UPPER TROUBLE

Congestion of the upper is brought on by a combination of heavy feeding, consequent high condition, and a sluggish lymphatic system. The former is to be desired, but the latter is not. Congestion will usually yield readily to a purgative dose of salts and laxative feed together with an occasional ounce dose of castor oil in the drinking water. Exercise, particularly previous to milking, aids after calving as well, is also beneficial.

To prevent congestion of the udder developing into inflammation and glandular stalling, cow in draughts on milk often, rubbing the udder gently with ammonia after each milking. If there is any indication of more serious trouble developing, give the cow a strong laxative (Epson salts 1 1/2 lb., molasses 1 cup, and ginger 1 oz.), followed after purging ceases by daily ounce doses of saltpetre, at 1 1/2 same time halving the water with hot water. For 10 to 20 minute periods, finally give it and rubbing with camphorated ointment and petroleum.

After Ten Years

BY MARION RUBINCAN

HOPE AND DESPAIR

Chapter 56

Paul's mother had suddenly taken a great interest in civic work. She was a curious woman. Mrs. Babcock observed one day to some friends in the office, "I never could make her out. She's sent us, how much was that check Miss Parker?"

"A thousand," Patty answered from her desk.

"Thanks, you a thousand dollars' contribution towards our public library. She's sent three new books and has promised to give us three hours a day until this but for improving those old tomes as goes through. Now, why do you suppose she's taken this sudden interest?"

Various reasons were offered and discussed. Patty thought that except for the fact that this was done in a sister key, the talk was much like what she heard in Wisconsin.

Nevertheless, she was glad Mrs. Darlington came in so often. She gave her an opportunity to study her. She tried to like her, but could not, yet Mrs. Darlington remained her curiously of her own mother.

It was not an unusual thing for the women to sit about talking. One day another woman took up the subject of what she did hear. She kept to herself so, the members talked before her as freely as thought she were not present.

"She always goes to extremes in her enthusiasms," one woman said. "She even did it in raising her son. She was as all for the military training and Paul were a uniform and went to a school where they drilled him till he dropped." Patty was listening now.

"Then she became a professed Quaker. She went to a Quaker school. Then she said America was all wrong and dragged him off to Europe and private tutors. Finally he took matters into his own hands and took to college."

"She's a boy, Paul," one woman said. "I wonder if the McKenn girl will get him."

"She could have anyone she wanted," another woman took up the conversation. "She has a great fortune, or will have someday, and she's very pretty and intelligent."

"A little hard, though, that type usually becomes so," another voice went on. Patty had her head bent over her work. But a sudden inexplicable pain seized her. She could not see the letter before her.

"I believe she's very fond of him," the first woman took up the talk. "I think that might be a successful marriage. Heaven knows we need a few such these days."

"She's strength of will enough to keep him in order, and he's so high as to be a city. A pity his mother wouldn't let him learn something useful. My sons have all learned a business."

They chatted and drifted away. Patty was left alone in the office. Five o'clock came and Paul came too.

"This is my third visit," he announced. "The car's outside. Please come for a drive before dinner."

"She should send him away," she knew that.

"But she wanted to go," he said.

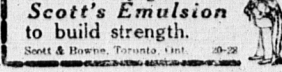

"I can't leave the office before 5.30, really," as Paul started to protest. "I know, no one will come in. But I'm supposed to be here until then and I feel more comfortable if I stayed. Run along and find someone else to drive with."

A GREAT BOON

There are many mothers, nervous and rundown in vitality, to whom would be a great boon. It's the very genius of Scott's Emulsion to build strength.

Paul sat down on one of the chairs. "I won't wait until 5.30." He looked half annoyed, half amused.

"I've made some excuse to finish some letters. But it was hard to put the paper sheets into their proper envelopes when her heart was singing. She was going out for a drive with Paul. She was going to see him and talk with him for an hour or so."

But there was that Mackenzie girl who might "get" him. The bits of gossip came back to her, hurting her. Paul walked restlessly around the room, examining the posters on the walls, looking at the paintings and political buttons on the tables.

"Over places, women's clubs," he growled. "What do they do that's useful? What good are they?"

"They're useful to me at least," Patty said and laughed.

"I know," Paul walked over to her desk. "Mrs. Munn told me about what's in the name of his money. It's a shame you have to work."

