MANY friends in the City will be pleased to learn that Charles Earle, son of Prof. Earle, who is now in the Royal Bank at Montreal has been appointed baritone soloist in the church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal. Those who have listened with pleasure to Mr. Earle's singing here can anticipate the pleasure of his Montreal auditors.

FRUIT prospects throughout the Annapolis Valley are not as discouraging as was believed by many a few weeks ago. In many sections the apples are showing up very well and though the black spot is quite common in some sections, it looks as if the most of the fruit would be of good quality as the trees are not loaded so as to make a small growth, but will mature fruit of large size. Rain is needed now, as in the dry soils fruit is falling some.
