More Disturbing Factors In Near East Situation

All Now Hinges on Attitude of Turks. Greeks Refuse to Evacuate Thrace. The Turks are Concentrating for Advance on Constantinople British Watchfully Waiting and Prepared.

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Near East situation continued to present disturbing possibilities today with the revolutionary Greek army at Adrianople, declaring it would not retreat and with victorious Turkish army concentrating at Brusel and Ismid, anxious to reach Constantinople. The British Cabinet met this afternoon to watch the proceedings at Mudania where the armistice conference was being resumed under the fresh instructions by which the Allies present a united front to the Turks on the immediate military stipulations.

While the British are using the utmost patience in the effort to conclude peace, it is believed the Greeks and French have been warned that if a settlement is not reached the British will abandon the whole peace effort. At the same time the belief is that General Harrington has orders not to risk any act of war. As to the peace terms, the attitude of the cabinet may be expressed as one of extreme caution towards engaging in any promises until the conclusion of the Mudania conference.

Turks Renew Advance.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 9.—The Turkish Nationalist troops yesterday resumed their advance in the Dardanelles area in the direction of Chanak, according to Mudania despatch to the local newspapers.

Allies Confer With Greeks.

MUDANIA, Oct. 9.—The Allied Generals here for attendance upon the armistice conference spent this morning conferring with the Greek delegates. The conference with Ismet Pasha, the Turkish Nationalists' representative was scheduled to be resumed at 3 o'clock this afternoon. General Harrington, the British Commander-in-Chief, received in writing an assurance from Ismet Pasha that there would be no further advance of the Nationalist troops in the neutral zone.

Turks Withdrawn from Ismid.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 9.—Turkish forces today withdrew from Ismid in the neutral zone, it was announced here.

Greek Cabinet Decide to Surrender Thrace

ATHENS, Oct. 9.—The cabinet in a midnight session following a report received from M. Venizelos in London, has decided to surrender Eastern Thrace if the powers are unanimous in their demand. However, delay to permit full evacuation of its troops and Greek inhabitants. Athens receives the news with calm resignation.

Football Player Dies of Injury in a Montreal Game

(Special to The Guardian.)
MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—Allan Arless, well known local athlete, died at the General Hospital here today as a result of a broken neck sustained in a football game played here yesterday afternoon. Arless was conscious after the accident until 5.30 this evening.

The accident occurred at the beginning of the game after Arless had only just come into play as a sub-quarter back, for Frank McGill. He called for a fake back and led the attack attempting to go through the right wing while the ball went to the left. He was blocked and thrown heavily with several on top of him.

Arless was twenty-six years old and had seen overseas service with the 78th Battery.

Toronto Fire Companies Lose $3,000,000 in Ontario Fire

(Special to The Guardian.)
TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 9.—The losses of fire insurance companies with offices in Toronto on account of the fire in the north amount to about $3,000,000, J. B. Laidlaw, of the Norwich Union, says that from the rapidity with which the fire spread it would appear to have been more in the nature of a prairie than of a brush fire. He blames the use of wooden shingles as being in large measure contributory to the spread of flames and thinks their use ought to be prohibited in such districts.

Civic Affairs Discussed At Council Meeting

Satisfactory Financial Outlook for the Year, Reports Coun. Moran, Street Work and Other Matters Discussed. Milk By-Law Amendment to Come Into Force Nov. 1st.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last night with His Worship Mayor Jenkins in the chair and all the Councilors present.

After the passing of the usual bills a communication was read from the trustees of the estate of the late Owen Connolly in regard to a piece of property claimed by the estate, which has been used by the city as a highway connecting Douglas Street with Valley Street. A letter from the City Surveyor with reference to the work done on this property by the city was also read and both communications were on motion ordered to be handed to the Recorder for his written opinion.

An application from J. F. L. McCabe, attendant at Falconwood Hospital, for a position on the Police Force was read and placed on file.

The report of the Meat and Milk Inspector was received. The tests for the month showed all the milk to be "clear" and of a satisfactory percentage of butterfat.

