Death Yesterday Of Mrs. Dora Dunbar Williams

The death of Mrs. Dora D. Williams, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, was one of peculiar sadness. In the prime of life, apparently in the best of health until five weeks ago; leaving a son and daughter just entering upon manhood and womanhood with more than ordinary promise; with mother, sisters and brothers who loved her devotedly; with numerous friends and in short, with all that could make the outlook upon life full of hope and happiness, she was called away from it all, leaving a blank in the hearts of the many who loved her and darkening the world for her two devoted children. Surely death hath all seasons for its own.

The late Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Mrs. Sarah J. Dunbar and the late Mr. R. A. A. Dunbar of Guelph, Ontario. She has been a resident of Charlottetown for the past three years and in that time endeared herself to a large circle of friends who watched with deep anxiety her brave fight for life during the past few weeks, following a serious surgical operation and who learned of her death yesterday morning with sincere sorrow. There are left to mourn a son, Reginald D., studying law in Dalhousie Law School; a daughter, Dorothy M., in Charlottetown; her mother, two sisters, Mrs. H. S. Wilson and Miss Reta, Guelph, Ontario, and three brothers, R. A. Dunbar of Guelph, R. C. Dunbar, Orillia, Ont., and W. H. V. Dunbar, Manager Eastern Securities, Charlottetown. Her husband, Mr. Arthur E. Williams, Manager of the Bank of New Brunswick, Moncton, a son of Mrs. Albert Williams, Bidford, predeceased her by some thirteen years.

A short service was held last evening in St. Paul's Church, by Rev. H. D. Raymond, and attended by a great number of sympathizing friends. The body accompanied by members of the family, is being forwarded this morning to Moncton where it will be laid to rest beside that of her husband. To the bereaved son and daughter, mother, sisters and brothers, the Guardian extends deepest sympathy.

"Tired and Worried Nervous and Despondent"

Mrs. M. Chevalier, Belle River, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from despondency and nervousness. Sometimes I could not sleep at night for worrying and the next day I would be so tired that my work was a burden to me. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say I am now entirely relieved of the nervousness from which I used to suffer, and things do not worry me as they used to."

"Dr. Chase's Ointment also relieved me of eczema on my arms, which had bothered me for three years. My house is never without Dr. Chase's Medicines."

"Anna Christie" Proves To Be An Artistic Triumph

"Anna Christie" adapted by Thomas H. Ince from Eugene O'Neill's stage drama, which was a sensation on two continents and won the 1923 Pulitzer prize for the best American drama of the year, stands out boldly as the most unconventional heroine ever brought to the silver sheet. This First National release was shown at the Prince Edward Theatre last night.

The picture is an undoubted artistic triumph. It tells one of the most gripping stories conceived by genius and screened by a veteran master of showmanship. It is one of those pictures that is talked about in every feminine gathering and discussed in the candle glow of formal dinners. One simply is out of the running who hasn't seen it.

But imagine if you can an "Anna Christie" being presented for the eyes of mixed screen audiences a decade ago. All the fire and police departments would have been out in half an hour on a riot call. And half a dozen doctors would have had polite "gentlewomen" in fainting spells on their hands.

The twentieth century public studied life less and more candidly with appreciative eyes the unfoldment of a powerful drama such as has been pictured by Ince in "Anna Christie". It is the story of a girl who is the daughter of an old sea captain, a Swedish sentimentalist who blames every failure, even an unrequited love, on the sea. He has sent his father and brothers sacrificed to it. He decides to outfit it and save his daughter from the fate of other women of his family who have married sailors and shed bitter tears when they waited in vain for their return. So he sends her inland to continue in Minnesota where she will never hear of the oceans or know a sailor.

Anna, forced into farm work far beyond her strength, sends many pleas to her father to let her return to him, but he is deaf. The girl is betrayed by a brutal cousin; runs away from the farm in terror and is forced by circumstances into the life of the streets. With her last dollar she makes her way to her father, the captain of an old codger. And on the barge the past fades and she feels hours if clean again, almost the Madonna her father believes her to be. When she is picked up and nursed back to health by Anna. When they fall in love with each other there comes a tragic denouement with an unexpected ending.

O'Neill's drama was drawn with a fine delineation of characters for the screen. The Irish stoker, raised to emotional heights unsuspected even by himself in his previous work. The presentation of the drama has been accomplished with a finish of technique that subordinates even the magnificent background and striking "sets" used in the picture to the onward surge of the dramatic action, and the mighty love story that promises to become one of the favorites of all time.

