A salesman is usually three weeks on his route. His samples when he reaches here are no longer fresh. If we buy from him further time elapses before delivery.

Simpsons introduce a new system by which orders are placed even before the design is made and delivered to us at the same time as to retailers in the big cities.

It is a system that has given us the business of discriminating ladies; and remember—

Form Boys' Club To Mark Jubilee

(By The Canadian Press)

BLACKBURN, April 3—Because of the King's wish that the Jubilee celebrations shall be specially directed towards helping youth a movement has begun at Blackburn for the founding of a boys' club as part of the celebrations. Its main purpose is to ease the problem arising from widespread unemployment among youths from 14 to 18. There are 2,900 boys between these ages in Blackburn and about 600 are connected with the Boy Scout movement and similar organizations.

The proposal was made by the Blackburn Y. M. C. A. and is receiving strong local support. Brigadier General Arthur Birtwistle is the president of a representative committee, and the Lancashire County Association of Boys' Clubs has recognized the project by a grant of $125 towards the purchase of equipment for the beginning of the club.

CENTRAL ROYALTY INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Brentor Diamond with an attendance of eleven members and two visitors. Meeting opened by repeating creed in unison. Roll Call was followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. The various comittees gave their reports and the following new ones were appointed.

To visit sick— Mrs Cecil Ward and Mrs. Dorothy Cullen.

To prepare program Miss Laura Cullen and Mrs. Russel Roper.

To visit School —Mrs. Alex Agnew and Mrs. Russel Roper.

The secetary reported Government Grant of $2.00 received.

The program consisted of a Solo Mrs. Major MacRae.

Reading Mrs. Jennie Ferguson.

The debate was then called, the subject being resolved that the world is getting better. The speakers on the affirmitive Side were. Mrs. Laura Cullen Mrs. Alex Agnew and Mrs. Harold Gillispie on the negative side Mrs. W. P. MacLeod, Mrs. Fred MacRae and Miss Dorothy Cullen. The affirmitive side winning by the small majority of one note. The critic Mrs. Russel Roper made reference to the high order of the speeches. Mrs. Earle Carter was then presented with a suitable gift from the Institute which was fittingly acknowledged. Mrs. Cecil Wood, invited the members to her home for the next meeting, roll call to be answered by short cuts in house keeping. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Drummer At Six Now Opera Head

(By The Canadian Press)

NEW YORK, April 3—Wilfred Pelletier, French-Canadian conductor of the New York Metropolitan Opera Association, will conduct two orchestral concerts in his native city of Montreal in April.

The widely-known conductor, in charge of the Sunday night concerts of the Metropolitan Opera for several years, will conduct the Montreal concerts April 24 and 26.

The latter will be at a French festival. He also will give three opera performances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Detroit in May.

M. Pelletier began to play the bass drum with an amateur band in Montreal at the tender age of six. He came to the Metropolitan Opera House at the age of 20.

MARITIME FOX MEN—L. T. Leeman, of Salisbury, a member of the executive of the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association, left Tuesday afternoon for Ottawa to attend a meeting of the registration committee of the association. He was joined here by G. H. MacCallum, of Summerside, secretary of the association, who proceeded to the capital with him. Dr A. A. Lockhart, of Summerside, vice-president of the association, and G. A. Callbeck, of Summerside, another member of the executive, went through here yesterday to attend the meeting also.—Moncton Transcript.

Y.P.S. MEETING—The North Wiltshire Y.P.S. met for the regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Toombs on March 28th. The meeting opened with the hymn, Just as I am, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. There were fourteen members present and the offering for the evening amounted to 70 cents. There was a short discussion about preparing a pageant. A bill for electrical wiring was presented and paid. L. Bowman took charge of the devotional period with the following program. Hymn, The morning light is breaking. Scripture reading, L. Bowman; prayer, by B. Noye; chorus by four girls; reading, Missionaries, Mrs. D. Younker; recitations, Reta Easter, Beatrice Heatherby and Chester Pollard; reading by several members; solo, Mrs. D. Younker; male chorus. The meeting closed with the hymn, Will your anchor hold, and the Mizpah Benediction.

SOCIAL EVENING—The East Royalty Women's Institute held their annual social evening at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Andrew on the night of February 21st. Upwards of one hundred assembled to enjoy the evening with cards, singing and dancing. The musical entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stead, assisted by Miss Emma MacNevin, Mrs. Irving Thompson, Miss Mary Ferguson and Mr. George MacCallum. The candy guessing contest, in which many participated, was won by Mrs. Reginald Parkman. During the course of the evening a dainty lunch was served by the ladies. A very hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Wendelyn Morrissey seconded by Mr. Alex MacNevin and tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew for their generosity in opening up their home from such an enjoyable time. In Mr. Andrew's reply, he hoped there would be many more such pleasant times. The singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows," and "God Save the King" brought the pleasant evening to a close.

