

TORTURED BY RHEUMATISM

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Quick and Permanent Relief

MR. P. H. MCHUGH
108 Church Street, Montreal.
December 10th, 1917.

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists, took medicines, used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then, I began to use 'Fruit-a-tives'; and in 15 days, the pain was easier and the Rheumatism was better. Gradually, 'Fruit-a-tives' overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. Also, I had severe Eczema and Constipation, and 'Fruit-a-tives' relieved me of these complaints; and gave me a good appetite; and in every way restored me to health". P. H. MCHUGH.

TUESDAY

FROM OVERSEAS.—The friends of Mr. John Conroy son of Mrs. (Dr.) Conroy took their considerable pleasure in seeing him home again after nearly four years of service in France. He left here with No. 11 Ammunition Column in April, 1916 and served afterwards in the 43rd Howitzer Battalion. He was with the Battalion through Ypres and the Somme and was then transferred to Major Stanley's Battery. Mr. Conroy took part in many great battles, including Ypres, Somme, Vimy, Hill 17 and Passchendaele. He was wounded in the back at Ypres. He was in France near Mons when the armistice was signed and left there on May 1st.

VISITORS SURPRISED.—Mr. C. T. Shipley and Mr. H. C. Pugsley of River Hebert, N. S., are making an auto tour of the province and have so far covered over a considerable portion of the Island, having visited Charlottetown, Montague, Georgetown and other parts. They are delighted with their visit and the general appearance of the province. They are particularly impressed with the general excellence of the roads, which was a complete surprise to them. Mr. Shipley, on the way over the car ferry, had picked up a Charlottetown newspaper in which the dangers and the awful condition of the Island roads were set forth in terrifying headlines, and he naturally expected to be mired or wrecked. In fact he was almost induced to abandon the visit. He was therefore naturally surprised to find the roads not only much better than those of his own province but equal to any he had seen anywhere.

An interesting service was held yesterday in the Clyde River Church at which Mr. W. A. Wood was ordained to the holy ministry and inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation of West and Clyde Rivers. The service, which was very impressive was presided over by the Rev. R. H. St. John. Divine service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Fullerton. Thereafter the ordination and induction were performed by Rev. R. H. St. John and the members of Presbytery who were present. Rev. Mr. Sterling in very fitting terms addressed the minister on the importance of his office and work. Mr. St. John reminding the people of their duties in the church that had just been consummated. The Rev. Mr. Wood begins his ministry in this congregation under very auspicious circumstances and every indication is given that excellent work will be the result of this settlement. Mr. Wood is a native of Nova Scotia and received his education at Dalhousie and the Presbyterian College, Halifax. He has also gained a wide experience of men through having served at the front. The congregation is to be congratulated on having secured a man of such good ability and, for his years, such a wide experience.

WEDDING BELLS.—An event of more than usual interest took place in St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora on June 25th, when Mr. R. J. McDonald, the popular line foreman of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was united in marriage to Miss Mary M. Hammill, Middleton, one of the Island's successful teachers. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. McDonald, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of friends. During the ceremony, hymns appropriate to the occasion were sung by Mrs. Albert McGuigan, aunt of the bride and her cousin Miss Lulu Murphy, while Mr. John Noonan, Bedouin presided at the organ and also rendered the wedding march in a highly capable manner. The bridegroom was in white tuxedo and she wore the conventional veil with orange blossoms. After partaking of a sumptuous dinner at the home of the bride, the party motored to Boston and left by the Car ferry on a honeymoon trip to Boston, being accompanied as far as Toronto by Mr. Joseph Callaghan, of the P. E. I. Ry., who acted as groomsmen and Miss Mary McGuigan, Kinkora, who did the honors for the bride. Previous to her marriage the bride was showered by her many friends with gifts of utility and beauty, among which were a hundred dollar cheque from her father, Mr. Francis Hammill, a cabinet of silver from her sister Miss Laura Hammill, Primate, Sask., and a china tea set from her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Croken, Freeport. On their return from Boston, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside in Charlottetown.

