Truly Sanitary

... thanks to "NEVA-WET". The biggest corsetry news in years, and exclusively NEMO's! Perspiration, moisture, dirt and water stains don't even have a chance to get into the fibres of the fabric.

They just slide off! Think what that means in cleanliness—and think what it means to know that your NEMO will wear better than ever, because "NEVA-WET" also increases tensile strength.

COMBINATION No. 35-600. In durable rayon batiste with NEMO fine webbing. $6.00

Amateur Concert At Wood Islands

The amateur concert held in the Wood Islands hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3rd was a splendid success. A very large audience was present. Quite a number had to remain standing throughout the greater part of the entertainment. Rev. R. Hensley Stavert presided. Following are the names of the contestants together with the parts taken by each.

Stepdance—Glen MacKenzie.
Duet—The Misses Florrie Beaton and Hilda Beaton.
Duet—Sydney Stewart and Leon MacPhee.
Duet—Louis MacMillan and Albert Ross.
Solo—Leith Beck.
Stepdance—Fletcher Jordan.
Duet—Harold Young and Mary MacMillan.
Stepdance—Jack MacLeod.
Instrumental music by the Hopefield Quartette—Misses Pearl MacPhee and Mary MacMillan and Sydney Stewart, Leon MacPhee and Douglas Stewart.

Solo—Harold Young.
Solo—Catherine Porter.
Instrumental music—the Wood Islands Serenaders—Harold Young, Louis MacMillan, Mary MacMillan and Peter Beaton.

Violin Solo—Harry Mosher.
Trio—Misses Nellie Dutey, Catherine Dutey and Joyce Nicole.
Duet—Louis MacMillan and Lena MacPhee.

Stepdance—Lottie Dutey.
Gaelic duet—Kenneth MacKenzie and Glenn MacKenzie.

Quite a number of the contestants were called back and at the close of the prescribed programme some extras were asked for. Practically all of those taking part excelled themselves and the evening's entertainment throughout was of a high order.

John MacLean, Charles Ross and Mr. Hickey were selected as scrutineers to count the ballots of those voting for the various contestants.

The first prize of $3.00 was won by Fletcher Jordan, the second prize of $2.00 by Catherine Porter, and the third prize of $1.00 by the Wood Islands Serenaders.

While the votes were being counted Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance, under whose auspices the contest was held, gave a short address on the work of the Order and made a strong appeal to both the older and younger people to join the Order and help to crush the evil of intoxicating liquors out of our fair island home.

Quite a number of ten cent boxes of lunch were sold. A goodly sum was realized for the work of the Order.

Farewell Party

On Friday evening Oct. 29th, a farewell party was held in Victoria Hall in honor of Miss Edith Inman who left the following Monday morning to enter Highland View Hospital, Amherst, N. S. to train for a nurse. The evening was very pleasantly spent in social amusements after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies present. Miss Eva MacLeod then escorted Miss Inman to the seat of honor, after which Miss Lillian MacNevin on behalf of the people of Victoria presented her with a beautiful cock and bath robe as a token of the esteem in which she was held by the residents of the community.

An appropriate address was read by Mrs. Ralph Taylor to which Miss Inman made a fitting reply, thanking one and all for their kindness. Following is the address: Dear Edith—As we meet together this evening to spend a pleasant hour with you, before leaving to engage in the training necessary for the work to which you have decided to direct your energy and talents, and to which no doubt, you have given earnest and thoughtful consideration, we would assure you of our deep appreciation of your decision and to wish you all success in the work and duties you are undertaking, preparatory to the noble profession you are entering on, and which like any other worth while work demands the best we have to give. There is no royal road to efficiency thoroughness in any high calling step by step must be attained by constant diligence and application to duty and study, and this we know will ever be your aim and ambition.

The top is only gained by first climbing the elevation. You will be missed in this community; your willingness and ability to help in any way for good has been a source of gratitude to all. Your high ideals and standard of living speak for themselves, and we feel assured that where duty now calls you, you will give to your work all those high qualities of service to others which has characterized your life among us here in your own native village. We wish you the best of all good wishes as we now present this small token of our love and esteem, and commend you to Him whose loving care is over all, through every day and all the days, while life and opportunity, are given for service to God and to your fellowmen. Signed on behalf of the community.