Coun. Moran, chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the receipts up to the present have been very satisfactory and the outlook for the year very good. He pointed out however, that the street expenditure would be over the appropriation ($14,500). It appears that these estimates have exceeded by about $1,000 and this amount must be made up in some other way.

Unfortunately the estimates in this department will have to be exceeded, said Coun. Rattray, chairman of the Street Committee. He believed however, that with an additional $500 work could be carried out all right. The committee is endeavoring in every way to keep expenditures down but a great many calls have been made from the different wards and much of the work has been very pressing. Referring to needed improvements yet to be made he called attention to the necessity of a drain on both the north and south sides of Hillsboro Square where there is a great flow of water in bad weather, and where hitherto no adequate provision has been made. The permanent street work now completed for the year, has been extensive and over two miles of sidewalk have been laid, costing $12,313.84, averaging 1.06 cents per lineal foot, or $2 and some odd cents per square yard. The asphalt streets cost this year about $2.85 per square yard, which is slightly less than last year despite eight percent increase in the cost of labor. The total cost of asphalt this year has been $27,043.94.

Coun. Rattray referred also to the necessity of doing something with Spring Park Road this year. It really needs to be built up and if the job is to be permanent it must be drained, as there is no drainage from Euston Street down for two or three blocks. Longworth Avenue has been put into better shape this year but this work also will need to be made permanent.

"The sooner we get to work at this traffic question seriously on our main thoroughfares the better," he said. "With our present heavy motor traffic we must put something permanent down. Longworth Avenue for instance is the outlet for about half a dozen roads and patching it up from time to time is not good enough. The local government is having trouble with their roads in the same way—they have spent a lot of money on them and they are being all cut away again."

Coun. Smith reported that some repairs in the Market Building

Grand Organ Recital Draws Large Audience

A Splendid Musical Treat Last Night at the Baptist Church. Organ, Vocal and Violin Solos Combined to Make a Program of Unusual Excellence.

Before a large audience at the Baptist Church last evening the Grand Organ Recital by Prof. Hiram Ball, assisted by Miss Edith Rafuse, Mrs. H. S. Henderson and Miss Bernice Stultz, advertised for the past few days in the press, and elicited very enthusiastic applause. This is the first recital by Prof. Ball since his arrival here as organist for the Baptist Church and music lovers have been looking forward with great pleasure to last night's performance.

The concert opened with Mendelssohn's magnificent organ solo, Sonata in F. Minor, Op. 65, No. 1, comprising four movements opening in slow and dignified cadence, ending in rapid flights of arpeggios with bold harmonies and creating a striking and brilliant effect. Other organ solos played during the evening were Guilman's "March Funere and Hymn of Seraphs," Guilman's "Pastor-

Burglar Shot While Entering Factory

(Special to The Guardian.)
MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—No criminal responsibility was the verdict of the coroners jury at the inquest this morning on the death of W. Jankowitch, aged 19 who was shot in the right side by Arthur LeClair, night watchman of the Standard Shirt Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 211, 219 Leclerc Avenue at 230 yesterday morning and who died as he was trying to escape from the factory into which he had forced an entrance.

LeClair fired two shots, the first of which hit and broke a pair of scissors in the burglar's right trouser pocket. The second entered the lungs under the right arm. In the victim's pockets were found a collar that had been made in the factory the previous afternoon, and two screwdrivers that had been missing from the factory for a month. There was also a letter written by a reformatory school inmate with no address on it, a longshoreman's union book with the name of Romeo Gareau, 10 Constant Street.

Ten Thousand Dollar Fire at Onslow

(Special to The Guardian.)
TRURO, N. S., Oct. 9.—Shortly before eight o'clock this evening flames were seen by a passing automobilist coming from the basement of the large barn adjoining the former residence of Charles Hill, Onslow, occupied by his son George, who operated the dairy and farm in much the same manner as his father, previous to the latter's removal to Truro. A telephone message was immediately sent to town and Mr. George Hill notified at the Presbyterian Church. A number of neighbors gathered, and by energetic work had the live stock taken from the barn and outbuildings, also the larger part of the farm machinery, implements and dairy apparatus. The hay, grain and roots remained. The barn burned down also all other outbuildings and some of the dwelling house.

