Cosh Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. L. B. MacMillan, Mrs. Stephen Trainor.

DEATH OF MRS. C. CAMPBELL —The sudden death of Mrs Chester Campbell, which occurred at her home, 52 Elm Avenue, at 5.30 Saturday evening, came as a shock to her many friends. She had been in ill health for a number of years The late Mrs. Campbell the former Miss Frances Waye, was a native of Charlottetown and lived here all her life. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waye, and was the last surviving member of the family. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother, her husband, Chester A. Campbell and two daughters, Mildred and Eleanor. The funeral, which will be private, will take place this afternoon. Interment People's Cemetery.

WAS AT DIEPPE— Already the names of many Prince Edward Islanders have been listed as being among the heroic group of Canadians to take part in the Dieppe raid. As time passes this list is steadily increasing as word from overseas slowly trickles back to parents. The latest report from AB. Lawrence (Ab) Brown, R.C.N.V.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown, is to the effect that he was one of the sailors to accompany the expedition across the Channel. He returned safely to the British Isles following the raid and his parents received a telegram from him recently. AB. Brown applied for enlistment at the outbreak of war but was not called up until a year later. Since then he has served in Canada and went overseas last spring.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION — A very enjoyable evening was spent on the evening of Sept. 2[illegible] at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C[illegible]ford, Gaytown, when a large number of friends and neighbours gathered to bid farewell to Mr. Harry Robinson, R. C. N. V. R., who is leaving shortly for the mainland. An address was read by Miss Constance Cormier and the presentation of a lovely wrist watch was made by Miss Phyllis Douse. Harry, although much surprised in his pleased manner thanked all for their kindness. After all joined in singing For He's a Jolly Good Fellow he was then vigorously bounced. Lunch was then served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. At a late hour all departed for their homes wishing Harry the best of luck and a safe return home.

STAFF CHANGE AT P. W. C.— Dr. Clarence Murphy, formerly of Montague, has been appointed to the teaching staff of Prince of Wales College and commenced his new duties on Saturday. He fills a vacancy on the staff caused last week when Mr. James Lynch, teacher at the College for the past three years joined the Royal Canadian Air Force as a Pilot Officer, administration branch, and was posted to duty in Upper Canada. Dr. Murphy has been on the teaching staff of John Carroll University, Cleveland, Ohio for several years. He is a graduate of St. Dunstan's University and holds a degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Washington. About a fortnight ago Mr. William Reddin left Prince of Wales, where he had been teaching for a number of years and at that time Mr Richard Mathieson of Dundas, who has taught Grade eleven at Montague for three years was added to the College staff. It is understood that Mr. Harold Landry, B. A. Montague, is now in charge of grade eleven in Montague school.

TUESDAY

BRIDAL SHOWER.—On Monday evening August 24th friends of Miss Miriam Vessey gathered at her home to tender her a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage. The bride-to-be entered the room to the strains of Here Comes the Bride, played by Mr. Arthur Vessey and was escorted to the seat of honor by Miss Ella Thompson. Basket after basket of lovely gifts were brought in and presented to the bride-to-be; those assisting with the gifts were Misses Viola Jay, Verna Vessey and Mrs. Harold Metcalfe. Miss Dorothy Watts read the accompaning cards and verses. In a very pleasing manner, Miss Vessey thanked all present for their lovely gifts. All joined in singing For She's a Jolly Good Fellow. A pleasant evening was spent and dainty refreshments were served to all.

BRIDE SHOWERED.—On Friday evening Aug. 28th Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe MacDonald's home was the scene of a very pleasant event when neighbors and friends of Miss Grace Watts gathered to tender her a miscellaneous shower. The room in which the gifts were displayed was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride-to-be was led in to the room and seated in a prettily decorated chair. The many baskets of lovely gifts which were brought in Misses Lillian Watts and Helen Lewis showed the high esteem with which Grace is held by her many friends. Miss Viola Jay read the verses accompanying the presents while Misses Vaunda Watts, Lillian Crockett and Ella Thompson capably assisted in opening the gifts. After the shower Miss Watts expressed her thanks in a neat little speech. For she's a jolly good fellow was sung by all present, the remainder of the evening was spent in a pleasant manner. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by several ladies to all present.

Flags in Borden were half-mast early this week for the passing of Mr. Thomas P. Sexton whose death took place at his home here on Monday, Sept. 28. He had been ailing for some time but was able to be around until quite recently. He was born at Limerick, Ireland seventy years ago and came out to Canada when he was twenty years of age. He made his home in Charlottetown and for almost forty-five years he followed the sea. Eighteen years ago he came with his family to Borden and for a number of years was mate on the SS. Prince Edward Island and later on the S.S. Charlottetown until his retirement five years ago. During the years he spent in Borden he was one of its leading citizens. For the past ten years he had held the position of town councillor and at one time was vice-president of the Borden Credit Union. Honest, sober and industrious, he was highly esteemed by all who knew him and he will be sadly missed as one of our finest citizens.

Besides his sorrowing wife he leaves to mourn two daughters, Tessie at home and Nellie, R.N., of Charlottetown; also four sons. Arthur in Borden, Earl of Comeau Baie, Quebec, John, RCNVR, of Halifax and Charles at home.

DEHYDRATION EXPERT HERE —Mr. Cecil C. Eidt, dehydration expert with the Fruit and Vegetable Products Section of the Central Experimental Farms, Ottawa, arrived in Charlottetown last evening. He is here in connection with the proposed establishment of a dehydration plant in this province and will confer today with those interested in the project. During his stay here he will also look over a site for the building. If a suitable building can be found it may not be necessary to erect a plant. In his opinion the plant here should have a machine capacity of 30 to 40 tons a day. Chiefly potatoes would be dehydrated here and the practical plan is to have the plants established at the source of supply. The Associated Shippers are backing the movement in this province. Mr. Eidt will be here several days.

