HOW ONE WORM TURNED.

Not all the worms that turn are as gentle and as tactful in their turning as the one that a German paper recently described. A quiet, patient little man had been pushed about and trodden on by the other passengers on a crowded street car. For a long time he suffered in silence. Then, in a meek voice, he addressed an awkward youth standing next to him. "Young man," he said, "I hope you will not think me rude, but may I ask your age?" The youth stared at him for a moment, and replied, "Eighteen." "Eighteen," repeated the little man softly. "Now really young man don't you think that you are old enough to stand on your own feet?"

THE ESTIMATES

Prince Edward Island will have little cause for complaint in the matter of appropriations for the coming year. Even those who have expressed skepticism with regard to the car ferry, who prayed for and yet feared its coming lest the glory should fall upon the heads of others, will be obliged to admit now, if not heretofore, that there's something doing. A vote of over $1,600,000, while perhaps not providing for all that we should like to have, is still something worth being grateful for, and whatever the outward manifestations may be on the part of those who pray in one direction and work in another, there will be general agreement that we have been fairly well treated.

Of the splendid grant for agriculture we shall also receive our share. The encouragement given by the present government to agriculture alone, if they had nothing else to their credit, will make them secure in the country until they have at least committed their first mistake. The impetus the distribution of this grant will give to agricultural production will do more to reduce the cost of living probably, than anything else the government could do in that direction. It means development along healthy and productive lines, the production of more food, the arresting of the stream that has, through years of agricultural neglect, been flowing from the farms to the stores, the factories and the offices in the cities.

FEDERAL FINANCE

Our special reporter at Ottawa informs us there will be a considerable reduction in the estimates this year. The reductions will amount to about $11,000,000 on the consolidated fund and on a capital account. Last year the main estimates totalled $179,152,183. The supplementary estimates last year were nearly $25,000,000. They will probably be the same this year, so that with the reduction mentioned the present total will be considerably under two hundred millions.

A good deal of clap-trap has been written recently about the "blue ruin" which was alleged to have overtaken federal finance, and the alleged falling off in Dominion Revenues. Writers and speakers who indulge in such tirades are either totally ignorant of the facts or willfully blind to them. Our Montreal contemporary, the Gazette, proved this conclusively the other day. In the course of a review of the financial position of the Government it showed that the revenues for the first nine months of the fiscal year from March 31st, to December 31, 1913, were larger than for the corresponding nine months of the previous fiscal year; that the expenditures authorized by Parliament, though larger than previously, were not such as to outrun resources; and that there is no prospect that the Net Public Debt will be increased by the financial transactions of the current fiscal year—in other words, the facts seem to be that Canada is living within the limits of her income—something that she did not do under Laurier management.

The statement of the Revenue for the nine months of the fiscal year ending December 31, 1913, compared with that of the same months in 1912 is as follows:—

Customs .....	$84,747,008	$82,538,249
Excise .....	16,198,474	16,660,269
Total .....	$100,945,482	$99,198,563

1912	1913
Post Office .....	8,250,000	9,025,000
Public Works and Railways .....	9,975,696	11,570,827
Miscellaneous .....	4,406,377	7,777,970
Total .....	$124,577,556	$127,373,767

It will be noted that this statement shows some decrease in the item "Customs" in 1913, and some increase in the item "Miscellaneous."

This is mainly owing to the plan of making up the statement in the two years.

In 1912, the collections of Chinese head tax were included under the item "Customs," but in 1913, they were included under the item "Miscellaneous."

If the method of 1912 be applied to 1913, that is, if the $1,887,138 of Chinese head tax be included under the items "Customs," the comparison for the two years will stand thus:—

1912	1913
Customs .....	$81,747,008	$84,425,432

The difference in the Revenues from "Customs," in the respective years 1912, and 1913, was thus so small as to be quite negligible, and may be fully accounted for by the reductions in the Customs tariff rates on sugar, cement, and other articles.

And in this connection it may be remarked that the trade reports are that Canada's external trade for the calendar year 1913 was greater than that for the calendar year 1912, by no less than the enormous sum of $200,000,000.

Naturally, under such circumstances, the Dominion Revenues have kept well up, and have exceeded those of the previous year.

There were increases in the Excise, the Post Office and the Railways.

Such increases, as well as the reports of the banks, and the trade reports, all indicate that, despite the worldwide financial stringency of the period, business in Canada up to the close of the calendar year continued active and was on a sound basis.