BUILD YOURSELF UP SO AS TO FEEL BETTER

Eat and sleep better, as well as look better, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is an all-the-year-round medicine, good in all seasons. It purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood, creates an appetite, aids digestion, assists assimilation of the food you eat, and wonderfully builds up the whole system. In many cases it succeeds where other medicines fail to do any good. If you need a mild effective cathartic, get Hood's Pills.

WEDNESDAY

CHAUTAQUA AT P. OF W. COLLEGE.—Premier Arsenault has kindly granted the use of Prince of Wales College grounds for Chautauqua the same as last year.

BRIDAL SHOWER.—On the evening of June 18th the many friends of Miss Florence May McLeod gathered at her home in Darlington to give her a surprise shower. The presents were numerous and valuable showing the popularity of the bride-to-be.

Among the soldiers from overseas who received their discharge this week was one deserving of special mention—Major T. H. Fisher—an Island boy who won his way up from the ranks on sheer merit and received fitting recognition for his gallantry and meritorious work on the field of action.

Major Fisher belongs to East Point in this Province. He enlisted in November 1914, as a private with the 25th Battalion. He sailed from Halifax with the Battalion in May, 1915 and went to France September 15, 1915. After being in France a year during which he took part in the hard fighting in the Ypres salient, he then moved to the Somme where he won his commission as a lieutenant, following the battle of Courcellette. He took part in all the subsequent battles up to November 8th 1918, two days before the armistice was signed. He was wounded at this time in the left leg and back in fighting near Mons. Major Fisher was wounded in all four times—the first time at Hill 60 when he received a shrapnel wound in the left leg near the ankle, then at the Somme in 1916 when he received a shrapnel bullet in the right arm, next in August, 1918, at Amiens where he received a gunshot wound in the shoulder, and then the wound in the leg already referred to. After the battle of Hill 70 he was promoted from Lieut. to the rank of Captain and was awarded the Military Cross in recognition of conspicuous gallantry during that battle.

In August, 1918, after the battle of Amiens he was further honored by winning a bar to the Military Cross and was promoted to Major. He returned to Canada in March and spent most of the time since as an out-patient in Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, receiving treatment for his leg. He arrived in Charlottetown a few days ago.

Major Fisher is a son of Mr. D. A. Fisher of this city, formerly of East Point. He was residing in Montreal for eleven years previous to enlistment.

Major Fisher's brother, Sergeant Angus Fisher also served about three years overseas. He sailed from Halifax with the 97th Battalion and transferred to the Princess Pats. He returned to Canada in March last and has been in Halifax since then.

Lieut. A. B. Cosh.

His many friends here were delighted to see Lieut. Alan B. Cosh home again. He left here with the 105th Battalion and upon the disbandment of that battalion went on the strength of the 104th. He went to France later with the 12th Field Company, Canadian Engineers and afterwards transferred to the 124th Engineers and saw active service with both units. When the latter unit was broken up he went to the Engineer Reinforcement Depot, later going to another active unit of Engineers. He returned to England in June and on to Bramshott Camp, returning to Canada on the Mauretania. Lieut. Cosh is a son-in-law of Major A. A. Bartlett.

Sergt. Cyril Hughes

Another officer who returned recently was Sergt. Cyril Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hughes of this city. He resigned his position in the Tank of Montreal to enlist in the 105th and served after in the 104th as regimental quartermaster sergeant. He afterwards reverted to private to get to France and served through a large part of the heavy fighting with the 26th Battalion and came through it all uninjured.