Sgt. John Holland, 30, a member of the Royal Air Force died in hospital here Monday, it was announced last night. He was treated first at the airport hospital and was removed to a hospital in the city Sunday.

Sgt. Holland came here with the first group of Royal Air Force men to take over at the airport about New Years in 1941. He was one of the regular pilot instructors at the port.

His next-of-kin is his wife who is living here. She came to this country about three months ago from England. Also surviving are two children, a son, Barry five years old and a daughter Pamela, three years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holland are in England.

Funeral services will be held from the airport Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Hon. Flt. Lt. Rev. T. H. B. Somers will conduct the service. The body is resting at the MacLean Funeral Home until noon Thursday.

Mr. W. S. Grant, Charlottetown, was elected president of the Queen's County Conservative Association at the largely attended annual meeting held last night in the B. I. S. Hall, Charlottetown. He succeeds Mr. P. W. Turner, Charlottetown.

Other officers elected included: Vice President, Mr. George McKay, Emerald, re-elected; Secretary, Mr. M. Alban Farmer.

The executive elected is as follows: 1st District, Mr. George McKay, Emerald and Mr. Walter Coady, Emyvale; 2nd. District, Mr. F. J. Trainor, Tyrone and Mr. M. J. Doyle, North Rustico; 3rd. District, Mr. Wylie Gibson, Marshfield and Mr. Russell Driscoll, Mt. Herbert; 4th. District, Mr. George McLean, Lewes and Mr. Joseph Chisholm, Uigg; 5th. District, Mr. W. S. Grant, Charlottetown, Mr. M. Alban Farmer, Charlottetown and Mr. George Grant, Royalty.

PROSPECT FOR DRILLING GOOD — Prospects for oil drilling in this province next spring are bright, Mr. Hugh McKay, Sapulpa, Okla., who controls the oil rights for Prince Edward Island, said last night. As the geophysical survey, in progress here for three years, draws near to a close, he is quite confident that drilling will be underway next year. Weather conditions have impeded progress of the survey in the Hillsborough Bay lately but about 10 fine days will see the work finished. After this there is the area between Georgetown and Souris to be completed. While the two companies promoting the work, Cities Service Oil Company and the Socony Vacuum of New York, are here primarily to get oil there is always the possibility of discovering natural gas, Mr. McKay stated. If the latter is found it would be a great boon to this province as most of it could be used in this territory. The survey is being made by the Seismograph Service Corportation of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mr. C. D. Hier is chief of the party.

Major J. A. Crozier of Los Angeles, California, formerly of Baltic, Lot 13, P. E. Island, is visiting his brother and niece this week. FAREWELL SERVICE —A very large congregation met in the Hazelbrook Baptist Church, Sunday evening, Oct. 4, in honor of Rev. H. F. Fenwick who preached his farewell sermon. The Pownal Home Guard, in which Mr. Fenwick served as sergeant, attended in a body to do him honor. In the course of his sermon, Mr. Fenwick spoke of the gift of remembrance with which we were endowed and emphasized two precepts in the Old Testament which we were admonished to remember—"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth' and Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." A special feature of the service was the singing of two solos by Cpl-instructor Philip Daniels, R.A.F., which added greatly to the inspiration of the service. Mr. Fenwick spoke feelingly of his happy fellowship with the people of the churches whom he served, and with his neighboring pastors and people. The singing of Blest be the tie that Binds and the National Anthem was followed by the Benediction. (Patriot please publish).

WEDNESDAY

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of Mr. Walter McInnis was held yesterday morning from the A. A. Hennessey Funeral Home at 9 o'clock to the Roman Catholic Cemetery where service at the grave was conducted by Capt. Rev. Father McCardle. The pallbearers were Messrs. Aloysius Dowling, John Coady, H. R. Large, Thos. McFarlane, Reginald Cronin and Wilfred McKenna. The funeral Mass was celebrated in the Basilica at ten o'clock.

ISLANDER DEAD — Mr. David MacDonald, Cherry Hill, has received a letter announcing the death of his brother Aeneas B. MacDonald, who passed away in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and was laid to rest beside another brother, Dr. Norman MacDonald, who passed away some time ago. The only survivors of the family are Mr. David MacDonald, Cherry Hill and Mrs. Frank MacDonald, Orwell Cove. Two sisters are buried in Denver, Colo., and a brother, buried in Montana.

SOLDIERS HONORED — On Monday evening, Sept. 21st a large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Arsenault, Village Green, to honor their three sons who are leaving for military duty. Mr. Charlie Duffy called the gathering to order and voiced the sentiment of those present in wishing Raymond, Leo and James God speed and a safe return. A nicely worded address was read by Miss Margaret Doyle. Mr. Linus Cannon, presented them with a well filled purse for which the boys made a fitting reply. After giving them a hearty bounce all joined in singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows.' Lunch was served by the ladies and the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Ivan Myers, Pownal and Alphonse MacIntyre, Mill View.

CAMPBELL- WAYE WEDDING. —The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Milton Waye, St. Peters Bay, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, Sept 22nd, at 6 p. m. when their daughter Blanche Eleanor, became the bride of Harvey George, eldest son of Mr and Mrs. Russell H. Campbell, Charlottetown. The room was decorated with pink and white streamers, the ceremony taking place under a beautifully arranged arch. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Louis Cameron, sister of the bride. The bride who entered the room on the arm of her father, wore a floor length dress of turquiose blue sheer and carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses and maiden-hair fern. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Patterson, minister of the United Church at St. Peters Bay. The bridal couple were unattended. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. The dining room table was tastefully arranged with a handsome lace cloth, the two wedding cakes in centre, each flanked by pink candles in silver candlesticks.
