

Not Just Another "Sheik Picture" But a Sahara Romance Between People that Matter

PRINCE EDWARD-TODAY

The desert's vengeance—a man torn between duty and love—a sandstorm such as the screen has never shown—a thousand other thrills and throbs—all played in the real Sahara Desert.

Torn between love and duty, a handsome young Monk enters the world for one flaming moment. A great book and play, now a film sensation.

One of the world's truly great romances has been brought to the screen now through the genius of Rex Ingram. Made on actual locations in Europe and the Sahara Desert, with thousands of Arab tribesmen, this is a production of outstanding beauty and dramatic power.

Millions have read the story in book form—millions will thrill now to the adventures of the handsome young Monk who yields to the call of the world without for one brief, flaming moment of passion.

Flowers' Sister Screams "No Mo' Tiger" At Funeral

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 22.—"No mo' Tiger, no mo' Tiger," screamed a sobbing woman's voice, and 7,000 persons lapsed into silence to hear last honors paid to departed Theodore Flowers, negro middleweight boxer, who once was crowned champion of the world. For more than an hour, that one burst of emotion and a series of formal exercises were all that broke the stillness of Atlanta's municipal auditorium. As the casket was borne in, preceded by a vested choir and Tiger's lodge brethren in full regalia, all swaying, moving even slower than the death march from the vast organ, the booming voice of Flowers' pastor chanted a sonorous benediction. From the group of relatives seated near the rostrum, barked high with flowers, the voice of Tiger's sister Rose: "No mo' Tiger, no mo' Tiger—hold the beat and let me go—I want to see him again."

From that dramatic point on the ceremonies were marked by a quiet, almost stiff formality, until one of Tiger's white friends had paid him highest praise. When Morgan Blake, sporting editor of the Atlanta Journal had completed a brief address, the assemblage broke into a long thunder of applause.

11 HORSES NAMED FOR BRITISH RACE

MANCHESTER, England, Nov. 22.—Eleven experienced handicappers named this afternoon probable starters in the Manchester November handicap, the last important race of the flat racing season, which will be run next Saturday over the mile and a half course. It will be the 47th renewal. The probable starters and jockeys are: Pons Asinorum (Winter), Invershin (Elliot), High Brow (Weston), Silver Lark (Gordon Richards), Hibennia (H. Leach), Samphibe Second (Caldwell), Adieu (F. Fox), Old Orkney (Steve Donoghue), Planardo (Packham), Mala (Baines), and Grassmoor (Jellieh), the latter being a doubtful runner.

SPORT NOTES

FOOTBALL

As far as the old football game in senior ranks is concerned, it is all over for the season. The weather has dampened the spirit of the Abegweits so much that they cannot get the necessary practice to put a team strong enough on the field to bring home the bacon, so once again, the Saint Dunstan's team is rugby champions of the Island, having won the only game of the schedule played by a 6 to 0 score. While St. Dunstan's would like to win out in the regular way and become the champs on their own merit, but for this year this seemed impossible, possibly next year the weather will be such that will allow the Abegweits players a chance for practice and the Saints will then have their chance of proving their worth on the gridiron. The Inter-scholastic championships are to yet be decided between Queen Square and West Kent, the second game of which takes place this afternoon.

BASKETBALL

This game was once flourishing in Charlottetown and there were as many teams as you could shake a stick at, but of late years the interest lagged and so much that now it is almost extinct. Some one remarked the other day that it was coming back this year. Here's hoping. There is room for it and there is no chance of work or weather interfering with the practices. So why hesitate? An Abegweit official let drop the remark the other night that there would be no more football this season but they were going to give the fellows some basketball, and why not, this is the time and there is good places for the teams to play in the Y. M. C. A. and League of the Cross. The Saints have been working out a little lately on this game under their efficient coach Rev. R. V. McKenzie and have a number of likely looking players in Tingley, the "Shepody Wonder," George McDonald, M. Dunphy, "Sweet Seventy two" O'Leary and E. Murray.

