MISS MARION McKINNON HEARD IN VIOLIN RECITAL

The following clipping from the Arlington Advocate will be of interest here as Miss McKinnon is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon McKinnon of Bangor, P. E. I. She is a teacher of piano, violin and mandolin in Boston.

"Last Friday evening, February 18, before an audience that filled Arlington Hall, Boston, Miss Marion McKinnon, of Grove Street, was heard in a violin recital, assisted by Arthur Clare, baritone, and Frances M. Robbins, accompanist. Miss McKinnon, who teaches violin, piano and mandolin to a large number of pupils in Arlington, and Belmont, gave a finely executed program of violin numbers. She was introduced by her teacher. Mr. Arthur Clare, also of Grove street, was pleased with his selections, and in his last group of songs, responded to an encore(with the Banjo Song". Helen Bailey of Summer street accompanied Mr. Clare. At the close of the evening flowers were presented to Miss McKinnon and Helen Bailey. The program was as follows:—"Reverie," Carse; "Gavotte." Gossec, and "Mazurka" (Kinawick) Wieniawski by Miss McKinnon; baritone solos, "While Bells of Memory Chime," Margaret Test, and "Dream Cloud," by Shure. Arthur Clare, accompanied by Helen Bailey; violin numbers. "Spring Song," Mendelssohn, "Minuet", Paderewski, and "Hungarian Dance, No. V". Brahms, Miss McKinnon; baritone solos, "The Wormad," Hamlin and "One Fleeting Hour", Dorothy Lee, Mr. Clare; violin group, "Flower Song" Lange, and "Bohemian Dance, No. 1," Sindegger, Miss MacKinnon."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN McKENZIE

Died at Murray River, P. E. I. on March 3rd, after a lingering illness of four months, Jessie McLean, of Little Sands, 78 years, wife of John W. McKenzie. She was a member of the Baptist Church for forty-six years, and leaves to mourn besides her husband, one son in Edson, Alberta, and six grandchildren, three in Port Hood, C.B., and three in Edson, Alberta, to all of whom sincere sympathy is extended.

WILLIAM E. HYDE, JR.

The funeral of William E. Hyde, Jr., was held from his home 45 Arlington Road, Feb. 22nd. Rev. Charles MacLean of the Beth Eden Baptist Church was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Beatrice Sylvester and Mrs. Hall sang solos. Many relatives and friends were present and there was a profusion of floral tributes. The pall bearers were Gordon and Parker Livingstone, Everett McKinnon and Robert MacLean, Jr. Burial was in Mt. Feake Cemetery, funeral arrangements being in charge of Archibald Bellinger of Newtonville.

MRS. CATHERINE BRENNAN.

Sorrow profound overwhelmed the good people of Kinkora recently when they learned that Mrs. Catherine Brennan had passed into eternity. She had enjoyed excellent health, never having been known to have seen a day sick. She was in maidenhood, Miss Catherine Hanifan, Stanley Bridge, and, at the age of twenty-six, came to Kinkora, where she continued to reside until the time of death. She was a member of a family that commanded profound respect, and her genial and charitable disposition made her company always acceptable. Her husband, a most estimable gentleman, predeceased her thirty-one years ago.

To mourn her death she leaves three daughters, Annie, a public school teacher, Kronan, Sask.; Mrs Arch. J. Campbell, Clermont, and Mary at home; one daughter, the late Mrs. T. A. Driscoll, died some years ago. One son, Patrick, Kinkora, survives. Also bereft are eleven grand-children who fondly revered her.

In her last days she was visited by her Pastor, Rev. M. J. Smith, D.D., who administered to her the last rites of the Church, and, thus strengthened, she ascended to the judgment seat of God. Her funeral was held on Wednesday morning to St. Melachia's Church, Kinkora, and included the many friends that she had in this life. The pallbearers were Michael Farmer, John O'Keeffe, John Johnson, Allie Shreenan, Harris Wright and Eliot Wright. The funeral was attended by the many friends who held the faithful departed in esteem so high. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Pastor, who also performed the solemn obsequies.

Mrs. Brennan was a lady whose very name was revered by her many friends. Her life was the very mirror of grace from which was reflected the forms of the many meritorious deeds that she loved so well to perform. —Y.

MRS. GEO. MacDONALD

At Brudenell on the night of March 5th, after two years of suffering, there passed away Mrs. Geo. Macdonald (nee Miss Margaret Jane Moar). The deceased was a daughter of the late James Moar of Baldwin's Road, where she was born on April 15, 1832. She leaves to mourn a husband and four sons, W. Wilfrid, Gordon R., Ivan M., and James A., all at home; a step-son, Geo. W., at Montague, and one sister ,Mrs. R. C. Mellish at Union Road.