"I like it," Patty said. "Do you? I'd hate it, any work. I mean anything I had to do. I frankly told mother has enough so she'd rather do in life such as taking Miss Patty for a drive, and his serious mood faded into nonsense at once."

At 5.30 they started and had time to run through the dusk of the park and over the Drive and by its length, watching the colored lights of the boats, moored in the Hudson.

The girl's cheeks colored from the wind, she tingled all over with joy at being outdoors and with Paul.

But when he left her at her door, and she walked up the stairs, she felt sick again. That Mackenzie girl!

I am in favor of the continuation of permanent street and water works can be provided without an increase in taxation.

Our City should be kept clean and greater attention should be given to keeping our streets and crossings clear during the winter months thus increasing employment and benefiting the public. In short I am in favor of everything that will be in the best interest of the city and especially Ward 4 consistent with economy and efficiency. Thanking you in anticipation of your support, I am, Yours Faithfully, E. A. FOSTER.

Pierce for Ward 4

You know my position as a citizen. As a property holder myself, my aim will be to safeguard the interests of property holders. The work of the City will be made more efficient. When elected my ambition will be to improve civic conditions by looking carefully after interest of Ward 4 and the city in general as I would my own personal business.

Electors I want your support and you will not be disappointed by supporting me on election day.

Yours for better conditions, JOHN S. PIERCE, Business address, 73 Queen St., Residence address, 65 Rochford St.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD FIVE

Ladies and Gentlemen, As I have been asked by a large number of the representative electors of this ward to place myself in nomination for councillor at the approaching Civic elections, I have decided to do so and respectfully solicit your vote and assistance.

I promise to give my loyal support to clean civic government, and endorse any measure for civic improvements in keeping with our finances.

Any legitimate measure that will give employment to our citizens and make conditions better for our laboring men will have my hearty support.

It will be impossible for me to make a personal canvass of the ward and through this medium would respectfully ask your support on the 8th February.

I am sincerely yours, GEORGE W. MACLEOD

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD FIVE

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am in favor of permanent improvement, consistent with Revenue only.

I am also in favor of encouraging large manufacturing industries to operate in our city, and in event of their giving large numbers of our working men employment a good wage, I would favor exemption from taxation for a fixed number of years.

I do not intend to make a house canvass, and cannot meet with an individual view with all the electors, therefore take this medium of letting your favorable support am.

Respectfully yours, T. W. L. (Billie) PROCTOR, Care of Fyvie Bay.

To the Electors of the City of Charlottetown

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

I beg to announce that I will be a candidate for the Mayoralty at the coming election, February 8th, and take this means of soliciting your support.

Four years ago, the citizens of Ward five honored me by electing me as councillor; at that time I promised that if elected, my efforts would be directed towards the improvement of our streets; the members of the City Council honored me still further by selecting me as Chairman of the Street Committee, and during my term of four years in this capacity, we have put down three and one-half miles, or 60,000 square yards of paved streets which are the equal of any in America, and it is a pleasure here to state that the cost per square yard has been lower than that of any City in Canada.

Whether I have carried out my pre-election promises or not is for you to say.

I believe good streets are one of the best assets any City can have, and I believe that the introduction of this system of paving is the most progressive movement that has taken place in our City since the installation of Water Works and Sewerage, and I think I can safely claim the credit of having introduced the system here.

With the present serious unemployment conditions prevailing I believe it is our duty as a City to provide work, where possible, for our laboring men, and if you honor me by election, I will use my best efforts to have the work of paving continued.

Our City never was, nor never will be a large manufacturing centre, and while I am in favor of offering every inducement possible to manufacturers to locate here, I believe we should cater more to the tourist trade, and the making of our City attractive by the building of good streets, is one of the best inducements we can offer them.

What we need in Charlottetown is more civic pride from both the individual and civic standpoint. Nature has done her part for us with a lavish hand, our shores are laved by the waters of three beautiful rivers emptying into a spacious land locked harbor, while within our civic jurisdiction we have one of the most magnificent parks in the world. Our forefathers with a vision that was prophetic laid out our limits with wide streets and open squares which to day evoke the admiration of the visitor, it is therefore now for us to do our part, and if elected to the office of Chief Magistrate it shall be my object and aim to make this Capital City a larger, better and more beautiful Charlottetown.

