We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it.

Recall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night, do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects.

Recall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils.

$2,000,000 OF CRANE ESTATE FOR CHARITY.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18—Richard T. Crane left an estate valued at $10,000,000, according to documents filed in the Probate Court today.

One million dollars goes to the pension and disability fund for employees of the Crane Company, of which Mr. Crane owned ninety per cent of the stock.

The sum of $100,000 is given to the United Charities of Chicago for the Mary Crane Nursery, $25,000 to the Visiting Nurses' Association for an endowment, and $10,000 as an endowment for the establishment of a fresh air home at Lake Geneva.

All these gifts are to be available from the estate within two years, Charles R. Crane and Richard T. Crane, Jr., two sons, are appointed executors without bond.

Besides the provision made for Mrs. Crane by a pre-nuptial agreement, she gets the city home in Michigan Avenue, with all its appurtenances, the house and lands of the country; home at Lake Geneva and $15,000 in cash annually.

Mr. Crane left three sons and four daughters. Only two sons named as executors, to whom the estate minus the bequests is left, participate in the division of the property.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Any good trustworthy boy desiring an hour or two of work before school should apply at Guardian advertising counter at once for particulars.

A cable received by a party in this city on Saturday from London fur sales shows red fox declines 10 p.c., mink 15 p.c., and ermine advanced 15 p.c.

The prize lists of the Central Seed Fair will be in the printer's hands in a few days and ready for distribution by the Secty John H. Gill, Little York, Competition open to the whole Island for grain, seed, poultry and domestic science.

The attendance at the lecture in St. Paul's Schoolroom Friday evening considering the night, was a compliment to the lecturer, A. A. Bartlett, and a tribute to the worthiness of the object for which it was given.

L. A. Haszard, Grafton Street, has an exceedingly attractive window which should appeal to all lovers of poultry. It is also a seasonal window as the poultry show, so much talked about, opens in the Market Hall today, and the cups, prizes, etc.

Fruit growers in this province are interested in anything. J. A. Ruddick, Dominion Dairy Commissioner, may say. As briefly told in a recent despatch to The Guardian he spoke at Albany, some days ago.

A very successful concert was held in the Baptist Church at Kingston by the Sunday School, on January 17th, Stephen Ackland, Superintendent, presiding.

The beautiful home of John and Mrs. McMillan of Fairview was the scene of a very enjoyable gathering last Thursday evening when a dinner was tendered Hon. Senator Brouse.

The following registered at the Victoria Hotel, City, between 9 o'clock Saturday night and 1 o'clock the previous night: J. O. Watson, Montreal; E. D. McMillan, Truro; G. E. Whiston, Halifax; S. R. Hilston, Halifax; G. D. Jacques, St. John; J. S. Hinton, Summerside; J. K. Storer, Montreal; E. J. McLellan, St. Catharines; W. I. Yielding, St. Catharines; Moss, New York; F. V. The large circle of acquaintances in this city, as well as his relatives and friends, at Freetown, where he formerly lived, will be pleased to learn of Will H. Taylor's success among the business fraternities in New York City.

Mr. Taylor was a member of the house of A. J. O'Donovan & Co., importers. Mr. Taylor has branched out on a larger scale, and has established the firm of Taylor & McLennan, and they will carry a large and varied stock in the latest designs of silks, laces, chiffons, dress goods, etc.

Mr. Taylor will long remain in the minds of The Guardian's eight happy young ladies who won a New York trip, through a contest similar to the one now being conducted.

Mr. Taylor was very obliging and courteous, and entertained the party one evening at the Waldorf Astoria, and spared no time or expense in showing them many sights that will linger long as a pleasant memory.
