"HUMAN HEARTS"
 "Human Hearts" the melodramatic success announced at the Opera House, Oct. 18 and 19th, appeals to every class of play goers. It deals with a story that tems with heart interest from beginning to end. Tom Logan, an honest young blacksmith in the Arkansas Hills, falls in love with and marries a reformed confidence woman. The dull country life soon palls on her. She accidentally meets her former lover and 'pal.' Without any just cause they conspire together to ruin Tom and kill him if necessary. The woman calls him while her accomplice conceals himself. The father of Tom responds and is mistaken for the young blacksmith. He is fatally stabbed by the ambushed man. Tom, coming out to see where his father is, is accused by the adventuress and her 'pal' of the murder. He is finally sentenced on that charge. But his friends ultimately establish his innocence, and he is released. Retribution overtakes his villainous and murderous accusers. No play of its kind possesses a stronger plot or more sensational incidents. The serious element is mingled with comedy, forming a combination that never fails to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of play-goers.
