Weekly Market Report

SUMMARY

Opening of the United States market to Canadian cattle effective Monday, August 16, brought sharp early price advances of $4 to $6 or more but the market settled back during the week to final gains of about $2 to $4. Buyers, both American and Canadian, were feeling their way in early trading and markets as a rule were erratic, with definite price levels hard to determine during this jockeying period. Later transactions, however, settled down to a more solid basis, as mentioned above. Feeder cattle advanced in the general advance, apparently reflecting buyers' confidence in the future. Calf prices were affected by the embargo removal, moved up as much as $3 to $5. Shipments of cattle and calves to the south were not particularly heavy but were rather a reflection of the average movement at this time in previous years. Eastern hog prices made some gains and sheep and lambs were little changed.

Eastern Cattle Markets

Cattle prices were unevenly $6 to $6 higher at Toronto, with the latest advance shown early, but the level finally settled toward the close at $2 to $4 above the previous week. A top load of heavy steers moved south at $30 and other sold from $27.50 downward, with butcher steers $18 to $25. Trading at Montreal was slow in getting under way but finally gains of $4 to $6 were recorded, with good steers making $25 to $27.50, and a few $29, and good cows up to $20.60. In the Maritimes, butcher cattle were not being quoted at the moment but good cows were priced at $13.50 to $14.

Western Cattle Markets

After an erratic opening on most western markets, cattle prices established all-time records and Winnipeg reported advances of $5 to $7 on Monday. Later trade steers reaching $30. Later trade was less active and numerous sales were $1 to $3 below the opening high but $3 to $4 over the previous week. Killing steers generally finished at $16 to $23, with no real choice on offer but a few of the better kinds making $25 to $27. Conditions were more or less parallel at other western points and Calgary had the best of the steer offering at $20 to $27; Edmonton up to $24 but mostly $22 or $23; Prince Albert $21 to $23; Moose Jaw $24, Saskatoon up to $26; and Regina $26 at the close. Regina $25.50.

Exports to United States

Exports of slaughter and feeding to the United States during the week totalled 2,853 head and the grand total for the week, including pure bred and dairy grade females for milking purposes was 6,002 head. This places total exports for the year to date at 71,208 as against 31,124 in the same period last year. This week's calf exports amounted to 1,926, hogs 101 pure bred, and sheep and lambs 328 head, mostly for slaughter.

Sharp Advance in Calf Prices

Calf prices were affected by the removal of export restrictions, and prices moved up from $4 to $6. Toronto reached $27 to $28 for best veals, Montreal $25 to $26 or better, Winnipeg an early $27, but later $25. Calgary $24 with a few $25. Edmonton $22 to $23 and $24. Prince Albert $22, Moose Jaw $24, Saskatoon $22 after an early high of $26. Regina $23 to $24, and Moncton $23.

Eastern Hogs Higher

Toronto and Montreal hog prices advanced 50c, Toronto selling at $34.50 and Montreal at $34.50. The latter was up on Tuesday at $33 and Charlottetown $31.80, the latter $30.50. There was no change at $30.50, but Calgary advanced sharply to $31.60 to $32.50 and Edmonton was firmer with Grade A for shipment at $31.50, Prince Albert $30.50, Regina and Saskatoon $30.50, and Moncton $30.50. The above prices do not include the Dominion Government premium of $2 per head on Grade A and $1 per head on Grade B.

FARRELL - MacDONALD NUPITALS

A pretty July wedding took place in St. Paul's Church, Sturgeson, when Rev. Fr. Mulhally united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mary Winnifred, daughter of the late Henry Farrell and Mrs. Farrell, and Gerald Isidore, son of the late Benjamin B. and Mrs. MacDonald of Vernon River.

The bride was becomingly attired in a floor-length gown of white satin with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and ruffled skirt. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of English Tea Roses. Her only ornament was a double string of pearls with matching earrings.

She was attended by Miss Marion MacDonald, sister of the groom, who wore a floor-length gown of pink nylon over taffeta with matching headpiece and mitts. She carried a bouquet of Peonies roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Richard Hogan.

During the ceremony appropriate music was rendered by the ladies' choir. After receiving the congratulations of the many friends and relatives assembled at the church, the bridal party left amid showers of confetti by car to the home of the bride's uncle, James Farrell, where breakfast was served in a tastefully decorated dining room. The table was decorated with snapdragons and was centred with a three-tier wedding cake.

Later the young couple left by plane on a honeymoon trip for Moncton. For travelling the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories.

On their return they were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. George MacIntyre where many useful gifts were received.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered showers in Charlottetown and Sturgeon. The young couple will reside in North River.

WOLFVILLE, Aug. 27—St. Francis d'Assisi Church, Wolfville, N.S., was the scene of a very pretty Summer wedding Tuesday, Aug. 24, when Frances Winnifred MacAulay, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen MacAulay of Sohier, P.E.I., became the bride of George Edward Kenny, son of Mrs. C. D. Kenny and the late Captain Kenny of Wolfville, N.S. The double ring marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Durney at the 9 o'clock Nuptial Mass.

Given in marriage by William J. Kenny, brother-in-law of the bride, the bride presented a charming picture in her floor-length gown of white Duchesse satin with neckline of nylon net. The yoke was edged with iridescent white net, this iridescent net being repeated in a panel on the waist to the hem-line of the dress. Her Cathedral length veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and carnations with maidenhair fern.

As her sister, maid-of-honour, Miss Isobel F. MacAulay wore a floor-length gown of taffeta in a deep pink shade. Her chapel veil was held in place by a wreath of pink velvet buds and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. "Owing as bridesmaid was Miss Muriel M. Kenny, sister of the groom and she was gowned in a floor-length dress of nylon sheer in a heaven blue shade. Her blue net chapel veil was bordered with forget-me-nots and her nosegay was composed of yellow gladioli and white carnations. Both attendants wore mits matching their ensembles. Miss Helen Balch was organist at the wedding and at Communion sang the beautiful hymn, "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

James L. Kenny, brother of the groom, was best man and the groom's brothers, Cecil D. Kenny of Wolfville and Bernard J. Kenny of Charlottetown, ushered at the Church. The altar was decorated with white gladioli, marigolds, zinnias and mixed sweet peas.

A reception for about 50 guests was held later at the Paramount Hotel with a decorated two-tier wedding cake flanked with four tapers in silver holders and backed on all sides by variegated sweet peas and fern. Proposing the toast to the bride and groom was Eric Easton, Wolfville.

Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. C. D. Kenny, mother of the groom who wore a two-piece lime green suit, a black picture hat, black accessories and a corsage of pink and white sweet peas, and Mrs. William J. Kenny,
