ROOF BLAZE—Firemen were called yesterday morning to the residence of Mr. Ernest Worth, Prince Street, for a roof blaze. The fire was quickly extinguished with but slight damage.

THE MANY FRIENDS of Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre in his province will be pleased to know she has been appointed by the National President of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, Miss Florence Boland, Toronto, to the National Committee of Laws and Constitution of which Miss Rose McElderry of Guelph, Ont., is National Convenor. As this committee has the important duties of deciding all governing rulings of the organization, amending of constitution and by-laws, etc., the importance of the appointment is evident. Mrs. MacIntyre is a past National President and an Honorary Life member.

GRAHAM-MacLURE—A marriage of much interest was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse, Murray Harbor North at five o'clock Wednesday evening, August 12th, when Miss Margaret Johnston Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Gaspereaux, became the bride of Mr. Preston Dalziel MacLure, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. MacLure of Murray Harbor North. Rev. J. H. Douglas, pastor of the congregation officiated. The young bride looked winsome attired in a dress of blue crepe and lace with white hat and accessories to match. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Artemas MacDonald of Gaspereaux, who wore a dress of blue crepe. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. Hazen MacLure. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where during the evening a reception was held, and a most tasty and delicious supper was served to a hundred and fifty invited guests. The evening passed pleasantly with social chat, while many, both young and old, enjoyed themselves dancing till the " wee small hours" of the morning. During the evening a jolly band of serenaders gathered to do their share of the evening's entertainment. After shaking hands and receiving a treat they quietly withdrew, bestowing on the young couple every good wish. The quantity and quality of the gifts which included silver, china, glassware, linen and cheques, etc., testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. The following day the newly wedded motored to Borden, crossing to the mainland by the ferry. The bride travelled in a brown tweed suit with a hat of lemon colored net and brown hat. They will reside at the groom's new home in Murray Harbor North.

VISITING MEDICAL MISSIONARY—In the absence of the pastor, Rev. D. L. Griffiths, who is away on his holidays, the services in St. John's Church, Belfast, on Sunday were taken by Dr. John Howie, medical missionary of Jobat, India, who is home on furlough. A large congregation was present and enjoyed the pleasure of hearing Dr. Howie again in Belfast, and judging from the hearty welcome he received his active work in the congregation ten years ago is not forgotten. Miss Annie MacRae presided at the organ and among the hymns sung was Dr. Howie's favorite one "Who Is He In Yonder Stall," which he sang in almost every home he visited while in charge of the congregation. Dr. Howie's address was taken from the text John 4:13-14 and his remarks were chiefly about India, its people, caste system, and the great field for missionary work, also the scarcity of water at different times. His illustrations and descriptions of same made it very easy to refer to his text many times, which he did. His story to the children about the stamp showed many lessons that could be put in practice at all times to adults as well. At the evening service he spoke on Abraham, telling that on his trip home he and his party travelled over the same ground that Abraham did when he was going to the land God intended for him, and at each stopping place he dwelt on the changes of what he saw to what was to be seen in Abraham's time. A solo, "Peace, Wonderful Peace" was given by Mrs. A. Murchison. Rev. Dr. George also assisted in the service. A large congregation was present. While in Charlottetown Dr. Howie and wife are the guests of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Kent St.—J.

Dies Suddenly At Glynde River

The death took place at Glynde River a few days ago of Mr. Donald Smith, a resident of that place for several years.

The deceased lived alone and on Saturday, August 15 helped Messrs. William and Joseph McCourt hauling in fish. He appeared quite well. On Sunday evening, Mr. Fred Thomas and Mr. Louis Walsh and his two little boys visited him. He was cheerful and in good spirits and that was the last that anyone saw him alive.

On Monday Mr. Smith was not seen by anyone and on Tuesday morning Mr. Joseph McCourt called at the house, but received no answer, and called him, but received no answer. The padlock on the door was open but the door was barred from the inside. On Wednesday he again visited the house and everything appeared the same. Mr. McCourt called him again and receiving no answer looked in the window and saw deceased lying upon a lounge. He at once notified a nearby neighbor, Mr. Ben Duggan, who came at once. They forced open the door and found Mr. Smith dead. A call was sent to Dr. James Fleming, Stanley Bridge, and the R.C.M.P. The doctor arriving soon after examined the body and said that he had been dead at least twenty-four hours. The R.C.M.P. with Dr. Stevenson, coroner, New Glasgow, also arrived and pronounced death caused by a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. A. C. Cutcliffe, undertaker from Hunter River, came and took charge of the remains. The funeral took place next morning from his funeral parlors, Hunter River, to St. Anne's Church, Hope River, where in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. V. MacDonald, the requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Monsignor Chalson of Rustico who also conducted services at the grave.

The remains were laid away in the adjoining churchyard, where sleeps his deceased father, mother and brother.

He leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs. Taft, Stoneham, Mass., and several nephews and nieces in Charlottetown.

Mr. Smith was a quiet, inoffensive man and will be missed very much in the community in which he resided. May his soul rest in peace.

The pallbearers were Messrs John J. Hagen, William McCourt, Louis Walsh, A. C. Cutcliffe, Lexis Murphy, James Monaghan.
