Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell and little son, Sheldon of Augustine Cove were Sunday visitors to North Tryon.

Miss Laura Ross of Albany is now spending an enjoyable visit in Victoria the guest of Miss Minnie Wright.

Friend Stork made a call to Victoria on Monday, April 15th, and left Mr. and Mrs. Willard Thomas the proud possessors of a bonnie wee lass. (Congratulations).

Congratulations to Mr. Lorne Mabey of Tryno, who was one of the winners in the Know Canada Contest of the Family Herald and Weekly Star.

Although spring is here and the days have been wonderfully sunny, yet the mud still continues to stick right here hard and fast. Old Sol, laboring several hours a day to dry it up, but patience always wins out, so methinks the worst will soon be over.

Trout fishing is the order of the day in Tryon now. Some noted anglers have landed some very fine specimens of the finny tribe, while others are content to sit there hour by hour getting nothing more than pleasure from this pastime and dreaming "fish stories." D.

Roses at Sunset

Can you Greet Old Age with a Smile?

There are no happier souls than the cheerful young people of fourscore years who had the wit in their working day to provide for the Sunset Years.

They do not worry about living---just live without worrying, greeting every day and every neighbor with a smile. Not rich, perhaps, but quite enough to live on, they still radiate sunshine and silently demonstrate to the younger race how to take the fear out of life.

You'll find their recipe in the provisions of our new Life-Long Income Policy
