposed they had other girls in search of their sister, to Pictou in search of her sister and on locating her found it impossible to induce her to return. Sunday, June 5th, saw the Knutsford Baptist congregation worshipping in their recently improved church. The services of the day were marked by two sermons, by Rev. H. A. Brown (Methodist) and Rev. Wm. M. Field, Tryon. The house just completed is a well designed and well finished building of suitable dimensions and appointments for the purposes of its erection. From its situation a good view of the fertile farms of Knutsford and inviting looking farm-houses is obtained, with a view of the beautiful bay and half sublime. The improvements cost over $300.00. This statement tells to those who know how few in number the Baptists have been in this community, a strong faith and devotion that does great credit to those concerned in the building committee was composed of brethren Nelson Gay, H. S. Jolly, Isaac Harris. They gave plenty of time and labor to onerous yet grateful task of beautifying a house for the Lord. The deacons of the church are H. S. Jolly and Wm. Gaudet. The church is a good leader in its pastor, brother C. S. Young, Lic. His pastorate extends over a number of stations, viz., Knutsford, Springfield, Alberton, Alma, and his labors would exhaust a man who did not combine physical strength with the wisdom that is profitable & direct, and the spiritual courage, faith and strength necessary to a good minister of Jesus Christ. Brother Young is doing a good work, and has done it well. He conducted the services of the dedication with distinct success. Good music was furnished by the choir under the leadership of Eva E., daughter of Brother Jas. P. Smallman. In the afternoon there was a public baptism when five happy believers followed their Saviors into the liquid tomb. The people for miles around gathered at the river's bank and listened in reverential spirit to the singing of the hymns, and the earnest words of the writer as he goes through the ceremonial. The people, the scenery, the life in many forms and the memory of the recollections of the writer. We congratulate the pastor, Brother Young, and the brethren at Knutsford on their advance movement, and can assure them of gratitude for their sacrifice on behalf of the best of causes.

WM. M. FIELD, Knutsford, June 6th.

Sunday, June 5th, saw the Knutsford Baptist congregation worshipping in their recently improved church. The services of the day were marked by two sermons, by Rev. H. A. Brown (Methodist) and Rev. Wm. M. Field, Tryon. The house just completed is a well designed and well finished building of suitable dimensions and appointments for the purposes of its erection. From its situation a good view of the fertile farms of Knutsford and inviting looking farm-houses is obtained, with a view of the beautiful bay and half sublime. The improvements cost over $300.00. This statement tells to those who know how few in number the Baptists have been in this community, a strong faith and devotion that does great credit to those concerned in the building committee was composed of brethren Nelson Gay, H. S. Jolly, Isaac Harris. They gave plenty of time and labor to onerous yet grateful task of beautifying a house for the Lord. The deacons of the church are H. S. Jolly and Wm. Gaudet. The church is a good leader in its pastor, brother C. S. Young, Lic. His pastorate extends over a number of stations, viz., Knutsford, Springfield, Alberton, Alma, and his labors would exhaust a man who did not combine physical strength with the wisdom that is profitable & direct, and the spiritual courage, faith and strength necessary to a good minister of Jesus Christ. Brother Young is doing a good work, and has done it well. He conducted the services of the dedication with distinct success. Good music was furnished by the choir under the leadership of Eva E., daughter of Brother Jas. P. Smallman. In the afternoon there was a public baptism when five happy believers followed their Saviors into the liquid tomb. The people for miles around gathered at the river's bank and listened in reverential spirit to the singing of the hymns, and the earnest words of the writer as he goes through the ceremonial. The people, the scenery, the life in many forms and the memory of the recollections of the writer. We congratulate the pastor, Brother Young, and the brethren at Knutsford on their advance movement, and can assure them of gratitude for their sacrifice on behalf of the best of causes.

WM. M. FIELD, Knutsford, June 6th.

Sir:
If the "happy-go-lucky-slap-it-on-a press-and-let-'er-go" kind of advertising you are using is doing you some good doesn't it seem reasonable to suppose that "something different"—bright, convincing, thought-out and mailed regularly "direct" to your list will prove of much greater value (This is intended only for the man who feels the bullet strike him).