Truro firemen and many other citizens went to the scene of the blaze but could do nothing to prevent the barn from destruction. When the firemen arrived they found some frenzied persons had smashed at the front windows of the dwelling and were removing the furniture. A promise from the Fire Chief that if the house was likely to be seriously endangered he would have the Lafrance chemical brought out. There was no need for it as the horse drawn chemical and bucket brigade prevented any damage. The loss to Mr. George Hill will be very heavy as the barn was one of the largest in Colchester County and contained the winter's supply of feed and the dairy cattle, horses and stall feed for bees. There is an unestimated amount of insurance on the barn, outbuildings, contents and dwelling. The loss about $10,000.

A GLACE BAY MINER KILLED IN COLLIERY

GLACE BAY, Oct. 9.—Joseph Hest, aged 22, was killed yesterday in Number 24 colliery, when he was struck by a runaway box. The deceased was only married a short time ago. This is the first fatal accident that has occurred at Number 24 since the mine began working two years ago.

115 CONVENT GIRLS JUMPED INTO LAKE

HALLESBURY, Oct. 9.—One hundred and fifteen girls between the ages of four and sixteen jumped into the lake at Hallsbury to escape the flames. They were under the charge of the sisters of the Assumption who are proud that they brought all their pupils safely through the disaster. Now the walls of the convent are all that are left standing, and the girls are being sent away to their homes.

Success Comes Only to Those Who Work Earnestly

Candidates Who Depend on Luck Will Lose—Resolution Backed by Action Will Win—$100 Special Prize Period Ends Saturday Night—Second Period Also Ends This Week—Boost for Your Favorite.

Do you think other candidates can get subscriptions easier than you?

That's what the unsuccessful man or woman in any line of endeavor in the world.

Look into the history of any man who ever did anything that makes him stand out from the rest of humanity.

You may say he had money, opportunity, friends at court, good luck, was born with brains, or had a chance.

After you've taken stock of all these things, which appear on the surface, look at the man.

You'll find the lines of work in his face.

No amount of money ever made any man great; the finest opportunity never made any man famous; the most favorable environment never produced genius of a master of men.

If those things were true there would be only two kinds of people in the world—a class of mental aristocrats with all the money and brains, and the rest of the world full of cattle.

We would have a race of supermen and a race of slaves.

But you'll find that the majority of the supermen come from the classes sometimes called "lowers" which only means poorer.

Break away from the field; get the votes and get the most of them and you'll win.

The first thing to do is to tell yourself you can do it, and you are already a winner. You can't lose if you can convince yourself that you can win.

There is only five days of the Special $100 Cash Prize period left; five more days of the second period left and the end of the competition is but little more than four weeks away.

Irish Parliament Passed Oath Clause

(Special to The Guardian.)
DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—Parliament has passed by a large majority the clause in the new Irish Constitution containing the Oath of Allegiance.

In moving the article of the Treaty containing the form of oath, Kevin O'Higgins, Minister of Home Affairs, said it was not a particularly pleasant task to recommend that particular article to the Irish Assembly, but as they believed that tampering with this, and certain other articles would mean the throwing away of the harvest of the present struggle, they were not prepared to allow Mr. O'Higgins said he could not admit the suggestions appearing in the press which stated that the oath was optional. No British or Irish signatory would admit that the oath, which gave so much trouble and concern in the last stage of the negotiations, was not to be taken by all the members of parliament present.

Mr. O'Higgins, in taking the seat at Oath, announced: Gavan O'Duffy, former Foreign Minister moved an amendment modifying the oath in such a manner as his sponsor claimed would not drive anti-Treaty parties and Laborers (and direct action) from the Labor group sought to add a new paragraph in which the swearer would undertake to act in matters concerning the Free State only on advice of the Executive. Both amendments were defeated. Mr. O'Higgins, supporting the government's position, pointed out that Republicans who sat at Westminster took the full oath of allegiance as did Republicans who sat in the Parliament of South Africa and every other country.