The expenditure for the nine months in the two years compared as follows:—

1912	1913
Consolidated Fund .....	$67,001,575	$75,987,925
Public Works, Railways, etc., .....	18,137,346	25,237,072
Railway Subsidies .....	4,532,756	15,555,879
Total .....	$89,671,677	$116,780,877

At the close of 1912 there was on the transactions of the fiscal year an apparent surplus of $34,905,000. At the close of 1913 the apparent surplus was $10,751,000.

The difference, in spite of a larger revenue in the latter year is due in part to the larger outlay on consolidated fund account, in part to the larger disbursements on railway and public works construction, and as to $11,000,000, to the payment of railway subsidies.

Meeting the claims under the subsidy acts, and purchasing at a price far beyond their market value, of the G.T.P. bonds (in order to minimize the loss due to a Laurier blunder), caused demands on the treasury, the effects of which are seen in the above figures, and also, it appears, necessitated certain borrowing in England, where at the end of December last the funded and temporary obligations of the Government were some $27,000,000 higher than on December 31, 1912.

On the other hand, the amount of the investments outside of sinking funds increased by over $35,000,000. The result of all the transactions was that on December 31 last the net debt was $303,562,000, compared with $304,191,000 a year before.

The expenditures during the current quarter, which ends on March 31 next, are not likely, it is understood to be so heavy as during the earlier part of the year. It seems reasonable to expect, concludes the Montreal Gazette, that when the twelve months close and the accounts are finally adjusted, the record will show little or no increase of the net debt, though the gross, because of the bond purchases noted, may be considerably larger than on March 31 last.

THE QUEBEC CHARGES

The charges preferred by the Montreal Daily Mail, against members of the Quebec Legislature, and which came up for hearing on Tuesday, produced at least one sensation yesterday when the resignation of Messrs. Mousseau, Benzevin and Bernard was announced.

The proceedings in the House on Tuesday, although looked forward to as promising revelations and sensational disclosures fell somewhat short of expectation. House and galleries were crowded, men almost fighting for standing room. Messrs. Nichols and McNab were received before the Bar and the examination began amid considerable excitement.

Speaker Delage reviewed the events leading up to the examination and the questions were put, through the speaker, by Mr. Laverge who had moved the resolution demanding an investigation.

After some sparring as to the nature of the questions to be asked the following was agreed upon as meeting the case:—
"Amongst the seven members of the Legislature mentioned in the article of January 21, as having received bribes for their votes on bill 158, what are the names of those who are

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

The Premier and Mrs. Matheson are expected to arrive in this city from Ottawa on Saturday.

Mrs. W. E. Hyndman entertained delightfully at nine tables of Auction Bridge on Wednesday afternoon last at her residence, Rochford Street, the guest of honor being Miss McLean of Souris. Handsome prizes were won by Mrs. E. S. Blanchard, Miss Norton and Mrs. A. W. Weeks while among the guests were—Mrs. F. W. Hyndman, Mrs. H. W. Longworth, Mrs. W. S. Stewart, Mrs. W. A. O. Morson, Mrs. J. E. B. McCready, Mrs. C. H. B. Longworth, Mrs. C. J. Stewart, (Alberton), Mrs. A. W. Weeks, Mrs. MacLennan, Mrs. J. E. Grant, Mrs. J. A. Hyndman, Mrs. R. B. Norton, Mrs. J. S. Bagnall, Mrs. Bulman, Mrs. Alex. MacKinnon, Mrs. W. H. Pettick, Mrs. B. Hearty, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. E. Lord, Miss Pope, Miss DeBriary, Miss Kate McLeod, Miss Harland, Miss Perle Taylor, Miss Alice MacKinnon, Miss Vere Hyndman, Miss Mary Bartlett, Miss Louise McCready, Miss Maggie Cotton, Miss Gertrude DeBlais.

It had been expected that the names of seven more members of the lower house would be divulged under order of the House but Mr. McNab said that there seemed to have been some confusion as he had spoken of seven members of the "Legislature" which he took to be composed of both the Assembly and the Council.

The newspaper men were then asked to fill in the blanks in a list of alleged payments which was furnished to the detectives by Mr. Mousseau. They gave the names of Hon. Messrs. Desvarannes and Gilman of the Council.

The general impression so far is that Messrs. McNab and Nichols had weakened their case when they declared that Mr. Mousseau was the only member of the Legislature who was affected by the Mail's Charges. The members of the Lower House, while greatly relieved, affect to be furious as they maintain that the Mail created the impression that there were others implicated, and that the whole assembly had been unjustly subjected to suspicion.

COST OF PRODUCING MILK

Sir,—In your Morning Daily of January 29th there appears a letter on the cost of producing milk, signed W. R. C. North Wilshire, in which the writer contributes to the experience of Professor Archibald of the Milk Company in their experiment in Milk Production.

