Concrete Merger

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—Plans for the consolidation of concrete products plants throughout the United States and Canada operating under patents controlled by the Building Units Patents Corporation, are announced by Charles R. Flint, New York banker.

organization of the merger is Rufus Waples and Company, Philadelphia bankers. The new concern to be known as the National Concrete Products Corporation, Flint, said, would have a capital stock of about $10,000,000. The proposed consolidation would include control of the Straub patents covering the manufacture of cinder concrete blocks under which 76 plants in this country and Canada operate.

YOUNG WOMEN SUFFER MOST

These Two Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Ayer's Cliff, Quebec.—"I have been teaching for three years and at the end of the year I always feel tired and have no appetite. I was a wretched sick each month, too, having pains in my back until sometimes I was obliged to stop working. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I heard many women telling how good it was so I thought it would help me. And it did. Now I take six bottles every year and recommend it to others." DONALD FANTREUX, Ayer's Cliff, Quebec.
"Unable to Work"
Canning, Nova Scotia.—"I had irregular periods and great suffering at those times, the pains causing vomiting and fainting. I was teaching school and often for some hours I would be unable to attend to my work. Through an advertisement in the papers I knew of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has been of great benefit to me, the troubles being completely relieved." LATRA J. EATON, Canning, King's County, Nova Scotia.

In Memoriam

JAMES E. CAMPBELL

James E. Campbell, whose death occurred recently at his home in Irishtown, was a man whose death has caused a loss to the community that cannot be estimated. Primarily and most important he set an example for correct living both at home and abroad that is well worthy of imitation.

He amplified his years with practical industry, utilizing both his leisure and his active moments to attain useful ends, and the successful results of his life, are evident in his family and in his home.

When his father, from advancing years, relinquished the care of the homestead, he assumed the responsibility and continued prosperously rewarded his efforts.

Although he was situated two miles from school, he nevertheless took the precaution not to let distance be a hindrance to their attendance and the efforts sometimes thus expended were often attended with sacrifice.

His social qualities were companionable, and his talent for music qualified him for a desirable member of social intercourse. He displayed traits of industrial action that the advancing generation might well imitate and exercised a judgment that proceeded from sound reason.

He was an ideal home man, and both the appearance of his homestead and the nice odor of wood came that pervaded the atmosphere of the home, showed the manner of man that governed the home.

The funeral was held on the 26th ult. and was one of the largest seen in Irishtown for some time. The service at the house and at the grave was performed by Rev. Dr. Genge, who officiated in his accustomed efficiency. The pall bearers were Wilfrid Campbell, Thomas Campbell, Bruce Campbell, Interment took place at Long River.

To mourn he leaves his widow, who was Margaret, daughter of James Bernard, Long River.

New Publication

VANCOUVER, Feb. 3.—The Morning Star, in a publisher's statement, general Victor Odium this morning announced the successful termination of the Star's negotiations for the purchase of Vancouver's exclusive morning newspaper field. The announcement continues: "In place of the Sun to which the British Columbian have been accustomed for so many years, (and which now ceases publication of its morning edition), the Morning Star henceforth will make its appearance regularly every week."

Gas Heater Leaked
I had occupied the apartment about six weeks," said he, "when my wife and her mother were over one day and had to be removed to office of a neighboring physician treatment. The doctor said they were suffering from gas poisoning. My wife had complained of violent headache every time she started the gas heater. I did not know the gas heater was until the doctor told me that my wife and her mother had been poisoned. I told Mr. Richardson, the owner, about it, but he said that the previous occupant had lived there without any difficulty. It was too late for me and I moved. Mr. Richardson heats the apartment through radiators connected with his furnace in the adjoining apartment, but it is frequently necessary to light the gas heater to keep the apartment comfortable. I did dare bring my baby there and was told that the deceased men visited their mother in this city last summer motoring from Boston, and remained in the province for about three weeks. Mrs. James T. Trainor, accompanied by her son Joseph Holland, of Toronto, left for Boston Tuesday morning. The funeral of the victims took place today.

Ann, eat your breakfast
Here's cream taken from a bottle, and breakfast food got out of a box. I haven't tasted them yet, but I'm not afraid to ask you to eat. And in the bathroom is new tooth-paste to use on your teeth. Here's medicine to take before you start off to school. . . Don't forget to wash your hands—that's a fresh bar of soap—and maybe dust your face with powder. No, it won't hurt the skin. This list of things I've seen advertised—stop and give it to your father. He'll bring them home tonight. Some of them old, some of them new . . . but what a civilized thing! To buy on faith and use on faith and never be betrayed!
Read the advertisements. Their honesty is as clear as a mirror. You can believe in them as surely as you believe in yourself. You can follow their directions with utmost faith. You can use their products with confidence you'll want to use them again. Theirs are facts proved and accepted. Use their news.
When guided by advertisements you can buy with faith.
