ATTENTION!—Attention is directed to A. Horne & Co's ad in this issue of Royal Purple Stock and Poultry Specifics for the horse, cow and hen. This is the greatest animal conditioner, fattener and egg producer.

THE MARKETS.—The Charlottetown market was very dull yesterday and prices were about the same as last quoted. Pork sold for 13c, hay dropped to $10 and $12 a ton. Eggs were 20 cents a dozen, butter from 20 to 32 cents per lb and turnips at 15 cents a bushel.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)
CONCERT.—The social and entertainment, under the auspices of West River Presbyterian Guild, was held at Afton Hall on the evening of Mar. 20th. Despite the muddy condition of the roads a large and enthusiastic crowd assembled to listen to the choice and varied program which consisted for the most part of Scottish and Irish selections. Following was the program:—Choruses—by the Choir. Selections on phonograph—Mr. W. S. McNeill. Reading—Miss Edith Stewart. (encored.) Solo—Miss Harriet Gorveatt. (encored.) Recitation—Miss Jessie Craise. Solo—Mr. W. S. McNeill. (encored.) Solo—Mrs. E. D. Doull. Trio—Misses Helen and Jessie Craise, and Harriet J. McPhee. Solo, "The Lakes of Killarney," Mrs. (Rev.) A. C. Craise. Duet—"Has anybody here seen Kelly?"—Misses Gertrude Gorveatt and Anna R. McPhee. Speech—Hon. John McMillan. Miss Ruth J. Gorveatt was the accompanist to all the musical selections. Then followed the sale of baskets which was conducted by Malcolm McNeill in his usual able manner. Good prices were realized, which goes to show there is no scarcity of money with the young men of West River. Proceedings closed with "God Save The King."

ROSE VALLEY.—Mr. George Trowsdale and Mr. Henry Todd have left for Boston, Mass., where they intend to spend the summer. The school is making good progress under the tuition of Miss Eliza J. Todd. The roads are in a very bad condition owing to the recent rain storms. Miss Annie A. McKenzie has returned home after a short visit to Stanchel. Mr. Thomas McKenzie intends starting a tailoring establishment at Inkerman in the near future. Mr. James Hatley spent the week end in Stanchel, the guest of Mr. Henry Todd. What might have proved a serious accident occurred the other night while Mr. Fred Trowsdale was returning home from a social gathering he got tangled in some loose wire and sustained slight injury.

HIGH BANK.—On Tuesday evening, March 25th inst, a surprise farewell party was held at the home of Mr. C. I. Sencabaugh, High Bank, their daughter Lucy May, with her husband, Mr. Arthur D. Roberts, who have been spending the winter visiting their parents after an absence of six years and who are about to return to their adopted home in Ladner, B. C., being the guests of honor. A splendid social evening was spent in the usual amusements, vocal instrumental and graphophone selections being interspersed. Mrs. A. D. Roberts with Mrs. H. Phillips presided at the organ, while Mr. John McSwain acted very much to the detriment of the evening with his beautiful graphophone selections. The Sencabaugh brothers also delighted the company with sweet melody of the violin accompanied by the auto-harp. Before retiring to the dining-room where the ladies had provided a sumptuous repast the gathering was called to order by Mr. Hector Gillis in a few kindly remarks, when Mr. David Glover of White Sands, the most telling manner, presented Mr. and Mrs. Roberts on behalf of the friends present a very handsome berry set, which was duly acknowledged by the recipients. Refreshments being the order the dining-room was then the scene of a jolly party each enjoying the good things provided for the occasion by the fair sex of White Sands and High Bank who are noted for their skill in the culinary art. After satisfying the inner part the company again retired to the sitting-room where with song, joke and music the time passed all too quickly when the "wee wee" hours of the morning gave warning. After the usual vote of thanks on such occasions all arose and sympathetically sang "Blest be the tie that binds," by Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their many friends who had planned such an agreeable surprise.