In referring to Professor Archibald's address I did not think I took exception to the figures. I only took exception to the conclusion drawn from them. Dairying was not profitable in this province. It may seem strange to and not to take exceptions to the facts from which the conclusions are drawn, but it is a fact that no one will dispute, that the Sections of this Province that have taken up dairying and the breeding of livestock, have made much more progress than those settlements which have been selling the raw products of the farms. It seems to me that we should have all of the facts that we should have before us regarding dairying, when the conclusion is reached that dairying is not profitable. Mr. Peter White, the President of the Shorthorn Breeders' Association pointed out at their last annual meeting that it cost nearly as much to produce a pound of beef as it does a pound of butter, so that according to this authority beef raising cannot be more profitable than dairying.

Now then, if it costs 90c. per hundred pounds to produce milk, how is it that the settlements that have been producing the largest quantities of milk are more prosperous? I think anybody acquainted with the Province will say that dairying has paid well and the average price for the last ten (10) years has been under 90c. a hundred. Professor Archibald was giving the cost of producing milk this year, but it does not cost more to produce milk this year than it did for some years past, as far as feeds are concerned. Oats, oil cake and cottonseed meal are cheaper today than they have been for years; bran is about the same; hay and turnips are about the same and these are the feeds from which milk is produced.

I would like to ask W.R.C. if he thinks it costs him 90c. a hundred for the feed to produce 3.4 per cent. milk, that is, the average milk of the Province. If his milk contains a half more butter fat, then he should add a half more to the 90c.

I believe there has been no more productive Department of Agriculture in this Province for the last ten (10) years than Dairying and that at the present time there is as much money in Dairying as there is in any other branch. Agriculture outside of Poultry Raising. We are not yet in a position to say what profit there is in Fruit Growing. The advance in the price of meat during the past two years may lead us to expect that the production of beef and Dairying, but that remains to be seen yet.

I would like, Mr. Editor, to see some of our best Dairymen give their experience in the cost of Milk Production.

I am Sir, etc.,

The afternoon Bridge Club met on Monday last at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Blanchard, Water Street.

Dr. Gordon Alley and Mr. T. W. Morris of Charlottetown left on Tuesday last for Halifax where they sail by S. S. Alsatian for England and the Continent.

The marriage is announced of Miss May Clothilde Barrington of Tomkinsville, Staten Island, to Mr. Frank E. Bremner formerly of Charlottetown and now of New York City.

An Ottawa exchange states that Mrs. A. A. McLean of Charlottetown has arrived in Ottawa to spend some weeks.

An event of much interest to Island people generally as well as to the people of Charlottetown was the concert held on Monday and Tuesday evenings last in commemoration of the birth of the Scottish poet, Robert Burns. On each occasion crowded houses greeted the performers and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Misses Helen and Edith Moore entertained delightfully at the tea hour on Friday afternoon last. Mrs. Chandler assisted in receiving the guests while Miss Maud McLean conducted the guests from the drawing room to the tea room. Mrs. Wm. Cooke poured tea, while Miss Kathleen Moore served the ices. Miss Fannie Robertson, Miss Freda Haszard and the Misses Gates assisted in the dining-room. About sixty guests were present.

Miss Perle Taylor entertained informally at two tables of Bridge on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss McLean.

SAVING THE PENNIES.

One of the most interesting departments of the Savings Bank of South Australia is that of the penny banks. It is in this section of the bank's operations that the spirit of thrift is encouraged in the young South Australians, and the saving of small coins in youth is frequently the start that leads to wealth in later life. At the close of last year there were 251 schools at which penny banks were in operation in South Australia. The number of depositors was 14,254. The total amount deposited stands at $210,146. The work in connection with the penny savings banks of the various schools is performed gratuitously by the teachers.

HAMPTON COURT GHOST

In connection with the offer to Mrs. Scott, of rooms in Hampton Court palace, the old stories of the palace ghost have been widely and erroneously repeated. Only one room is said to be haunted, the room in which Jane Seymour died after the birth of Edward VI. She was neglected by her nurse, and the ghost of the nurse appears to any other nurse in the room at the time of the birth of a child, and with fatal results to the child. Princess Frederica of Hanover lost her baby at Hampton Court, and some historians believe it was fear of the mid-wife ghost that caused Prince Frederick, the father of George III., to hurry his wife away from Hampton court to St. James' Palace for her accouchment—not, as is generally supposed, a Hanoverian desire to annoy his mother.
