Toronto Mayor Is Re-elected

TORONTO, Jan. 1.—(CP)—Mayor Ralph C. Day was re-elected today after one of the closest races in the history of Toronto municipal elections, defeating Lewis H. C. Duncan, K. C., by a majority of approximately 5,500.

Backed by the city's three daily newspapers Day was hard-pressed all through tonight's returns by the story with such charm that she made herself a whirlwind new comedy team.

Although Herbert, as the worried baby editor, had a role which suited his talents perfectly, baby Sandy gurgled and cooed her way through the story with such charm that she made herself a whirlwind new comedy team.

New Year's A Work Day For First Division

By Gills Purcell
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YEAR'S DAY was not a holiday for the First Canadian Division. It was a day of work for the officers from Major-General A. G. L. McNaughton, general officer commanding, who toured the camp to greet incoming Canadian units.

FUNERAL AT YORK SUNDAY—The funeral of the late Harold S. Vessey was held from 10 to 11 o'clock at York on Sunday afternoon. Following a short service at the home the funeral services were held in York United Church, conducted by the Rev. J. A. Nicholson, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Mabon, Interment York Cemetery.

ST. JAMES CHURCH—Services in St. James Presbyterian Church on Sunday were conducted by the Rev. J. A. Nicholson, Moderator. Words of encouragement on opening the new year were found in Christian teaching. The Rev. J. A. Nicholson, Moderator, said that the principles of the teaching of Jesus would act as a guide to the future conduct and if followed faithfully would bring us to the Kingdom of Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever was the text of the evening. We are living in an unstable world, where the winds of change are blowing and we have to cling to what we have. In such times we have recourse to the teachings of the Son of God, who we have believed in, who can and will help our adjustment and restore our peace.

TEMPERATURE DROPS TO ZERO

On Sunday night the temperature reached the lowest mark of the season when the thermometer reached the zero mark, accompanied by a very heavy white frost. Mr. Warren, meteorologist at the Experimental Station stated last night. Yesterday the temperature remained stationary at the zero mark, with a day with a drop being recorded as night settled in. 12 inches of snow fell from Saturday at noon to yesterday evening. It was also stated.

Bomb Hurlled In Londonderry; Slight Damage

LONDONDERRY, Northern Ireland, Jan. 1.—(CP)—A bomb hurled through a window of the central fire station caused slight damage late today.

Officials said they believed the bomb was thrown in reprisal for the firemen's use of a hose to quell Irish Republican Army prisoners during a Christmas Day jail disturbance.

The bomb was thrown during the blackout. Ten windup lamps were shattered by the blast and the ceiling of the fire-engine shed and an engine were slightly damaged. No one was in the building at the time.

A six months' prison term was imposed today on John Gerard Doherty, 23, Londonderry, on charges he made a seditious speech at a meeting of the Irish Republican Army in the town hall here and had I. R. A. documents in his possession.

According to police shorthand notes of the meeting, introduced at the trial, Doherty said:

"Our duty is to free our country and that can only be done by the use of arms. It is up to every young man to get into organizations that will stand for that and do his bit in the struggle for Irish freedom."

It was charged that Doherty admitted possession of 22 envelopes inscribed "Irish Republican Army National Collection. Break Our Connections With England."

When called upon to plead, Doherty replied:

"As a soldier of the Irish Republic, I refuse to recognize this court."

New Year's At Ottawa

OTTAWA, Jan. 1.—(CP)—Nature did its part to make this New Year's Day in the national capital. There was plenty of snow, brilliant sunshine and the air just cold enough to be thoroughly enjoyable. The streets were astir at noon as hundreds of men began to arrive at the parliament buildings for the opening of the new year.

Members of the defence forces, about 400, assembled in the House of Commons Chamber for they were given the honor of being the first to greet Lord Tweedsmuir. Many were young officers and Royal Military College cadets attending their first year.

Officers of the Navy, the Air Force, the kilted Cameron Highlanders, the Artillery and Headquarters Staff filed past and each shook hands with Lord Tweedsmuir who stood by the main corridor. He wore morning clothes.

The levee is one of the most democratic of Ottawa's social functions. All men are invited and many come in business suits.

The levee proceeded according to the custom which came down from the early days of New France when the governor stood on the street in Quebec and shook hands with all who came to greet him.

Prime Minister MacKenzie King, who usually holds open house at his home in the afternoon, cancelled his own reception. He visited the messes of the various units of the armed services in the Ottawa area.

For every man in uniform the Prime Minister had a special word of greeting. He expressed the hope they would come through the year 1940 in safety.

All the legations of foreign governments as well as the high commissioner for the United Kingdom and the high commissioner for Ireland refrained from the usual reception held by members of the diplomatic corps.

The heads of the legations and the representatives of other parts of the British Commonwealth, however, attended the levee to pay their respects to the King's representative.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1.—The New Year's eve crush here couldn't keep the stork from over-taking a taxi-cab just before midnight. E. J. Sullivan, 70, married, was killed a mile east of Marmora, Ont., when his automobile was struck by a Canadian National Railway freight train yesterday. A daughter, Miss Edith Marie Sullivan, 18, was injured.