The deceased was a member of the Church of Christ at Montague, and during health was always an active worker in its cause. She was a woman of rare intelligence, of deep sincerity, and of Christian grace. During her long illness which she bore with Christian fortitude and patience she was so resigned as to be ready at any time to answer the call of the Master. Throughout this time nuemerous friends visited her and she loved to discuss the future Home being prepared for her. One of her last wishes was that her family should not forget those loyal and true friends who had done so much for her. By her death a loving wife, a true mother, and a loyal and consistent friend has been removed.

Rev. J. W. Hayter, assisted by Rev. John Stirling, conducted the services at the house and grave and took as his text a most appropriate portion of scripture, the fifteenth verse of the 116th Psalm,—"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." The pall-bearers, as follows, were cousins of the deceased, Spence Moar, William Moar, Ernest Moar, W. G. Macdonald, Fred Robertson and Russell Finley.

MRS. DUNCAN DARRACH

A sad gloom was cast over the community of Marshfield on Feby. 11th. when Mrs. Duncan Darrach passed peacefully away to her eternal reward. The deceased was of a kind and loveable disposition, who was always ready and willing to give of her time and energy to any good cause in the community. In her early life she made a decision on the Lord's side and became a member of Pownal Methodist Church which she faithfully kept till the Angel of Death called her to the great beyond. During her illness which she bore without a murmur, all that medical attention and the kind care of loving daughters could do death could not be retarded and the end came calm and peaceful in the twilight of Friday the 11 inst. The deceased was born at Pownal, her maiden name being Margaret Brehaut daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brehaut and was in her 69th year. After her marriage she moved to Clyde River with her husband where she lived for a number of years. In March 1893 they moved to Marshfield where she lived with her family till her death. There are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, a sorrowing husband three sons and four daughters, Nell B. of Borden; John M., West Newton (who arrived home in time for funeral); Percy at home; Edith Mrs. Horace Vessey, York; Laura, Mrs. E. Howard, Portland, Ore.; Hilda Mrs. Herbert Dennis, Marshfield; and Miss Bertha, R.N., at home, also two sisters, Mrs. H. Squires and Miss Lavenia both of Portland, Ore., and one brother Alfred D. of Pownal. The funeral which was held on Sunday was largely attended. The services at house and grave being conducted by Rev. F. E. Bothroyd, who visited her during her illness, assisted by Rev. Mr. Spencer of Charlottetown, interment being in York Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs Edgar Heartz, Peter Stewart, Henry Boswall, Wallace Wood, Tupper Ferguson and J. T. Ferguson.

The beautiful floral tributes from the following conveyed much sympathy:

Crescent, W. M. S. Marshfield United Church.

Wreath— Marshfield Women's Institute.

Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heartz.

Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stewart and Eva.

Spray— Brother Alfred and family.

Spray—Matrons and nurses of P. E. I. Hospital.

Pillow—Husband and family.

Oh Mother thou has left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel
But 'tis God that has bereft us
He can all our sorrows heal.

MALPEQUE

The annual meeting of the Princetown Bible and Missionary society was held in Princetown Church on Tuesday afternoon, March 8th, at two o'clock. A brief account of this meeting was published a few days ago, but it is believed that a society around which centres so much that is sacred and helpful deserve more than passing notice. For eighty-nine years this society has been in existence, but it is believed that the importance of its purposes and aims were never more fully realized than at this meeting. The devotional exercises were led by the Pastor, Rev. D. M. Grant and the special address was given by Rev. Dr. Saint of Kensington, who delivered a powerful address that could not fail to give impulses and inspiration in the hearts of those who listened. After a short talk with illustrations of Chinese characters that was particularly addressed to the younger members of the audience, but was very interesting to all. Dr. Saint took at the basis of his remarks the words of the following verse "The restless millions wait the Light, Whose coming maketh all things new." Christ also waits—but men are slow and late. Have we done what we could? Vave I? Have you?" The indifference of the church at home to supply what the restless millions are lacking, the need of a vision of the waiting millions and the waiting Christ was forcibly presented. The business of the society was conducted by the President, Rev. Mr. Grant, who after the reading of the minutes by the Secretary, Mr. John Simpson, submitted the annual report on behalf of the committee. The report opened with a short review of the history of the society since its organization in 1838. The two fold purpose of the society was given First—The dissemination of the scriptures, and second—the promotion of mission work among the heathen. It was clearly shown that without the agency of the Bible Society the work of Christian missions would be—if not altogether impossible—at all events very much more difficult. Secondly, it was shown that Christian missions is the greatest agency today employed in the reclaiming of the world for God. It is the missionaries who open the way for the circulations of Bibles—and thus for the Bible Society. The Officers were re-elected and the meeting was brought to a close by the singing "From Greenlands Icy Mountain".

The stock, farm implements, and some furniture belonging to Malcolm MacGougan, Malpeque, were sold by auction Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. It was one of the most largely attended sales ever held in this community and on the whole, good returns were realized. The auctioneer, was Mr. H. A. Morrison, Kensington. It is very regrettable to have our citizens who have filled such a large place in community life, leave us, but it is believed that Kensington will be materially benefited by the presence of Mr. and Mrs MacGougan, and Miss MacGougan. They leave this community attended by the good wishes of many friends.

