S'ide C.W.L. Holds January Meeting

The January meeting of the Summerside Sub-Division of the Catholic Women's League was held in the K. of C. Home on Wednesday, January 7th.

The meeting opened with the League prayer, followed by the roll call of members. Correspondence included letters of thanks from the orphanage, Sisters of the Precious Blood, and St. Mary's Academy for donations sent them at Christmas.

The League gratefully acknowledges a donation of twenty dollars received by the members during the serving of the members reported that a number of hampers of food had been packed and distributed to needy families at Christmas.

A motion was passed at this meeting that a letter of congratulation be sent to Dr. and Mrs. W. J. F. McMillan on the great honor recently conferred upon him by Pope Pius XII.

The dental clinic report was read at this meeting and very favorably received by the members being unanimous in their approval of the good work accomplished.

A very successful and enjoyable Ladies Night was held by the Ladies' Association of St. John's and St. Mary's Anglican Churches in St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, on Friday evening.

Mr. E. E. Parkman, president of the Association, presided, and in his opening remarks welcomed the guests and explained the aims of the Association.

A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Emery Lyle, which was seconded by Mrs. James Connel, and in his opening remarks welcomed the guests and explained the aims of the Association.

A large group of parents and visitors gathered at Dromore School on Monday afternoon Dec. 22nd, to watch the delightful program presented by the pupils under the skilful direction of their teacher Miss Mary McLeod.

The school room was nicely decorated for the festive season with the original colors of red and green.

Although the pupils were all very young, they did their utmost to entertain the visitors assembled, and Mr. Thomas O'Brien very capably acted as chairman and the following program was presented.

The Welcome, Eleanor Hughes. The Chorus, Jingle Bells — The School. Recitation, His Letter — Erle McQuirk.

Dialogue, The Mock Wedding — Ivan, Gordon, Betty, Eleanor, Martin, Mary. Song, My Texas Blue Bonnet Queen — Gladys McQuirk (encored).

Drill, Some Very Famous People — 9 pupils. Dialogue, Deaf as a Post — Gladys Alvin, Mary. Recitation, Lookin' The Future — Gordon McQuirk, Gladys Hughes. Chorus, Here Comes Santa Claus — The school.

Drill, Christmas — 9 Pupils. Dialogue, Gain' Snewhere — Martin Corrigan, Gladys McQuirk. Mary Corrigan, Mollies Little Lamb — Mary Corrigan. Song, Fighting North Nova's — The teacher (encored).

Dialogue, The Ministers Mistake — Martin, Mary, Betty. Recitation, Vacation Time — Gladys McQuirk. Drill, Upside Down — 5 Pupils. Recitation, The closing — Gladys Hughes.

Having completed the program, Old Santa Claus in his usual Christmas attire, arrived in person amid much fun and laughter, distributed the many gifts from a well laden tree which was beautifully decorated by the teacher and pupils. This all being accomplished, the visitors departed wishing one and all the merriest Christmas ever.
