A passenger on the incoming express Thursday night, who had gone to sleep after leaving Summerside, arrived in this city still in the throes of morpheus. The direct incentive to the somnial state was an overdose of joy water, which was still evidenced on his awakening. It was with no small effort, that he was at last released from his sleep, in fact after several severe shakings, which failed to accomplish the desired result, he was carried off the train and shortly after came to his senses and was piloted out of the station by an official.

A very pretty wedding took place at half-past twelve on Wednesday in United Church, Rev Dr McVicar, officiating, when Miss Minnie Olding, youngest daughter of R. L. and Mrs Olding, New Glasgow, was married to John Peurnell Condon, manager of Fraser, Fraser & Co's Store, Sydney. The pulpit and platform of the Church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves. The bridal gown was of cream duchesse satin, with long tulle veil worn with lillies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and roses. Her gift from the groom was a handsome set of Mink furs. The bridesmaid, Miss Della Olding, was dressed in blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Her gift from the groom was a pearl ring. The groom was attended by Percy Bishop, Sydney, his gift from the groom being a pearl stick pin. After the ceremony, there was a large reception held at the residence of the bride's parents on Forbes Street, the bride receiving in the drawing room, and over one hundred guests being present. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs Collings, Charlottetown; Mrs Ben Rogers, Charlottetown; Miss Gillespie, Charlottetown, Miss Ferguson, Charlottetown.

Although the weather was so unfavorable the Bijou opened in the Lyceum last evening with a good attendance. The moving pictures were clear and steady and the subjects sufficiently interspersed with fun to make the program interesting throughout. Mr Streeter, who sang the illustrated song, has a magnificent voice of splendid range and filled the hall with sweet music, having to respond to several encores.

This week has been a grand one for the fishermen of the North Shore. The cod are being caught in quantities never before handled in these fishing grounds. Boats are going out and returning laden to the gunwales with these denizens of the sea. The fishermen are working day and night and the catch will prove to be a renumerative one for the followers of the sea on the North Shore of the Province.

An estimable lady in the western part of Queen's County has awarded a "first prize real old fashioned leather medal" to a gentleman of this city for being an expert on obtaining information of a decidedly pleasant nature. He however feels that his record in the past does not entitle him to such high honors, but has resolved that during the future of his existence he will do all in his power to merit the exceptional kindness shown him.

The Dominion Atlantic Railway change their timetable in October 18th, the express will leave Halifax daily at 7. 35, for Digby and Yarmouth. Trains for Truro leave Windsor at 6.05 a. m. 7.30 a. m. and 5.35 p. m. and leave Truro for Windsor at 6.50 a. m., 12 noon, and 3.20 p. m. The S. S. Boston leaves Yarmouth for Boston, Wednesdays and Saturdays on arrival of express from Halifax and returning, leaves Boston on Tuesdays and Fridays. The sailings of the steamer Prince Albert are not affected by the changes.

The schooner Henry Nickerson has had a rather exciting time since leaving here Thursday morning. At that time a heavy North west gale was blowing and when the mouth of the harbor was passed the breeze was noticed to be straining the mainmast. Shortly after, and just as they were off Governor's Island, the mast broke and the anchors were dropped. This was alright for a short time but through the night the cables parted and the schooner drifted towards Pownal Bay, going ashore on the Cherry Valley Sandbar, about half a mile from the Pownal wharf. The vessel was floated later and moored to Pownal wharf.
