

To serve the public faithfully, and at the same time please it entirely is impracticable.

Rob not God, nor the poor lest thou ruin thyself; the eagle snatched a coal from the altar, but it fired her nest.

Annual Subscription Delivered, $5.00 By Mail: P. E. I. $1.00; Canada and U.S. $5.00

BARDIA IS CAPTURED; TANK BATTLE CONTINUES

Critical Stage Reached; Nazis Still Encircled

Axis Forces cut into four groups; Great conflict rages in uncharted melee.

CAIRO, Nov. 23—(AP)—New Zealanders and Indians, pouring through and around Axis defences, have recaptured Bardia, Sidi Azetz and Sidi Omar Nuovo and the main tank battle, now raging in its sixth day, has moved across 80 miles of desert to the Tobruk area where it has reached a critical stage.

German armored units apparently were making every effort to burst through the narrow gap between Tobruk on the coast and Rezegh, 10 miles to the south, and escape the trap and four or five separate encirclements within it.

But they were locked in a battle with speedy tanks which was growing more bitter hourly.

Charging across the sharp gulches which break the plateau and slope down to the sea in this battlefield, British tanks fired into their armored adversaries, received withering blasts in return, scattered, and re-formed for new attacks in a continuous and almost uncharted melee which raged all day yesterday, through the night and on today.

The British authorities said the Germans were suffering great losses, much larger than their own, but it was impossible to estimate the totals, even Britain's. They said there was no sign of Axis reinforcements.

While this phase of the offensive, which the authorities regard as the most critical, was reported to be progressing favorably, military quarters said Axis forces had been cut into four isolated units.

One group, probably about a division of German and Italians, holding the advanced Axis position at Saluh and Halaya Pass on the coast of Egypt, was said to have been cut off when the British forces broke their frontier defense line in the middle of the capture of Fort Capuzzo, Sidi Azetz and the later occupation of Bardia.

A second Axis force was isolated in the Gambut coastal area, 37 miles east of Tobruk and 55 miles northwest of Bardia.

A third force of Italians, pushed aside to the west when the main British armored columns plunged straight through toward Tobruk, was reported in the vicinity of Bir El Gobi, 40 miles south of Tobruk.

This badly mauled Italian tank outfit apparently was being thrown into the fight again today. Otherwise the Italians appear to have been put out of the battle.

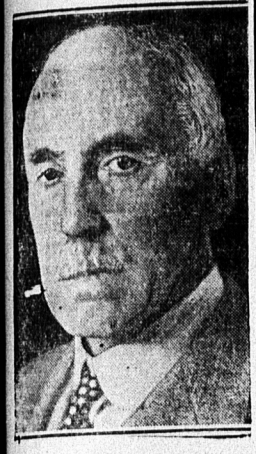

The fourth Axis group was the German tank force engaged in the gap between Tobruk and Rezegh. This gap was cleared in today's communiqué to be declared. The Tobruk garrison which Saturday shook off its Axis siege lines and started an offensive of its own, was continuing its advance through a two-mile wide mine field capturing hundreds of prisoners, half of them Germans.

Axis Tanks Out Of Fuel Advanced British headquarters said they already had captured German tanks immobilized for lack of fuel, and that growing difficulty of German supply might in the end determine the battle. The German tanks which Saturday were captured, were taking a terrific punishment from the Royal Air Force, which yesterday destroyed at least 100 fuel trucks.

Capture of Bardia made the supply position of the Axis forces at Saluh and Halfaya Pass critical. These posts have no water supply.

(Continued on page 9 Col 4)

Mr. N. W. Rowell Dies at Toronto

MR. N. W. ROWELL

TORONTO, Nov. 23—(CP)—Newly widowed Mr. Rowell, who rose from Ontario farm boy to chairman of the Royal Commission that probed Dominion-provincial relations, died at his home Saturday. A former chief justice of Ontario, he celebrated his 74th birthday Nov. 1. Mr. Rowell had been ill and had been forced through a health breakdown to resign as Royal Commission chairman after most of the public hearings had been completed last year. He was appointed to the commission chairman in August 1937 while still holding the position of Ontario chief justice. He was appointed chief justice in 1938, succeeding Sir William Mackenzie King in that position Nov. 11, 1938. Mr. Rowell was leader of the Ontario Liberal party from 1911 to 1917 and sat as a member for Oakville North. During the first Great War he was president of the Privy Council under Sir Robert Borden. Canada's wartime prime minister. At Ottawa, Prime Minister Mackenzie King paid high tribute to Mr. Rowell. He said that "Canada has a citizen whose public services, outstanding abilities and Christian example notably enriched our nation."

