If You're Married—
You'll want to see this gorgeous classic of comedy!

If You're Single—
You surely MUST see it. Makes you rock with laughter and chuckle hours after. Joy creating, exhilarating.

HOOKED—AT LAST!

Good heavens! How had it all happened? Here he was holding in his arms the most exquisite creature his eyes had ever beheld—all pink and white and alluring! Holding her for only a brief, fleeting moment! And then like a bolt of lightning came the devastating realization that he, the cynical, bragging, scoffing, unconquerable bachelor had at last been conquered!

His heart told him he was in heaven! His head told him to drop her and run, run! But did he? He did not! HE COULD NOT!

And then things began to happen!

You know Harold Lloyd. You know what he can do with comedy. Don't ask us to tell you. We haven't the heart! And we couldn't find words to do it if we wanted to! Go and see for yourself!

YOU'LL HAVE THE MOST RIOTOUS TIME OF YOUR LIFE!

BRIDAL SHOWER—On Saturday evening, Dec. 20th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber MacPhail was the scene of a happy gathering when upwards of fifty of the young people of Clyde River and Mesopotam met to honor with a miscellaneous shower Miss Winifred MacLean who became a bride on Xmas Day. The company having assembled in the living-room and the bride-elect having been given the seat of honor, a winsome and miniature bride and groom, in the persons of Miss Dorothy MacLean and Master Lloyd MacPhail wheeled in a gayly decorated crib laden with gifts. The winsome little bride having presented Miss MacLean with a bridal bouquet, Miss Mayne MacPhail proceeded to open the gifts which were both beautiful and useful. Many of them were accompanied by original and amusing verses which were read by Miss Caroline Fraser. The bride-to-be, though taken by surprise, thanked her friends very pleasantly. The evening was joyously whiled away in games and music. A business luncheon was served and after singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "Good Night Ladies," the young people proceeded to their homes.
