The Ladies of Grace Church are holding a sale of useful articles in connection with their five o'clock tea. Ladies' aprons, children's pinafores and doll's hats for the little folk will be sold.

A curious coincidence in connection with the arrival of the Earl Grey and the Minto in Georgetown on Thursday is the fact that never in the history of that port had two boats in the winter service arrive in Georgetown at the same time.

Rev. W. A. Hawley, Marshfield, leaves on the afternoon train to Georgetown today en route to New Brunswick. His health is not all that could be desired, while they will express earnest wishes for an early restoration to his usual strength and vigor.

There was a large number of skaters in the Arena last evening on the occasion of the second last evening band session for ticket holders of this season. The ice was good up to the last band and an exceptionally good program of music was discoursed by the Fourth Regiment Band who generously gave an extra number to their program.

A very enjoyable dance was given by Mrs. George Wheatley, city, last evening in Wheatley's Hall, corner St. George and Euston Streets. There were about eighty invited guests, all of whom had a thoroughly enjoyable time. Music for the dancing was furnished in a capable manner by Vernon McIntyre. The chaperoones were: Mrs. Noyes and Mrs. Mathieson, city.

Orders were received some days ago by the contractor of the Provincial Building in this city to fly the Union Jack every day in the year in future. This has been done of late by reason of the session of the Provincial Legislature but henceforth the Union Jack will fly on the Colonial Building from sunrise to sunset daily, properly proclaiming this as a part of the British Empire. The orders received were from the Department of Public Works.

Michael Thomas, the well-known Marathoner of Lennox Island, leaves shortly for Boston where he will compete in the Boston Marathon under the colors and management of the Abergweil Amateur Athletic Association of this city. A despatch on another page respecting Fred Cameron of Amherst will interest those who are following the developments prior to the great race. Mike will have the best wishes for success from every citizen, altogether irrespective of club connections, and the great majority of those who are interested in Mike's career express great confidence in him and in his ability to find a place well up among the leaders, if not the first.

Last night Frank M. Duchemin of Glace Bay received by wire the sad news of the death of his wife, which occurred at Truro some time yesterday. There were no particulars as to the cause of death, and the news came as a great shock to the deceased lady's husband and friends, as it was not even known that she was suffering from any serious illness. A few weeks ago Mrs. Duchemin went to Truro, on a visit to her father, the Rev. James Blesdel, where she purpose of remaining for a month or so. The deceased lady was widely known and had a large circle of friends in Glace Bay where her father was stationed as Methodist minister for a number of years. She leaves two small children. Mr. Duchemin will have the sympathy of many friends at Glace Bay and elsewhere in his sad bereavement, and Sydney Post. (Mr. Duchemin is a native of Charlottetown.)