In addition to my position as Chairman of the Street Committee I have also been a member of the Light Committee, and when the new contract was being arranged with the Electric Light Company, I was instrumental in having a clause inserted, which, when put into effect will, I believe very much improve our street lighting.

I am strongly in favor of Meat and Milk inspection, and while I do not claim the credit for having introduced this measure, I do claim that it had my unqualified support, and if elected I will endeavour to have it extended and enlarged so as to more fully safe guard the public health. It is not my intention to make a house to house canvass. I believe every man and woman in our City is intelligent enough to judge for themselves as to whom they desire to see elected. My record for the past four years is before you, and if you decide that it is such as to entitle me to be elected Mayor, I will appreciate the honor most highly.

Thanking you in anticipation of your support, and assuring you that if elected I will use my best efforts for the welfare of our City.

Yours Respectfully, J. J. MCKINNON.

Drink More Water If Kidneys Bother

Eat Less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts: take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists have said they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of a number of electors of the ward I have decided to offer as a candidate for councillor at the forthcoming Civic Election.

I am in favor of the continuation of permanent street work, consistent with our revenue only.

I am in favor of encouraging manufacturing industries that give employment to our citizens.

If elected I shall do my best to serve the interest of Ward 5 in the city in general.

Yours faithfully, H. M. CHANDLER.

CARD

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of electors of Ward 1 I have consented to seek election to the Council Board, and I have endeavored to do my best in my ability, and my splendid progress was made in providing necessary permanent work, and I will favor a continuation of such undertakings if it is possible without increase in taxation. Labor will be benefited by the resolution establishing and milk inspection. Splendid suits have followed, and efficiency and thoroughness in respect will be advocated. My wholehearted support will be referred to the Market Building, securing freedom from exposure, dust and flies.

Greater attention should be given to our Public Square, vision of more seating accommodation for the people. A clean, unhygienic refuse dumps in sections of the city is feared.

In general a thorough enforcement of law, strict economy, and civic administration and progress and prosperity of the city will receive my sincere support. Thanking you in anticipation of your support.

I am very truly, I. J. VED.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 5

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I take the liberty of announcing that I will be a candidate for Councilor for Ward Five at the approaching Civic Election. As a life-long resident and being actively engaged in business, I feel that I am acquainted with the City's needs. Being a large taxpayer I will endeavor to avoid all unnecessary expenditures. I favour maintaining the rate of taxation, but would not support any policy that would add to our debt thereby increasing the present rate of taxation.

Soliciting your confidence and support.

I remain at your service, W. A. STEWART.

CARD

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD Ladies and Gentlemen: It is a surprise to myself in inserting a card in the news seeking election as a councillor of the City of Charlottetown, but insistence of a large representation from Ward Five has compelled me to accept the honor of contesting this ward in the civic election on February 8th.

Being a large property owner in this ward my rest assured if elected their interests will always be safeguarded, as it is my interest as well as theirs to see all measures that will tend to city and modernize our city, thus making real estate valuable by attracting new tenants.

As a large employer of labor I have the interest and well of the laboring man well in realizing that employees must receive a equitable wage for work performed, that living conditions must be healthy both in the shop and the home and that employers treating employees they should not be regarded as a burden to the city, but as a progressive citizen.

Economy in the administration of city affairs will have my highest support.

To elaborate all the details of my platform would tire you to read, but I am assured if elected my program that the city finances would not be overburdened, and my representative of Ward Five will not miss my seeing each elector, hereby soliciting your votes and fluence.

J. STANLEY WEDGWOOD.

TO THE CIVIC ELECTORS OF WARD FIVE

Ladies and Gentlemen: Having been approached by a number of the electors of Ward 5 I have decided to offer as a candidate for Councillor in the Civic Election. Despite the fact that I have not had a seat on the Council Board, I am convinced that I could do much for the betterment of my native city.

I am fortunate enough to be elected by you.

I am in favor of permanent improvement, consistent with Revenue only.

I am also in favor of encouraging large manufacturing industries to operate in our city, and in event of their giving large numbers of our working men employment a good wage, I would favor exemption from taxation for a fixed number of years.

I do not intend to make a house canvass, and cannot meet with an individual view with all the electors, therefore take this medium of letting your favorable support am.

Respectfully yours, T. W. L. (Billie) PROCTOR, Care of Fyvie Bay.