Clause 17 which contained the oath was then voted and agreed upon without a division.

The oath reads: "I do solemnly swear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the Irish Free State as by law established, and that I will be faithful to His Majesty King George V, his heirs and successors by law in virtue of the common law of Ireland and her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and her heirs in the group of nations forming the British Commonwealth of Nations."

Shippers Will Test American Prohibition

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, Oct. 9.—Seven ships of the Cunard and White Star lines are to sail for America this week, fully stocked with liquor to test the Daugherty order prohibiting ships from entering American ports with booze on board.

N. S. Having its Share of Hunting Fatalities

(Special to The Guardian.)
BRIDGE TOWN, N. S., Oct. 9.—James H. Munro, 35, of Rosebury, near here was accidentally shot and killed while amassing hunting Saturday. He was struck by a bullet from the gun of two companions who fired simultaneously at a moose.

COMMITTEE ASKED TO SELECT DELEGATES TO GENERAL COUNCIL

So far as the Methodist Church of Canada is concerned, Church Union is no longer a debatable issue. It is a question settled once and for all, and now awaiting ratification by the Presbyterian and Congregational Churches. Yesterday afternoon, without a single dissenting vote, the Methodist General Conference approved the draft Act of Incorporation of the United Church of Canada, and directed that the necessary steps be taken to select the 150 Methodists who shall represent that body on the first General Council of the proposed United Church of Canada.

GOOD NEWS COMES OF HON. MR. KENNEDY

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—Members of the Government were delighted today by the receipt of news from Montreal to the effect that the condition of Hon. W.C. Kennedy, Minister of Railways and Canals, had shown a substantial improvement. It is known that a few days ago the physicians in attendance here were not very hopeful. They admitted that surgery had done all that it remained for the organs affected to bring about an improvement. That improvement, it is stated, has been effected and Mr. Kennedy is now practically assured of a steady recovery.

also from 1st Sonata"; Grieg's "Death of Asne"; Thomas' "Gavotte from Mignon"; and, in conclusion, Rossini's overtures from "William Tell." This latter masterpiece was particularly appreciated by the audience and in each of his solos Prof. Ball played with exquisite sympathy and effect.

Vocal solos by Mrs. H. S. Henderson, contralto, comprising Handel's "Father of Heaven" and Tosti's "Good Bye" were rendered splendidly and received warm applause.

Miss Edith Rafuse sang with a fine soprano voice the solo "The Better Land" (Grove) and was also warmly applauded.

A feature of the programme much appreciated was the violin solos by Miss Bernice Stultz. These comprised "On Wings of Song" (Aehron/Mendelssohn) "Romance" (Wieniawski) and "Spanish Dance" (Bach).

The entertainment throughout will be remembered with pleasure by those present and another recital will be looked forward to.

Now is the time to work. The time to act is NOW. Work hard while the competition is running, win a good prize and you will have something which will last a life time.

You don't have to do much—just do a little more than your competitors.

Don't hang back. You can't afford to do that with so much at stake.

Did you ever work with such an object in view before?

What could you do in the next few weeks that would bring you a bigger return for your efforts?

You can win if you want to—you know that you can.

Go right out and get subscriptions. One thing is certain in this competition; that is, the hardest workers are going to win.

And when it comes to making brains work with some of the contestants have very good schemes.

COMPETITION WORK IS LEGITIMATE

It is a perfectly legitimate business and many men and women make a living soliciting subscriptions.

It isn't as if you were asking people to buy pictures or books or something for which they have little use. A daily paper is a necessity. And in buying a newspaper everybody should have the best just as they demand the best clothes or the best groceries or the best kind of coal.

Everybody knows The Guardian is the best paper and that's why you need not feel a bit timid in asking for The Guardian subscriptions.

The Guardian speaks for itself—all you have to do is look after your own interests and get the votes.