Crossing a highway near his home at Rockland, Ont., Dostine Casagony, 54, was killed yesterday by an automobile that did not stop. Two hours later a 34-year-old Dorey Hancock, 24, Orleans, was killed on a reckless driving arrest on a reckless driving charge.

Huguette Martin, six, of Connaught, Ont., was killed when struck by a gasoline truck as she crossed an intersection with her sister to catch a street car Friday. The sister was not injured seriously.

Price Phillips, 56, of Barrington, N. S., died in hospital at Yarmouth, N. S., 12 hours after his light canoe collided with a motor truck during a blizzard Saturday.

March was being in the road. Fred Marsh, 29, died in hospital Sunday of injuries suffered when struck by a motor truck. The driver, John Ryan, told police that March was being in the road.

Dr. Theophile D. Baulancer, 62, of Montreal, was found dead in a laneway Saturday and was believed to have slipped and fallen, striking his head.

P.E.I. Highlanders Observe Yuletide In Traditional Way

WITH THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND HIGHLANDERS (BLACK WATCH) Yuletide festivities may have been noted by members of the Prince Edward Island (Black Watch) 1st Battalion celebrated the season in traditional fashion.

The Christmas Day dinner, the relieving guards exchanged greetings with old guards and every-where the spirit of the most joyous season of the year was evident.

The company cooks were busy preparing the Christmas dinner which proved equal to that served at home during the festive season.

There was a plum-pudding and the little extras which make the Christmas dinner just what it is. Many of the people were very busy on the evening of "open house" and did a magnificent job of entertaining the boys.

Many there were among the troops who were observing their first Christmas away from home and if there was the old tear that filled the eye it was excusable. It was taken as a sign of weakness, but rather a tribute to the home-folk in the memory of happy family reunions of other years. If such a feeling occurred, it seemed to bind the officers and men more firmly together in a common task they are sworn and prepared to carry to the end.

A highlight of the day was the reading of the following Christmas message to the troops from Lieutenant Colonel C. C. Thompson, O. C.

MESSAGE

"At this festive season I, as Commanding Officer, wish to extend to All Ranks, Officers, Warrant Officers, N. C. O's and men, my best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

"I only wish I could grant you all leave and permit you to be with your respective families at Christmas. This, however, is impossible. "Since the outbreak of the War, under difficult conditions, of which I am fully aware, you have all done a splendid job and I can assure you that I am proud to have you with me. It is my earnest wish and hope that Christmas 1940 will see you at home once more. In the interval I have a sacred task to fulfill and must carry on. "God Bless you all.

"GOD SAVE THE KING."

The wives and families of several officers had gathered, a homelike atmosphere prevailed. Childish voices filtered through the corridors of the usual staid and serious quarters and the more or less stern and rigid countenances of senior officers were relaxed and wreathed in smiles.

Lieut.-Col. Thompson presided at dinner. Among the guests present were: Mrs. C. C. Thompson and two young sons, Allan and Donald, Mrs. Victor Travers, Mrs. W. R. Reid and young son Billy, Mrs. E. J. H. Morrissey, Mrs. Reg Mulholland and young son David.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Speaking from the words of the Apostle Paul, you shall receive power after the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses." The Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B. D., took as his subject "Our Task."

"Everywhere one may suppose on this day the words 'this is a needy world' will be re-echoed. And it is a needy world. Truly it is well provided materially but needy on account of the ineffectiveness of man, weak, fallible, lacking the strength and steady purpose to attain, 'the good' I would I do not, the evil I would not do." The principles of Christ must become the standards for man, the necessities for true civilization, for the establishment of the Kingdom of God.

To this end, the task of the Church world wide is to win men to Christ. Representatives of twelve millions of members of Baptist Churches met at Atlanta, Georgia earlier this year and with earnest vision of this task committed the Church to a five year program of mass evangelism. In the words in the text, ye shall be witnesses were laid upon the hearts of all followers of Christ. This has been the task of the Church through the ages, it is ours to give ourselves to it in our time.

Stainer's "O Zion That Bringest Good Tidings" was the anthem of the morning.

At the evening service the Rev. Harvey L. Denton brought a vivid and glowing message, "The Mirrors Shall Become a Reality." The Male Choir had charge of the evening music, Mr. J. L. McArthur sang very effectively "Bethlehem's Plain" (Spence).

A Watch Night Service was held from 11:15 to 12 midnight, from 11:15 to 11:30 the organ and music by Mr. Inch, from 11:30 the service, presided over and led by Mr. Denton.

Japs Report Defeat Of Chinese Planes

SHANGHAI, Jan. 1.—The Japanese reported today that Chinese planes had shot down 21 Chinese aircraft in a big-scale battle in South China and bombed the Heilong-Kiang railway near the border of French Indo-China.

The railroad, built, owned and operated by the French, is one of the main "lifelines" for the import of materials.

(Damage to the line was reported slight, but Chinese were said in Hong Kong to consider the bombing significant since it followed a Japanese request to discontinue transporting Chinese supplies.)