Axis Bigwigs Meet today

BERLIN, Nov. 23—(AP)—Numerous leading statesmen representing the powers allied in the fight against Bolshevism will meet in Berlin tomorrow, a Nazi announcement said today.

Is convicted Of murder

TORONTO, Nov. 23—(CP)—Aircraftman H. A. W. (Bill) Newell, 28-year-old member of the Royal Canadian Air Force, was convicted Saturday night of the year-old murder of his pretty Finnish wife, Aune, and was sentenced to be hanged Feb. 12.

Captive coal Mine strike Is ended

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(AP)—The captive coal mine strike was ended Saturday in an agreement that its issue be submitted to arbitration with both sides bound in advance to accept the results. The committee of the United Mine Workers of America voted unanimously to send its men back to work on the terms of the agreement. The union's president, John L. Lewis, said the decision was made in the public interest.

War—25 Years Ago Today

NOV. 24, 1916—British hospital ship Braemar Castle torpedoed in the Aegean Sea. Venizelos provisional government declared war on Germany and Bulgaria. Von Mackensen's army drove Rumaniacs across the Danube.

Win Baking Laurels

WIN BAKING LAURELS use BLOSSOM OF CANADA THE ALL PURPOSE FLOUR

Red Army Pushed Back At Moscow

Street fighting in Rostov; Red Army counter-attacks in north.

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, Nov. 23—(AP)—Russian troops have been pushed back in the central and southern sectors of the defence arc before Moscow, dispatches from the front acknowledged tonight.

Southeast of Tula, the southern end of the defence arc 100 miles south of Moscow, Russian troops were being pressed slowly back, reports said. They were pictured as contesting every inch of ground.

At Mozhaisk, 57 miles west of Moscow in the centre of the arc, a tank drive by the Germans was said to have forced the Russians to retreat to new positions.

On the southern front the Germans were acknowledged to have fought their way into the important city of Rostov, at the gateway to the Caucasus, and the bloodiest house-to-house fighting was under way in the streets of the city today, with the defenders exacting a heavy toll as they withdrew block by block. There during the last two days the Germans have lost 55 tanks and "thousands of men killed and wounded," the Russians said.

Red Star said that the Russians counter-attacking over the entire northwest had recaptured Malaya Vishnera, 100 miles from Leningrad, as well as a station on the Moscow-Leningrad railway described as important, and a number of settlements in the region of Volkhov, also on the rail line, 20 miles nearer Leningrad, and in the vicinity of Tikhvin, north of Volkhov and about 110 miles east of Leningrad.

Nazi Use 17 Divisions Into the great assault on Moscow, the Germans have poured a total of at least 17 divisions, or 250,000 men, it was estimated in late Russian dispatches from the front. Under the impact of these forces, using many tanks, the

(Continued on page 9, Col 5)

Canucks are Brilliant in Air combat

Celebrate Arrival of Air Vice-Marshal Edwards in Britain By Daring Exploit.

LONDON, Nov. 23—(CP Cable)—Canadian pilots who celebrated the arrival of Air Vice-Marshal Harold Edwards in Britain by shooting down four German planes over Northern France were visited today by the new Air Officer commanding the R.C.A.F. in Britain and his predecessor, Air Commodore L. F. Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Less than 24 hours after he stepped down from a plane which brought him from Canada, Vice-Marshal Edwards went to the Canadian air station and heard first-hand accounts of the engagements of the previous day, which are considered by air authorities to be one of the finest performances of the war in the particular type of operation in which the Canadians were engaged.

The Canadians, who also were credited with one probably destroyed and four seriously damaged enemy aircraft, were the toast of the station and received an informal message of congratulations from Stevenson.

Predicts U. S. Will be in war By Spring

President Of Cuba Says His Nation Will Be First In On American Side.

HAVANA, Nov. 23—(AP)—President Fulgencio Batista of Cuba predicted today that the United States would be in the war by next spring and added that "when the United States declares war, Cuba will be the first nation to enter the war on her side."

