FUNERAL TODAY. — The funeral of the late James Alexander McKenzie takes place from his father's residence 29 Passmore Street, this morning at 9 a. m. for Canoe Cove via Rocky Point. In the extended death notice yesterday the name of one sister, Miss Sarah, bookkeeper with Clayton & Sons, Halifax, was overlooked.

DREDGING FOR PRINCE EDWARD.— The Dominion Government Dredge No. 9 Captain McCarthy is at present in Georgetown Harbour where it is understood she is to begin dredging operations pending the arrival of the new Car Ferry Steamer Prince Edward Island. Captain McCarthy with his crew of twelve have been engaged in Grand River deepening the channel from Bridgetown to Annandale during the past summer and for the past two weeks he has been dredging around Pamiure Island Wharf. Captain McCarthy is an experienced official and his work is highly spoken of on all sides.—&.

WEDDING BELLS.— On Wednesday the fifteenth of Dec. a very pretty wedding took place at Maple Hill the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Townshend, Fortune Bridge, P. E. Island, when their daughter, Glady's Florence was united in marriage to Mr. George H. Beers. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about fifty invited guests, by their pastor, the Rev. Mr. McKay. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Mildred, sister of the bride. The couple were unattended except by a sweet flower girl, little Amy, sister of the bride, who wore old rose silk, and carried a basket of pink and white carnations. The bride looked charming attired in a dress of white satin with fancy trimmings of fur and wore the conventional veil, with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations and maiden hair ferns. After the ceremony supper was daintly served. The very many presents which included a large amount of silver, linen and other costly and useful gifts, give evidence of the esteem in which the young couple are held. The grooms gift to the bride was a beautiful set of black furs. Among the guests were Miss Margaret Townshend and Miss Beatrice Bovyer, of Bunbury and Mr. Fred McRae of A. McRae & Sons, Central Royalty, cousin of the groom. The oldest and one of the most interesting guests was The Hon. J. C. Underhay of Bay Fortune. After spending a very pleasant evening the guests departed wishing the young couple health, happiness and prosperity. Mr. Beers belongs to Belle River and is assistant engineer on D. P. W. Dredge No. 11, and is well known in Charlottetown.

CHRISTMAS JOYS.

Once more 'tis jolly Christmas time,
The best of all the year,
When Merry Christmas bells will chime
In accents sweet and clear.

Our thoughts go back to years ago.
On that first Christmas morn
When Christ came down on earth to show
That God for man was born.

Our thoughts go back to years away
But Christmas still remains,
And so will Christ that came thad day.
Still bear our grief and pains.

So on this happy Christmas morn.
Let sunshine fill your heart,
Send love and cheer to those forlorn,
In this way "do your part."

Dear Beavers, pray midst all your joys,
And let this be your prayer;
"God bless our noble soldier boys
And keep them in Thy care."

SHOPPING DAY.— Yesterday was indeed shopping day in Charlottetown and large numbers of eager purchasers thronged the different stores all day long. There was a good attendance from the Southern branch and business was quite brisk.

A NARROW ESCAPE. — Mr. Montague McKay, section foreman at Mount Stewart, had the misfortune to meet with a painful accident on Monday last which will confine him to the house for some time. The accident happened while he was engaged in repairing a clothes line. He was standing on a barrel at the time and working away when he unfortunately over-balanced himself and the barrel rolled from under him causing him to fall very heavily on the frozen ground. As a consequence he sustained very painful injuries. He was quickly removed to the house and medical aid summoned and although no bones are broken his injuries are such as to keep him from doing any work for some time Mr. McKay has the sympathy of his many friends in his painful accident.—S.

THE STANLEY.— The D. G. S. Stanley which is engaged in the work of taking up the buoys around the coast came into Georgetown Sunday morning from the Magdalen Islands where she had been engaged in taking off the crew of the Norwegian ship Kango wrecked on Bryon Island. The crew some twenty in number had landed safely on the Island previous to the Stanley's reaching there and were taken off and landed at Pictou, N. S., The Kwango was an iron ship of seventeen hundred and twenty-seven tons and had a cargo of hard pine aboard valued at two hundred thousand dollars. She was bound for Bueons Ayres when the accident occurred which put an end to her existence. It is understood that the loss is covered by insurance. The vessel which is a total wreck lies close inshore to Bryon Island and will in all likelihood soon go to pieces.—&.

A CHRISTMAS CONFESSION.

Two years ago I woke on Christmas morning
And looked at all the gifts Joe'd sent, in bed;
Then I rang up and told him without warning
To change the fan for cigarettes instead;
And then I grumbled over each possession—
The chocs, were wrong; the white suede gloves weren't kid:
Yes, I've resolved to make a full confession—
It's true; that is exactly what I did!

This Chritmas Day I'm lying here and blinking
My tears to think how vile I used to be
Before the War turned up to set me thinking
And took old Joe off to Gallipoli:
And I've decided. Yes—that hateful Kaiser
Shall see that good can come from his old war!
"You shan't score always, even though you try, sir—
"I'M GOING TO BE MUCH NICER THAN BEFORE!"— Everywoman's Weekly.
