The marriage of Miss Beatrice Boyer of this city, to Dr. Nelson Pickard formerly of this city but now of Britannia Cove, Nfld., will take place on Thursday next, at Sydney, C.B. Miss Boyer left yesterday morning for Sydney.

The steamer Beverley arrived at Halifax on Monday from Boston, after a good trip, and brought 115 passengers. Just as the Beverley was preparing to sail from Boston, five firemen deserted, and new men had to be signed on, which caused a delay of four hours.

THE Prince Edward Island Hospital has received the following amounts: Collected by Mrs. A. Down, city, $2.50; collected by Miss George Cox and Miss Katie Webster, Marie, Morell and Midgell, $1.75; collected by Master Arthur Robertson, Augustine Cove, $1.10.

A FINE mixed lot of horses, fourted in number, were shipped by the Stanley yesterday morning. The buyers were James Deo of New Glasgow, N. S., and F. Barlow of Annapolis, N. S. One of the lot was perhaps as fine a draft animal as ever left the province—a Barnett mare, 5 years old weighing 1570. Another good one was a chestnut by Provider, sold by Donald McMillan.

The ferry steamer Hillsboro on her trip from Charlottetown to Southport at 8 o'clock last night, went ashore a little to the west of the Southport Wharf. The tide was running out strongly at the time and carried the boat with it. There were a few teams and passengers aboard, and it was expected that they would be landed at the Southport wharf, early this morning when the tide rose.

YESTERDAY afternoon Wright's Ambulance was summoned hurriedly for a man who had been attacked with heart failure in the law office of A. A. McLean, M. P. on the Cameron Block. The patient was Donald Murdoch, of Kinross, a man apparently about 60 years of age. He was placed upon the stretcher and carried gently down stairs and quickly conveyed to the Charlottetown Hospital. Here, although every attention was given him he died about 5 o'clock.

A MEETING of the Prince Edward Island Pharmaceutical Association was held yesterday afternoon in this city. A good deal of routine business was transacted. The Association is in good strong financial standing and the best of feeling exists. The following is the list of officers elected:

THE death of Wallace Hagen in Minneapolis last week has aroused the sympathy of many people in this province. He was the son of Patrick and Mrs. Hagen of Westmoreland and a very popular young man. He has been away for 17 1/2 years and at his death was only 22 years old. The body arrived home on Monday and the funeral will take place today from his father's home Westmoreland, to St. Joseph's Cemetery Kelly's Cross.

At the regular meeting of the Prince Edward Island Fish and Game Association held on last Friday evening, there was a good attendance. The principal topic for discussion was the amount of the annual fee, and it was unanimously voted to reduce the same to fifty cents, and thus meet the wishes of people living in the country. The game laws have been printed and copies can no doubt be obtained from members of the Executive.

At the Opera House last night, Pauline, the hypnotist and mind reader, entertained a large audience. A very difficult feat of mind-reading was performed under the critical eyes of a committee of citizens. Other features of the program were of the highest quality, and productive of wonder and amusement to an unusual degree. Pauline exhibits variety in his different feats, which is something usually lacking at entertainments of this character, and all who go are sure of an evening of pleasure and instruction.

THE annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Church was held on Wednesday. It was one of the most enthusiastic held for years. $281.84 had been added to the treasury during the year. The ladies have now on hand about $4,370. It was unanimous voice of the meeting to reach the $5,000 mark before the year closed. It was decided to hold a rummage sale in October, also to have a lecture during that month, to reopen the sewing circle and have a sale and tea early in December, to ask each child in the Sunday School to buy a brick for the new building. The ladies are determined to erect a structure that will be a credit alike to the city and church. The officers elected are:

Pres.—Miss Mary Wright.