OTHER PROMISING MATERIAL

Other promising material are Jim Keigan, "Lefty" McQuaid, "of baseball fame," T. Hughes, J. Malone and H. Grant. Possibly the Saints could be induced to put a team on the floor for exhibition games, or it is quite likely they would enter a league if one were formed in Charlottetown. Nice to try and see what could be done. A little basketball would fill in the gap between now and hockey and possibly after.

HOCKEY

Hockey has already got away to a good start in the Canadian-American professional league and according to all reports is going to prove a banner year for Canada's National pastime. It will be well up to the new year before any games take place here, as there is very little hope of good ice before Christmas, which makes the time very short for practicing and gives the boys little time to get in shape to meet teams from the sister Provinces. It looks from the large numbers who enjoy the invigorating pastime of skating and the number of different teams from outside that are taking an interest in hockey that a sheet of artificial ice over the Arena would be a good paying proposition. Opperman Wins 6-Day Cycling Race

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 22.—Hubert Opperman, Australia, all-around cycling champion, won the Victorian Dunlop Grand Prix for the greatest cycling race ever held in the British Empire. The distance covered was 690 1/2 miles around the State of Victoria, and it occupied six days. Opperman's time was 40 hours, 41 minutes and 34 seconds, which is a world's record.

Injured Player Ready For Game

MONTREAL, Nov. 22.—Howie Moroz, centre player on the Canadiens, National Hockey League Club, will be on the ice when the Habitués face Pittsburgh here tomorrow night in a scheduled league fixture. Moroz, it is understood, will not be on the regular line-up, but will be injected into the play for part of the match only. The player was injured when he collided with a goal post in a scramble close to the net, when Reise bumped into him during the inaugural game of the season in New York between the Americans and the Flying Frenchmen. Reise is still on the casualty list.

No Rest With Asthma. Asthma usually attacks at night, the one time when rest is needed most. Hence the loss of strength, the nervous debility, the loss of flesh and other evils which must be expected unless relief is secured. Fortunately relief is possible. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved its merits through years of service. A trial will surely convince you.

Abegweits Require Funds To Carry On

The Abegweit Athletic Association who have always been to the fore in fostering all branches of sport in Charlottetown and the different teams bearing the name "Abegweit" have distinguished themselves for many, many years at home and abroad. The Abegweits have put Charlottetown and Prince Edward Island on the map of sport and their athletes are known throughout the width and breadth of the Dominion. But for the past few years the Abegweits have been working with their back against a wall, and the cause was lack of funds, now the Abegweits require funds to put their grounds in condition for athletes to train on, the present grand stand which was built to replace the one destroyed by fire is in a deplorable condition and needs immediate attention so as to avoid accidents in the future. The track is sadly in need of repairs although the best has been done as far as finances would go, but in order that this track team can get better accommodation for training it is necessary to have the track put in much better shape than at present. In order to do this they must have money, so the officials of the club have decided to produce in the Market Building for seven nights starting Saturday December third "The Whirl of Mirth." New and novel games will be introduced and several valuable prizes will be given away nightly. Many new features will be included on the program for each night, which will be under the supervision of Mr. Eugene Murphy of the Murphy Production Co. There will be fun for old and young and surely a generous response will be made on the part of the people and the desired amount will be realized by the Association to meet their dire needs. With Christmas approaching it would be a good time for all to act the good Santa to the Abegweit Club who has done so much for the Province in the past and help them keep the wheels of athletic activity turning smoothly.

Age-Limit Favored For Girl Athletes

TORONTO, Nov. 22.—That girls under 16 years of age should be barred from open championships, was the effect of a resolution passed at the annual meeting of the Ontario branch, Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, here. Special championships for these girls should be held, it was urged. If any junior betters an existing championship record the new mark will be accepted. It was also resolved that no amateur shall change her club affiliation after November 1, without a written lease. These resolutions will be passed on at recommendations to the annual meeting of the Canadian Women's Federation on Friday. 15 to 30 drops of Seigel's Syrup relieves all cases of indigestion and dyspepsia.