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS—On Friday evening, March 29, the members of St. Joseph's Literary and Debating Society, Kelly's Cross, met in the Hall for debate. The President occupied the chair, and opened the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary and adopted. The program consisted of harmonica music by Messrs Thomas Busack and Leo Flood. Reading by Miss Freda Peters, step dance by Master Gavin Toole. Reading by Mr. Wilfred Bradley. An interesting five minutes speech on farming was delivered by Mr. Peter Toole. The Question Box contained the usual number of interesting questions, which were satisfactorily answered. The subject for debate was, Resolved that the introduction of machinery has been a hindrance to the material welfare of mankind. The speakers on the pro side were, Messrs Maurice Bradley, William Bradley, William Waddell, and Miss Eleanor Trainor, and on the con side were Messrs O'Leary Curley, Thomas Busback and Gerald Nantes. The subject was well discussed considering the inexperience of the speakers, some of them speaking for the first time. The judges decided that the con side won by a majority of six points. Rev. Father Peters acted as critic. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

BOY SCOUTS ASSOCIATION — At a meeting yesterday of the executive of the Boy Scouts Association, in the office of the President, (Mr. J. O. Hyndman), presided over by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, Mr. William Warren was appointed Field Commissioner until the annual meeting in October, and Mr. J. J. Morris Provincial Commissioner. The Honorary Secretary, Mr. R. C. Parent, reported that $5,-142.90 had been subscribed in the recent campaign for the purpose of increasing the number of Boy Scouts in Canada from 65,000 to 100,000. A budget for the carrying on of the work until the annual meeting was discussed and approved. It was decided to have bon fires and fireworks in conjunction with the Provincial programme for the celebration of the King's Jubilee. Arrangements for the Jamboree in July were left in the hands of the Joint Committee representing the Scouts and Guides. The Scout Concert was fixed provisionally for June 7th, and the church parade the preceding Sunday. Apple Day was fixed for Saturday, November 16, or such other date as was most suitable.

W. M. S. MEETING—The W. M. S. of Winsloe South held their annual Mite Box Opening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sellars on Wednesday evening March 26th. A fine program carried out with Rev. Mr. Palethorpe as chairman was much enjoyed. Special note may be made of a monologue by Mr. Oliver Saunders who, in his usual capable and interesting manner stirred the humorous side of all present. The address by Rev. Mr. Palethorpe was very much enjoyed as was also a solo. After the programme the evening was sociably spent in contests, etc., after which lunch was served by the ladies of the W. M. S. and others. After a half an hours singsong and the singing of God Be With You Till We Meet Again, the gathering wended their ways homeward having very pleasantly spent the evening. Following is the program:—Hymn, All Hail the Power of Jesus Name; Scripture reading, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe; Recitation, Phyllis Auld; Recitation, Isabelle Diamond; Recitation, Russell Diamond; Duet, Elsie Hambly and Doris Sellar; Recitation, Avis Prowse; Violin and Piano music, Eva and Lois Coles; recitation, Doris Sellars; Dialogue, Mr. Oliver Saunders; Solo, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe. Collection taken by Joyce Auld and Letha Horne. Reading, Letter from India, by Mrs. Myers; Address, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe; Hymn, We Have Heard The Joyful Sound. Collections amounted to $8.00.

FAREWELL PRESENTATION

A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slackford, Winsloe South, on Friday evening Jan. 31st, in honor of Miss Gwen Palethorpe previous to her departure to Halifax, to resume her duties.

An address was read by Mrs. Archie Auld after which Miss Gwennie was presented with some nice gifts by Miss Irene Slackford to which she very fittingly replied.

Music and games then became the order of the evening. Lunch was later served by the young ladies. After a hearty sing song in which everyone joined, the gathering broke up all having enjoyed a very pleasant evening but expressing regret to see Gwen go.

Following is the address:—

Dear Gwen:

Now that the time has come of your intended departure fro mour midst, we, a few of your friends of Winsloe have gathered together to wish you farewell and to express our best wishes to you.

In the short time you have been with us, by your friendly and lovable disposition you have proven to us your inestimable value in our community as well as in our church.

We regret your leaving us, but mingled with our regrets are hopes that before too many months have passed you may return to us again. So now we ask you to accept this little gift as a slight expression of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of your Winsloe friends.

Farewell Party For P.E.I. Young Lady

(New Glasgow News)

Miss Bessie Trenholm, left on Thursday last for her home at Albany, P. E. I., on a two weeks visit to her parents, before leaving for Hamilton, Ontario, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. James Gordon, for a short time and probably decide to reside indefinitely.

On Wednesday evening some fifty of her friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Poole, Chisholm Street, for a farewell party, and presented her with a nice travelling bag, accompanied by the following address:

Dear Bessie,—We, your friends, have gathered here tonight on the ever of your departure to your home, to enjoy once again a jolly good time with you and to wish you every prosperity and good wish in your future destiny.

We have been told that you intend to go globe trotting off to brighter lands and will not be with us again for some time. Dear Friend, when we say that we hope to have you among us soon again, we hope you will not think we are wishing you any hard luck, but rather, that the very best is in store for you.

In leaving we would ask you to accept this gift as a token of our appreciation of your valued friendship, and as you form new acquaintances please remember your truest and trusted friends in Nova Scotia, and when you again wander in this direction you shall always find our latch strings out to you.

With fondest memories and best wishes, we are,

Your Friends.

Miss Trenholm during the years she spent here, won the high regard of all who know her and made many other friends who will also be interseted in her future and wish her well.
