James Weatherbie, Hollister, Cal., arrived yesterday in Vernon River, on a visit to his parents James and Mrs. Weatherbie. Before his departure for Rome, Rev. Father Smith, Chaplain of Division No. 1 A. O. H. City, was presented with an address and a purse of gold. Miss Rena Chamberlain, Natick, Mass., arrived in this City, on Tuesday and went to Pinette, Friday, on a visit to her friend Mrs. James McKenzie. Miss Mae Linton who has been visiting in this City with Miss Edythe Ritchie, has so far returned to Amherst yesterday where she intends spending the winter with her mother. The firemen were called out yesterday for an alarm from King Street in a tenement house in one end of which Allan McDonald resides. The fire which was about when the fire men arrived was probably caused from a defective flue. An exchange of last week said the congregation of the Methodist Church, Milltown, are delighted to know that their pastor, Rev. Robt. S. Crisp, has so far recovered from his recent severe illness, as to occupy his pulpit on Sunday morning next. Mr. Crisp is well known in this Province. Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Teasdale formerly of this City, are visiting friends in Halifax. Mr. Teasdale preached at Oxford St. Church, Halifax, on Sunday evening. His speech still glows with the fire of eloquence and his magnetic personality still impresses his hearers powerfully. Miss Mabel Thompson accompanied by her cousin Miss Lulu Casey of Waltham, Mass., have arrived in this City. Miss Thompson has graduated at Hale Hospital, Haverhill, and from the Eye and Ear Infirmary of Boston. She will remain at home. Miss Cassey will spend two weeks the guest of W. P. and Mrs. Doull. Annie Emily MacCallum, a native of Harrington, Prince Edward Island, died of heart failure at Azus, Los Angeles County, Cal., August 23rd, 1908, aged fifteen years and eleven months. She was a daughter of Peter and Ada MacCallum, a sister of Alberta and Alice MacCallum and a niece of J. A. Mathieson, leader of the Opposition, Charlotte Town. Annie went to California in October, 1904, and attended the Azus City school. Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were Mrs. J. F. Robertson, City to Bucoche, N. B.; Miss Eliza Kelly returning to Cambridge, Mass.; from a visit to Fort Augustus; Simon Smith and Edward Barrigan returning to Boston from a visit to this City; Rev. M. J. Smith, City to Boston thence to Europe; J. V. Callaghan returning to Shelburne, N. S. from a holiday to this City and Frank Beals, City to Pictou.

In the death of James Stewart of Mt. Herbert, which occurred on Sunday last, the community has lost a good neighbor and highly respected man. He was known by rich and poor for his liberality in time of need and his great hospitality. His funeral on Wednesday was very largely attended by relatives and friends and the services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Erb, assisted by Rev. D. McLennan, burial being in Cross Roads cemetery. Beside the widow a family of three daughters, Helen and Janie at home Mrs. John McDonald of Mt. Ryan and five sons, John of the S. S. Quinn, Charles of San Francisco, now visiting his home, and Bruce and Wallace at home and Samuel in Boston are left to mourn. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Much interest is being taken in the boring for coal on the property belonging to John Tweedy at Barnscliffe. Capt. Bordereau has arrived with seventeen thousand feet of lumber for building the derrick for the drilling operations which it is hoped will be ready for drilling in ten days time under Mr. Stover's superintendence. The work will be done by four expert machinists John Smyth, and J. D. N. Wesner of Pennsylvania, and John Donahoe and Frances Steel of Indiana who are now at the scene of action.
