F. F. PROCTOR'S
FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE,
NEW YORK, WEEK OF SEPT. 23

At Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre, headline honors will go to the distinguished American character actor, Theodore Roberts, an artist whose creations in the mimic world have become the standards for their type. Mr. Roberts for the past twenty years has originated all the rugged specimens of humanity that have gone to lend virility to our native drama and for his vaudeville debut he has selected, "The Sheriff of Shasta," a powerful playlet of California's days of '49. Every detail of production from company to scenery and incidental music will be given most careful consideration. Next on the bill

The remainder of the bill for the final week in September will consist of Carrie Reynolds, the charming singer and dancer who carried "The Red Rose" and "The Kiss Waltz" to success; Avon Comely, Four singing funmakers; Phina and Pinks in Ethiopian frolics; Don Fulano, the educated horse; Goodwin and Elliott in rapid-fire repartee and the Belmonts in startling feats of equilibrium.

MARRIAGE.
An event of more than usual importance took place at Rustico on Aug. 10, 1912, when Miss Annie Buote, daughter of George and Mrs. Buote of that place, was united in the Holy Bonds of matrimony to John William Brydges of Charlottetown. The bridal party entered the convent chapel to the strains of the wedding march beautifully rendered by the Superior of the Convent. During the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. Chaisson, parish priest, a few of her many friends sang a few appropriate hymns. After the ceremony, the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride, where in the afternoon a large number of invited guests assembled to confer their best wishes and to enjoy themselves. The bride, who was before her marriage, a waitress at the "Davies" Hotel, was the recipient of many useful presents, testifying to the esteem by which she is held by

The Guardian is informed from a reliable source that eighty cases of liquor were recently shipped to Georgetown from an outside liquor dealer. There is little doubt that this large quantity is intended to do duty at the coming King's County exhibition, and the prosecutor will do well to make an effort to locate it before it gets into the regular or irregular trade channels.

The D. G. S. Earl Grey is calling today preparatory to sailing tomorrow morning for St. Paul's Island. The Earl Grey is here in the course of her annual inspection of light-houses. Among those on board are: Alex. Johnson, Deputy Minister of Marine; Archie McIntyre, Halifax, Col. W. P. Anderson, Ottawa, V. W. Forveret, Ottawa, P. F. Stupart, Toronto, and H. S. McGreevey, of Quebec.—Sydney Post.

Is it not a little out of harmony with the general atmosphere of peaceful Prince Edward Island, in this year of grace 1912, and on September 20th that, to read in a Charlottetown evening paper, claiming respectability, a challenge from a man to another "to fight to a finish." The legal penalty for issuing such a challenge is a year in penitentiary, but as newspapers do not go to penitentiaries the issuer of the challenge takes all the risk and the newspaper gets twenty-five cents for the ad.

A pretty wedding took place Thursday at the residence of Rev. A. Rogers, the contracting parties being D. L. Hickey, son of John M. Hickey, of Georgetown, P. E. I., and Miss Mabel Spencer, of Bayfield. The bride who looked charming was assisted by Mrs. Henry R. Cook, sister of the groom, and D. Thompson of the Niobe, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hickey, who have the best wishes of a host of friends for future happiness, will spend their honeymoon in Bayfield. They were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents.—Halifax Herald.

Everything is kept under glass to insure freedom from dust and all the latest conveniences and improvements are installed thus making it one of the cleanest, most sanitary and best conducted stores in the Province. The McKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great George and Kent Sts. The Rexall Store. 9-19M3.

Parents and citizens interested in education should reserve Wednesday evening September twenty-fifth for the address to be delivered by Marshall L. Perrin, Ph. D., in Prince of Wales College Assembly Hall. The learned speaker is one of the most enthusiastic and progressive educationalists in America and the citizens of Charlottetown should hear his treatment of the subject "Who are we not more thorough in our work." 11-21M3.

her many friends, both in the city and country. Among others, was a costly dinner set and a beautifully worded address, presented by the guests of the Davies. Mr. and Mrs. Brydges returned to Charlottetown on Wednesday, where they will in future

A WORD TO THE GUARDIAN READERS.

"For the benefit of the many appreciated readers of The Guardian and especially those of Bouris and vicinity, it might be well to reply to a statement contained in the letter of R. C. McLean, in a recent issue, in which it was very strongly insinuated that the Kings Co. items written by the Souris correspondent, were not at all times authentic. This is the first time a complaint of this kind has been heard for over a year. It may be that a slight error will occur occasionally which requires correcting, but that is all. I have endeavored to give the Souris readers the latest and most complete accounts of all important events, such as wrecks, drowning accidents, The Coronation Celebration, R. L. Borden's and Mr. Hazens' visit, reports of fishing, farming, schooners entering and clearing from this port, deaths, marriages and births, in fact everything of general interest, almost every day new subscribers inform me that they want the Guardian because it contains the news of Souris and Eastern Kings and many are the words of appreciation from old subscribers who consider the column is being kept up excellently. To these I may say that in the future, as in the past, it will be my pleasure to endeavor to obtain the latest items of interest for our column and if at any time a mistake should occur I will gladly correct it if brought to my notice. The ever increasing subscription list from this locality goes to show that the Guardian is more appreciated now than ever before.
