IN MEMORIAM

MR. THOMAS O'BRIEN.

Death is sad under any circumstances but particularly so when it summons from earth the head of a home, such as was the case when it claimed as its own, Thomas O'Brien of Fort Augustus, who died a most edifying death. All that medical skill and kind aid could do was done for his recovery, but the finger of God was there and it proved of no avail. His wife, (nee Margaret Trainor) predeceased him one week before. There are left to mourn two brothers, James and Mikel, one sister, also the following nephews Patrick O'Brien, of Seattle, Wash., the Reverend Father O'Brien, of Seattle, Wash., two nieces, Mrs. Susan Cunningham, Bellingham, Wash.; Mrs. Ernest Door, Seattle, James Hughes, Thomas Hughes, Dover, N. H. The funeral which was largely attended took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery, Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. The following were the pall-bearers: James McKenna, James Hughes, James Dalton, Charles Kelly, Joe Kelly, and Christopher Bradley.

used for the simple frock shown above. The sailor collar, the sleeves and the hem are banded with old blue challis, and two narrow strips of old blue appear at the slit for the tie.
Challis in dark colors makes smart school frocks to be worn in the early fall. It also comes in dark grounds with gay flower design, or colorful dots.

—SHOP from Holman's Catalogue. —FOR LATE WESTERN NEWS (Page 3 is available).

—RESUMES POSITION.—Mr. John Gallant has resumed his position as sales manager with Messrs. Turners, Ltd. O'Leary. His unfailing courtesy and efficiency is always appreciated by shoppers in O'Leary who are all glad to see "Jack" again behind counter.

—GUARDIAN WESTERN OFFICE.—The Guardian's Western representative has an office on Water Street, Summerside, next to Laurence Gallant's Tailor Shop (and directly opposite the Gallant Crockett block)—his phone number is 233. He will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, verifying.

—BROKE WINDOW.—Early Saturday morning, after closing time someone threw a stone through the plate glass window of the Royal (Chinese) Cafe. It was an unusually quiet night on Water Street and the police are at a loss to know who did it unless it was someone passing through in an auto.

—IMPROVED.—His many friends will be delighted to learn that Mr. Elmer Dunning, Charlottetown who is ill in the hospital in New Glasgow with Diphtheria is greatly improved. He had only a mild form of Diphtheria and expects to be out again today or tomorrow. Mrs. Dunning is at present visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Summerside.

—MANY PASSENGERS.—Quite a number of passengers left Summerside Saturday morning on the early train. Miss Fannie Getson, for some time in the employ of Sinclair and Stewart, Ltd., Summerside, left Saturday morning for Boston where she will reside. Mr. Chester Holland, who has been a valuable salesman with Messrs. R. T. Holman, Ltd., Summerside, also left Saturday morning for Boston to locate there. Mr. Edward Strong Summerside, left Saturday on a visit to Boston. Mr. Kler McGougan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McGougan, Summerside, left for College, Ont. to attend college. Mrs. McGougan also left Saturday morning for Toronto. Messrs. G. P. Walker and Wallace Baker of R. T. Holman's, Ltd., left Saturday morning to attend the Toronto Exhibition. Mr. and Mrs. C. Sharbell, Portage, have left on a trip to Boston.

—SALE OF PELTS.—Mr. E. H. Rayner returned Wednesday night from Montreal where he went for a conference with representatives of his agents in Europe and the United States, and states that he has completed contracts for the private sale of silver fox pelts in the following European cities: Leipzig, Berlin, Vienna, Milan, Paris, London, Brussels, The Hague, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Bergen, Lucerne and this his agents in those cities have agreed with him not to buy for resale or to take on consignment from any source any silver fox pelts for sale except those supplied by Mr. Rayner from his Canadian shippers. Mr. Rayner says he has also completed arrangements in New York, Chicago, San Francisco and other American cities covered from those centres for the sale of silver fox pelts consigned by American ranchers. Mr. Rayner further claims that he is concentrating his efforts on the stabilizing of the silver fox markets of the world by offering fox pelts direct from ranchers to manufacturers and retailers, and feeding the market as the pelts are required rather than having them dumped in the market in two big sales. The Canadian field, according to Mr. Rayner, is not being neglected either, and that before the pelt season opens he will have selling agencies established in the principal Canadian fur centres from Montreal to Vancouver. Mr. Rayner hopes that those interested in the successful marketing of silver fox pelts will approve of his enterprise, and he especially expects a large measure of support from fox ranchers in his native province.