He said it is recognized that America is unprepared for war, "but the oppressors know that if America lacked arms they are ready to fight banded for liberty."

"America," he said, "is aiding England and Russia wherever possible. America has not sent men to Europe, but America will send men if the Liberty of Europe depends upon the men of America."

"To be indifferent in these times would mean that we are not men. Cuba is a small country without resources, but the little we have we cheerfully place on the altar of the liberty of men who are dying for liberty."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lasario Pena, head of the Cuban Confederation of Workers and Communist deputy, had said yesterday that "the Spanish people will give their lives for democracy."

"Cuba awaits the orders of the leading nation in America—the United States," he said.

Lt. - Gen. Crerar To command 2nd Canuck Division

OTTAWA, Nov. 23—(CP)—Appointment of Lt. Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, chief of general staff to command the 2nd Canadian division was announced tonight by Defence Minister Ralston.

Simultaneously the minister announced promotion of Maj. Gen. K. Stuart, vice-chief of general staff, to be chief of staff.

Gen. Crerar, who succeeds Major Gen. Victor W. Collum of Vancouver in command of the 2nd division, was only a few days ago promoted to lieutenant-general's rank. He reverts to major-general on assuming his new appointment.

Gen. Odium has been named Canada's new high commissioner to Australia.

A National Defence Department statement on Gen. Crerar's appointment said:

"The minister expressed appreciation of Gen. Crerar's excellent record as chief of general staff and satisfaction at his readiness to accept this opportunity to return overseas, to serve in the field as divisional commander involving as it does reverting to his previous rank."

OTTAWA, Nov. 23—(CP)—The Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced tonight that the general price ceiling going into effect in Canada a week from tomorrow will not apply, "for the present at least," to fresh fruits, vegetables and green-house products.

"Price regulation of fresh fruits and vegetables and also green-house products will depend on their price trends and condition of supply," said a statement issued by the board.

The board said the decision followed a careful investigation which showed an ample supply of these commodities to be available.

The board is satisfied, therefore, that no price enhancement should occur and that the usual trade procedure, including normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

Lapointe's Condition Very critical

MONTREAL, Nov. 23—(CP)—Justice Minister Lapointe, still fighting uncompromisingly against a critical combination of ailments, was resting comparatively easily tonight after a rally in the afternoon had helped him follow a bad night and morning.

Despite the rally, he was slowly losing strength.

An official statement issued tonight said: "Mr. Lapointe was unable to talk, especially Sunday morning. At present very weak and always in a critical condition."

The work bulletin from Notre Dame Hospital said merely: "Very bad night. Weaker this morning." Members of the family said later that he had shown some improvement during the afternoon, and had talked and joked with those at the bedside.

There were times, however, even during the afternoon, when Mr. Lapointe was unable to talk, although he could still hear and understand all that was said. Not once did he lose consciousness.

Premier Godbout of Quebec visited the hospital this morning and was able to see the Justice Minister for about five minutes. Last night, Cardinal Villeneuve and Archbishop Charbonneau of Montreal were visitors for a short time.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23—(CP)—The Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced tonight that the general price ceiling going into effect in Canada a week from tomorrow will not apply, "for the present at least," to fresh fruits, vegetables and green-house products.

"Price regulation of fresh fruits and vegetables and also green-house products will depend on their price trends and condition of supply," said a statement issued by the board.

The board said the decision followed a careful investigation which showed an ample supply of these commodities to be available.

The board is satisfied, therefore, that no price enhancement should occur and that the usual trade procedure, including normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

The board said the situation of these particular commodities should continue to be watched and appropriate action to establish control of prices would be taken "at any time if required by normal buying for stores, will not endanger the policy of preventing price increases," the statement said.

Interpreting The War

By Kirke L. Simpson Associated Press Staff Writer

One of the most impressive phases of the British Libyan offensive, is the fact that it has been launched while a crisis is brewing in Russian defence of the Caucasus front against a

(Continued on page 9, Col 8)

ABCD Representatives Study Japan's proposals

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(AP)—Japanese proposals for settlement of Pacific problems were studied for nearly three hours Saturday by Secretary of State Cordell Hull and British, Dutch, Chinese and Australian representatives, but no hint was given as to their reaction.

