—M. FEEDS will keep for months. Meat is perishable and dangerous waste kept for only a short time in mild weather. Illustrated by Bruce's. L-444.

—C. G. I. T. SERVICE — Last week was demonstration week for the C. G. I. T. of Canada. The group belonging to Trinity United Church, Summerside, had charge of the service of praise at the morning church service, to mark the occasion. The hymns were very appropriate and the singing was very much appreciated.—S

—BARNS DAMAGED — The high wind of Friday and Saturday did considerable damage in the county. The large barn of Mr. Daniel McEneaney in Lower Bedouque had the roof lifted clean off and blown across the road. Another barn belonging to Mr. Ernest Chappin of St. Elizabeths had part of the roof carried away by the wind.—S

—TO REBUILD WAREHOUSE — The large potato warehouse at O'Leary known as the Farmers warehouse and owned by Mr. Sanford Phillips which was destroyed by fire early this winter is to be rebuilt. Mr. Phillips will start building as soon as the frost is out of the ground. The building will be about the same size as before. Forty by 120 feet with an eleven foot cellar. This is a progressive move on the part of Mr. Phillips and should receive the support of the farmers.—S

—FUNERAL SERVICE — The funeral of the late John S. Hanning took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence under Rev. Leslie Waterworth. Hymns sung were: "Lead Kindly Light" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The Masses then took charge. The impressive funeral service of the Masons Order was conducted by Rev. Grand Master J. M. Nicholson, assisted by P. G. Mather, S. McKay. At the close of their service the Masses sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The Masses marched on foot in the funeral procession.

OH MAGGIE!

TAKE OFF YOUR HAT WHEN YOU SPEAK TO ME.

BUT, MAGGIE—

DID YOU HEAR WHAT I SAID? IF YOU DON'T TAKE IT OFF I'LL KNOCK THE HAT OFF.

I GUESS YOU'LL HAVE TO—I CAME BACK TO TELL YOU THAT I USED GLUE INSTEAD OF HAIR TONIC THIS MORNING AND I CAN'T GET THE HAT OFF.
