NEW LONDON NORTH EGG CIRCLE MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the New London North Egg Circle was held in the Long River Hall on Thursday, Feb. 21.

Although the night was stormy there was a large number of members present.

The president, Mr. James Saunders, presided. Minutes of past year were read and adopted.

Rebate was paid to members. The following officers for ensuing year were appointed.

President—James Saunders.
Vice President—Robert MacLeod.
Secretary—B. R. Meek.
Directors: Wilfred Campbell, Preston MacLeod, Allan Campbell, Bert W. Warren, Bruce Bell.

Delegates to meeting in Charlottetown: Charles Paynter and George Cousins.

Manager—George Cousins.
This ending the business the Secretary called upon Mr. Saunders, who addressed the meeting advocating increased production, also greater interest shown by members, after which a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Saunders for his instructive address, to which he suitably replied.

BELLVUE. Roll call was answered with "Hints on Removing Stains." Money was voted to buy cocoa and sugar for school lunches. It was arranged to hook a mat before the next meeting which is to be held at home of Mrs. D. A. MacPherson.

GASPERAUX. Programme for the evening consisted of songs, recitations, riddles and recipes exchanged. One member had her name, taken of the membership list as she has moved from the district. Meeting closed with God Save The King. Next month the members will meet in the home of Mrs. Stephen French.

—QUIET WEDDING.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Baptist Parsonage, Summerside, last Thursday afternoon, when Miss Mary Albina DesRoches was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Reginald Johnson both of Summerside, Rev. A. Adams officiating. A host of friends wish them every happiness and prosperity. S

—FIVE DOLLARS OR FIVE DAYS.—In the police court at Summerside on Saturday the assault case tried on Thursday, in which the defendant was a man and the plaintiff a woman, came up for judgment. Stipendiary Wyatt inflicted a fine of $5 and costs upon the defendant, with the option of five days in jail, the sentence to be suspended during good behavior. S

—$200 AND COSTS OR SIX MONTHS.—The case against a party living in The Brae, charged with having spirituous liquor in his possession which had been adjudged for the appearance of a material witness, came before Messrs. John E. Campbell and Thomas Carruthers, J. P.'s, at the Court House in Summerside on Friday and was concluded. The accused was convicted and fined $200 and costs or six months in jail. S

—BRIDE TO BE SHOWERED.—A miscellaneous shower was given in honour of Miss Jean Phillips, a future bride to be, at the home of Mrs. F. D. Bowness, of Summerside, on Thursday evening, by the young ladies of Messrs. Sinclair and Stewart's Store, of which Miss Phillips was a valued employee until last week. The many beautiful gifts of china, silver, linen and other costly presents testified to the high esteem in which Miss Phillips was held by the staff. A very enjoyable time was spent with music and songs, and dainty refreshments served by the hostess at the close of the evening. S

—SOME MORE THIEVES AT WORK IN SUMMERSIDE.—Mr. Roy Silliphant's meat market and Mr. Henry Gallant's store a few doors from each other on Central Street, Summerside, and the drug store of Messrs. Gourties Ltd. on the corner of Water and Central Streets were broken into during Wednesday night by some daring thieves. The large plate glass door panel of the drug-store was smashed to make an entry, and a quantity of tobacco, cigarettes, pipes and chewing gum were taken from one show case; also several bottles of perfume and other toilet articles. A number of large glass bottles containing candy were broken and scattered on the floor. An attempt was made, by the robbers, to open the cash register but proved a failure. From the meat market, the door of which was broken into in the same manner, some roasts of beef and cash were taken. The proprietor of the soft-drink store found a small quantity of money and cigarettes missing. S

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—On Wednesday evening a jolly time was spent at the home of Mrs. Peter White in Summerside, where a number of the friends of Miss Jean Phillips, who is to play an important part