Likewise none of the participants in the meeting—the first general gathering of representatives of the ABCD powers whose stiff attitude towards Japanese aggression has been answered by Tokyo (threatening a Pacific crisis—would give any clue to the nature of the Japanese proposals).

Names of the crew members on the missing plane were not released, but it is believed they were members of the Royal Air Force. The search for the aircraft was continued Saturday without any success.

Shea of Pleasant View was walking along the shore near his home when he spied some small objects lying on the sand. When he picked them up, they appeared to be parts of a wrecked plane and he notified the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Alberton who in turn got in touch

(Continued on page 9, Col 4)

U. S. shooting Germans at sea

LONDON, Nov. 23—(CP)—The United States navy "is shooting Germans—German submarines and aircraft at sea," W. Averell Harriman, United States war aid expert, declared to a broadcast to the British people tonight.

Mr. Harriman returned to London last week from the United States, where he conferred with President Roosevelt on the results of the mission he headed to Russia in late September and early October to study the Soviet Union's defence needs.

THEN AND NOW WASHINGTON—(CP)—It is pointed out here that the Nazi submarine total of U. S. ships lost with 115 lives, compares with 19 lost with 226 lives when this country entered the First Great War in 1917.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(CP)—The United States navy "is shooting Germans—German submarines and aircraft at sea," W. Averell Harriman, United States war aid expert, declared to a broadcast to the British people tonight.

Mr. Harriman returned to London last week from the United States, where he conferred with President Roosevelt on the results of the mission he headed to Russia in late September and early October to study the Soviet Union's defence needs.

THEN AND NOW WASHINGTON—(CP)—It is pointed out here that the Nazi submarine total of U. S. ships lost with 115 lives, compares with 19 lost with 226 lives when this country entered the First Great War in 1917.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(CP)—The United States navy "is shooting Germans—German submarines and aircraft at sea," W. Averell Harriman, United States war aid expert, declared to a broadcast to the British people tonight.

Mr. Harriman returned to London last week from the United States, where he conferred with President Roosevelt on the results of the mission he headed to Russia in late September and early October to study the Soviet Union's defence needs.

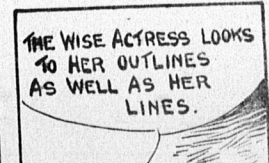

THEN AND NOW WASHINGTON—(CP)—It is pointed out here that the Nazi submarine total of U. S. ships lost with 115 lives, compares with 19 lost with 226 lives when this country entered the First Great War in 1917.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(CP)—The United States navy "is shooting Germans—German submarines and aircraft at sea," W. Averell Harriman, United States war aid expert, declared to a broadcast to the British people tonight.

Mr. Harriman returned to London last week from the United States, where he conferred with President Roosevelt on the results of the mission he headed to Russia in late September and early October to study the Soviet Union's defence needs.

THEN AND NOW WASHINGTON—(CP)—It is pointed out here that the Nazi submarine total of U. S. ships lost with 115 lives, compares with 19 lost with 226 lives when this country entered the First Great War in 1917.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(CP)—The United States navy "is shooting Germans—German submarines and aircraft at sea," W. Averell Harriman, United States war aid expert, declared to a broadcast to the British people tonight.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, TORONTO, Nov. 23—(CP)—Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson 6 13 Victoria 31 46 Edmonton 14B 19 Regina 6B 14 Winnipeg 33 44 Toronto 33 35 Ottawa 33 37 Montreal 29 54

synopsis: The weather has been fair and cold in Manitoba and eastern Saskatchewan and comparatively lively mild farther west. Snow or rain has fallen over the greater part of Ontario.

BOSTON, Nov. 23—(AP)—Forecast for Northern New England: Clearing in south, mostly cloudy with a few snow flurries north portion, colder Monday, fair and cloudy Monday night; Tuesday fair and continued cold, moderate to fresh westerly winds.

High tide this afternoon at 3:11 and tomorrow morning at 2:49. Sun sets this afternoon at 4:24 and rises tomorrow morning at 7:10. First quarter moon, Nov. 25, 1:52 P. M.

Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown.

BORDEN—CAPE TORMENTINE SERVICE (DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY) Leave Borden 9:25 A.M., 1