—VALUABLE HORSE.—On Tuesday evening Mr. Phillip McNally, Summerside, lost a valuable horse as a result of a runaway. The horse was in a team with another horse and becoming frightened started to run and in an endeavor to go over a fence to get home or to go over a fence to get home broke his leg. The family was much attached to the animal which was in fact a "pet" for the whole community, and when a veterinary arrived and said the animal had to be shot they felt real sorry to lose their much loved quadruped. While the doctor was being conveyed and until a man arrived to shoot the horse (none of the family having the heart to do away with him) which was over an hour two of the boys held the horse's foot off the ground to ease his pain. Such humane treatment to a dumb animal is to be commended and if the practice were general there would be no need for a society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

—LARGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of Miss Elfrida Arsenault, victim of a drowning accident at Egmont Bay, was very largely attended, many coming from Charlottetown, Summerside and surrounding districts to pay their last respects to one who had endeared herself in the hearts of all who knew her. The little victim was sixteen years of age and her sudden demise at so early an age has cast a gloom over the whole community, where she was a general favorite. Requiem High Mass was sung in Egmont Bay church by Rev. Fr. Gallant and interment took place in Egmont Bay Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Angus Arsenault, Alvre Gaudet, Wm. Darby, Thos. McNally, Cyrus Gallant and Alcide Gallant. Besides the sorrowing parents, there are left to mourn four sisters, Louisa of Jersey City, N. J., Irene of St. John, N. B., Jacqueline of Moncton, N. B., and Aldine at home; and three brothers, Ulric and Edward of Ft. McMurray, Alberta and Alvre of Moncton, N. B.

—PERSONALS—Miss Louise Arsenault of Jersey City Hospital, Jersey City, N. J., arrived home last Wednesday evening to attend the funeral of her sister, Elfrida, which was held Thursday morning.
—Miss Irene Arsenault of St. John, N. B., Miss Jacqueline Arsenault of Moncton, N. B., arrived in Wellington Tuesday evening, called home by the sudden death of their sister Elfrida, who was drowned while bathing on Monday evening last.

—EASTERN AGENT.—Mr. J. W. Murdock is now Guardian agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, job printing, news and renewal subscriptions.

—VISIT SHORTENED BY ILLNESS.—Mr. Horatio Nelson who was on his annual visit to his former home in Montague, was forced to leave on return to Boston, much earlier than he expected, owing to the serious illness of his son Ham, who we regret to learn is not recovering from the severe shock, with which he was stricken some time ago. Mr. Nelson delights to spend the summer amid the scenes of an average life time, renewing old acquaintances and enjoying once again the pleasant companionship of his sons and daughters who are all very respected residents of Montague. —J.

—PERMANENT RESIDENTS.—Dr. J. A. LaCoursiere who opened up a dental office in Montague some two months ago must have found business entirely satisfactory as only a few days ago Mrs. LaCoursiere and children arrived in the town, and in future the LaCoursiere family will be looked upon as permanent residents of this locality. Owing to the scarcity of suitable houses the doctor was forced to rent the splendid dwelling situated near the railway and about a mile from the town. The walk back and forth however will give the Doctor the exercise greatly needed for a man of his profession. Since coming to Montague Dr. LaCoursiere has made for himself a host of friends, in fact he has proven only too clearly that he lacks none of the essentials of the born gentleman. We are proud to have Dr. and Mrs. LaCoursiere and children in our midst, and feel safe in predicting that Montague and vicinity will be benefited by their coming. —J.

Important 'Ifs'

IF an hour's reading makes your eyes ache, if the printed page occasionally "gives mist," if you are obliged to stop work periodically to rest your eyes for a few moments, if you find it easier to read closer or further away than the normal twelve or fourteen inches, if you cannot see people across the street, if you cannot read street names easily or distinguish the time by public clocks, if you have to make an effort to see—kneading the brows or frowning, if vivid light gives you pain in the eyes, or if you require more light than hitherto, if your eyes ache, water, or become inflamed by use.

IF you have any of the above difficulties, let us make an examination of your eyes so that you may learn definitely whether glasses have become necessary to your comfort and well-being.