Miss Margaret Casely, recently of Kensington, has moved to Malpeque, where she will be welcomed by many friends. It is hoped that this community and its interests may measure up to Miss Casely's expectations.

Mr. F. J. Lockerly left on Monday for a short visit to friends in Moncton.

Miss Minnie A. Wright, Summerside, is the guest of Miss Elina Stewart, Hamilton.

Miss Muriel MacNutt, left Malpeque on Monday for a visit with friends in Montreal.

Mrs. J. H. Woodside, Hamilton, left on Saturday morning for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Montgomery Owen, Toronto. (M).

The man who owns the lease of the shop however, will not part with his tenancy. People have even approached the lessee with attractive offers, but for some reason known only to himself, he will not surrender his lease.

His Trouble Started After A Bad Cold

Read What New Brunswick Man Says of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. D. Burs Suffered from Bright's Disease and Found Dodd's Kidney Pills Very Beneficial.

Upper Main River, N. B., March 14.—(Special)—"I have suffered from Bright's Disease for about six months," writes Mr. D. Burs, a resident of this place. "My trouble started from a cold after getting wet. My sleep was broken and I always felt tired and nervous. After taking six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I felt like a new man."

If you enquire among your neighbors will find scores of people who have discovered in Dodd's Kidney Pills relief from some form of kidney trouble. It may have been the dry, itching skin, dizziness, nervousness and inability to get refreshing sleep that mark the earlier stages of the disease ,or it may be dropsy, rheumatism or some other of the dangerous diseases that mark its advanced stages.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys so that they do their full work of straining all the impurities out of the blood.

Pure blood coursing through the body means new health all over the body.

Mystery Shop Of Art Treasures

(By British United Press.)

LONDON, March 14. —An art dealer's shop has stood in the busy market place of Strutton Ground, Westminister, padlocked and thick with dust for nearly five years. No purchaser has been inside it in that time, yet according to neighbouring shopkeepers, it is crammed with art treasures and tniques.

The shop front itself is stocked with antiques, including Chinese silk tapestries, Japanese bronzes and bric-a-brac.

The upper rooms, according to neighbors, are also filled with antiques and valuable paintings, but the place is left untenanted and unvisited for months at a time.

The shop occupies a valuable site in one of the busiest market places in the vicinity of Victoria

BABY CROSS ALL THE TIME

Eczema on Face and Body. Cuticura Heals.

"My baby's face and body were covered with eczema. It broke out in blisters and sore eruptions, and he could not sleep on account of the irritation. I had to keep mittens on his hands to keep him from scratching. He was cross all the time, and his clothing aggravated the breaking out.

"I used other remedies but they did not help him. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a few days I could see a change, and in about a month he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Katie Davidson, Flat Lake, Alta.

Prisoners Battle With Officers

CHICAGO, March 12. — Three of six desparate convicts under sentence to be hanged for murder were subdued in their cell at the county jail at Joliet early today after a battle of hours with officers, while three companions in a sensational prison break escaped to Chicago after they had wounded two policemen and a taxi driver.

Two of the three escaped convicts all of whom were Mexicans were captured here early today. Gregorio Rizo was probably fatally wounded in an exchange of shots with police. The other man taken was Roberto Torriz while police still were seeking a third member of the trio Bernardo Rox.

As they clattered through southside streets holding the prisoner, a Joliet guard they had brought with them, a police squad attempted to stop the machine and in an exchange of shots two patrolmen William Frost and George Grant, and the taxi driver John Marcinias, of Indiana harbor were wounded.

Policeman Never Has A Case

(By British United Press.)

LONDON, March 14. — Towns people who wander over the Essex border into Suffolk are mystified by occasional reference to "The Will-o'-the Wisp," but few who have not been to the little village of Nayland know the explanation.

The mysterious "Will o'-the-Wisp" is real flesh and blood, weighs 200 pounds is over six feet tall, and moreover is a police officer of the West Suffolk Constabulary. He is affectionately known to all local people as "Sergeant" and is often spoken of as "he policeman who never has a case."

Nayland is an old world village, many of the houses and cottages dating back to 1650. One house, indeed, overhanging the main street still preserves its quaint lattice windows and centuries old carved beams erected in the 17th. century.

A few yards away is the combined police station and house of the "Sergeant"—P. C. Pooley—and here he can be run to earth after a chase through three of the four villages that comprise his beat.

"No, we are not worried by criminals down here," he confides to visitors. "It is a very quiet life. The people of Suffolk are so honest that there is little for me to do, so little in fact that in three of my villages I have never had a case, while in the remaining one I have been troubled only by two people—one who stole some chickens and the other who tried to run with a cart.
