CARD PARTY—The Granite Sisters Hockey Club, of Kensington, held a very enjoyable card party in the Oddfellows' hall on Friday night. Eleven tables of auction forty-fives were played. The gents' prize was won by Mr. Hazelton Gillis and the ladies prize went to Mrs. John Burns. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies in charge.

LARGE FUR BUYER COMING TO SUMMERSIDE.—The representative of a large New York firm with very large, European and other connections is arriving at Summerside Monday evening and will be at the office of B. Graham Rogers for a few days. This man wants a large number of silver fox furs for immediate shipment, so bring in as many as possible this week and take advantage of the opportunity of disposing of your furs in time for the early market and at good cash prices. 10710-12-7-51

PRETTY WEDDING—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church Parsonage, Summerside, on Wednesday, November 25th at six o'clock when Miss Ethel Julia Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mann, Indian River was united in marriage to Mr. Roland Victor Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Inman, North St. Eleanor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. B. Campbell, pastor of Trinity United Church, Summerside. The bride looked winsome in a dress of blue georgette trimmed with chiffon velvet, with hat and accessories in perfect accord. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. They were attended by Miss Doris M. Inman, sister of the groom and Mr. Keith J. Mann, brother of the bride. Following the marriage the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held for the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A large crowd of happy charivariers assembled to do honor to the newly wedded couple wishing them much happiness for the future after which a social evening was enjoyed. Later the young couple left for their new home in North St. Eleanor. Mr. and Mrs. Inman are very popular and a host of friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Persian Balm is alluringly fragrant. Adds a charming refinement to the most finished appearance. Creates and preserves complexions of surpassing loveliness and texture. Softens and whitens the hands. Cools and dispels all irritation caused by weather conditions. Swiftly absorbed by the tissues leaving never a vestige of stickiness. A peerless toilet requisite. Invaluable to all women who care for elegance and distinction.

Mr. Fenton Crossman of Cape Wolfe, P. E. I., a former employee of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Summerside, but now in the C. S. Department of Immigration in Montreal, spent the week end visiting friends in Ottawa.

NEW YORK, N., Dec. 7.—The presiding justice of Brooklyn's new "matrimonial supreme court," is Lewis L. Fawcett, a bachelor who believes in the whipping post and the leather lash.

INSTITUTE MEETING—The annual meeting of the Launching Women's Institute was held on Nov. 26th at the home of Mrs. John Mc-

Cormack, with eighteen members and one visitor present. Meeting opened with singing the Ode, followed by roll call and reading and signing of minutes. The Secretary read the financial statement for the year. The following officers were re-elected for ensuing year: President, Mrs. Annie Gardiner; Vice-president, Mrs. George P. McPherson; Sec'y, Mrs. Aeneas P. MacDonald. New Directors were appointed as follows: Mrs. Wm. McLean, Mrs. Tom Blackett and Miss M. Annabelle McPherson; Auditors, Miss Marguerite McDonald and Miss Mamie Morrison. The sick and school committees reported. New committees appointed for three months, viz: Sick, Miss Annie McDonald and Miss Marguerite McDonald; School, Mrs. Charlotte Yorston and Mrs. John McCormack. The following committee were appointed to prepare a program for next meeting: Miss Florence Christian, Miss M. Annabelle McPherson and Miss Marguerite McDonald. Our card party held on Nov. 23rd, proved a very successful one. In addition to our own articles, we were able to dispose of a quantity of knitted goods for a blind girl in the district, which she highly appreciated.

The meeting closed with singing of National Anthem, followed by a delicious supper served by the hostess. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. George P. McPherson, roll call to be answered by jokes or riddles.