Staff Captain George Stanway

The friends of Staff Captain George Stanway are giving him the glad hand on every side since his return several days ago. He is the son of Capt. Herbert and Mrs. Stanway, Prince Street and enlisted in 1914 in the Mounted C. A. M. at Winnipeg. Christmas of that year he transferred to No. 9 Field Ambulance and on to Rockhead Military Hospital, Halifax as Sergt. for the winter and spring of 1915. In the fall of that year he joined the 105th as Lieut. in "A" Company. After he was made Quarter Master and having qualified for Capt. was given that rank, going overseas with the unit. On the breaking up of the 105th he went to the 104th in the same capacity and in the breaking up of the 104th was attached to the Army Service Corps and given charge of the re-organizing of Bramshott and Whitley Camps. Next he was sent to Rhyll to inspect troops coming from Canada, and then to his delight went to France, where he was sent to the 44th Battalion of Winnipeg. Shortly after he received orders to transfer to the 4th Canadian Division Staff where he remained until May 1919, and then returned to England. The last few weeks he has had charge of conveying some of the troops to the ships and seeing they got safely away. Before leaving for home he was offered a position as inspecting officer on the Staff in England for the next two years, beginning with the next of Staff Major and the chance of rapid promotion but he preferred to return to Canada. Capt. Stanway returned on the Baltic.

REMAINS BEING FORWARDED.—

Mrs. W. H. Scott has received word by telegram from the C. P. R. Co. at Vancouver, that the body of her brother, Mr. James Flanagan, who was drowned when the S. S. Sophia sank en route from the Yukon to Vancouver has just been recovered and is being forwarded here by express. Funeral notice will be given later.

In the window of Beer & Weeks store is displayed a decidedly fine large photograph of the members of the Legislature. The photograph which was taken by Mr. Bayer is said to be the finest ever taken here. It shows the members in their places in the Legislative Chamber and also several press representatives. This picture will occupy a place on the wall of the Legislative Chamber. Small sized ones will be on sale shortly at the Bayer studio.

Mr. Charles Webster, boilermaker, in the employment of Messrs Bruce Stewart & Co., died yesterday evening at his late residence, 152 Dorchester Street after a brief illness. Mr. Webster was brought out to Charlottetown from Scotland as an expert boilermaker by the late firm of Messrs McKinnon & McLean with whom he remained a faithful employee until they went out of business. He then went to the firm of Messrs Bruce Stewart & Co., where he continued as foreman of the boilermaking shop till he was compelled to leave off a short time ago on account of his last illness.

Mr. Webster was a very able mechanic being master of all the branches of his business and much of his excellent workmanship has been put to the test here and elsewhere with great satisfaction.

The deceased was very prominent in Masonic circles, being an active member of St. John's Lodge and prominent at all Grand Lodge meetings. He was highly respected by all the members of this fraternity. He was a perverted Scot and was closely identified with the Caledonian Club of this province. So highly was he appreciated by the members of that organization that he was elected to the highest offices in their gift.

He was also a devoted member of St. James Church with which he had been intimately associated since his arrival in this city over thirty years ago. He leaves to mourn a widow, four daughters, the Misses Jessie and Eleanor at home, Jean and Annie in the United States, and two sons, Charles in Saskatoon and George, who has just returned after doing his bit at the front.

The late Mr. Webster will be greatly missed in the city and especially among those who knew him best as well as in the various organizations with which he actively co-operated. The Guardian tenders respectful sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral will take place from the late residence Thursday afternoon at 2.30 and will be under Masonic auspices.

Why You Should Use a Blended Flour

The big, out-standing reason why "Beaver" Flour makes such light, flaky Pies and Pastry, and such delicious homemade Bread, is because it is a blended flour.

It is a flour ground of the delicately flavored Ontario winter wheat, to which has been added a scientifically determined proportion of Western spring wheat to obtain the desired strength.

BEAVER FLOUR

This is why "Beaver" Flour makes a good size loaf of Bread, with an appetizing, nutlike, "homey" flavour, impossible to obtain by using western wheat flour alone.

This is why "Beaver" Flour makes Pie Crusts and Doughnuts—Cakes and Cookies—Gingerbread and Tarts—that are revelations to the woman who has been struggling along with western spring wheat flours.

"Beaver" Flour is a Pastry Flour. Yes! It is also a Bread Flour—and a general purpose flour—unsurpassed for high quality and flavor.

Being blended in exact proportions every time, it is always the same in quality and strength—and always gives the same happy results with every baking.

Ask your grocer for "Beaver" Flour, and try it on your next baking day. The results you will get with "Beaver" Flour—compared with what you have been getting with western spring flours—will surprise and delight you.