Archbishop Sinnott Celebrates Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee

Former Islander Presented With Addresses and Purse of Gold At Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 21.—With the impressiveness and beauty of form attending the ritual of the Church of Rome, the sacerdotal silver jubilee celebration of Most Rev. A. A. Sinnott first archbishop of the Arch-diocese at Winnipeg, opened today with celebration of pontifical high mass in St. Mary's Cathedral this morning followed by a luncheon of the clergy at noon, and a reception by the laity at Columbus Hall in the evening, at which his grace was presented with an address and purse of gold. The Catholic Women's League and the Christian Mothers' Fraternity also presented him with addresses and a purse.

At the service in St. Mary's this morning Right Rev. J. T. McNally, archbishop of Hamilton pronounced the apostolic benediction, reading from a cablegram from Rome, in which the holy father sent his benediction to Archbishop Sinnott to the clergy and the faithful of his diocese.

Realize Significance. Following the reading of the message from his holiness, Archbishop McNally, in a brilliant address, brought to his hearers the realization of the significance of the event which was being celebrated, urging them to glorify God for the blessing of the services of the apostle whom He had placed over them.

More than 100 clergy and altar boys were in the procession, which passed around the church. The richness of the robes of the clergy made the spectacle one of the most impressive ever seen in Winnipeg.

A number of eminent representatives of the clergy from Eastern Canada were in attendance, including Mgr. Blair, Toronto, president of the Catholic Extension Society of Canada; Rev. Father F. Cline, rector of Holy Name Parish, Toronto; Very Rev. Dean Gehl, Preston, Ont.; Rev. Father J. M. Reardon, of Minneapolis, as well as Archbishop Bellevue, of St. Boniface attended.

The service was followed by a luncheon of the clergy at noon and a reception by the laity at Columbus Hall in the evening, at which His Grace was presented with an address and a purse of gold. The Catholic Women's League and the Christian Mothers' Fraternity also presented him with addresses and a purse.

Archbishop Sinnott came to Winnipeg in 1916. Prior to his elevation to the archbishopric of Winnipeg, Dr. Sinnott was secretary to the Apostolic Delegation at Ottawa. He was raised to the priesthood in Rome in 1900, at a private ordination at the Canadian College.

Rasmussen Will Visit Dominion

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 23.—The explorer Rasmussen will visit this week for Canada to pay a visit of courtesy to the Canadian Government, and to thank it for the kind gifts shown to him by the Canadian authorities during the recent expedition in the Arctic. It is stated that the Canadian Government wishes to take Rasmussen's advice on several questions regarding the northern regions.

Ince brought him back from London, where the play created a sensation to immortalize the role on the screen. And William Russell, as the Irish stoker, rises to emotional heights unsuspected even by himself in his previous work.

The presentation of the drama has been accomplished with a finish of technique that subordinates even the magnificent background and striking "sets" used in the picture to the onward surge of the dramatic action, and the mighty love story that promises to become one of the favorites of all time.

A Milkman Who Takes Water Out!

One of the favorite themes of the jokesmith is the milkman who waters his milk. Though the joke has little basis in fact, yet you have heard it many times.

But have you ever thought of the milkman who does exactly the opposite—the milkman who takes water out? That's what the Carnation milkman does—and here's why he does it:

Millions of people, all over the world, use Carnation Milk regularly; it comes to them from some of the finest dairying sections of Canada. It seems foolish to pay transportation on all the natural water in this milk, so most of the water is removed. Such removal serves to concentrate and enhance the food values in the milk, making it richer and smoother.

It also explains the satisfaction with which so many people use Carnation Milk undiluted in place of costly cream, in coffee or on cereals and fruits.

Order with the groceries—several tall (16 oz.) cans or by the case of 48 cans.

Send for copy of Mary Blake's Cook Book—Address Carnation Milk Products Company, Limited, Aylmer, Ontario.

THE MARKETS

OTTAWA, Feb. 23.—(Eggs)—Receipts of fresh eggs are increasing and the lower prices in the United States have materially affected Canadian markets. The import of United States eggs is heavy. Last week some 37 cars of United States eggs arrived in Toronto and 4 are due to arrive today, these are costing around 37 1/2 delivered Toronto. Jobbing specials 48, extras 46, firsts 43, seconds 40, Montreal arrivals costing are delivered extras 47, firsts 43, jobbing extras 50, firsts 45, Manitoba dealers quoting delivered extras 40 to 46, firsts 38 to 43, seconds 30, Alberta dealers quoting delivered extras 40 to 46, firsts 38 to 43, seconds 30, British Columbia quoting delivered extras 31, firsts 29.

Montreal—There was no improvement in the condition of the export grain trade here today, business being reported very quiet in all lines. But the tone of cable advices was firm. The domestic demand for oats continued limited, although a firm feeling prevailed. Ontario No. 3 grade being quoted at 65 cents, and No. 4 grade at 63 cents per bushel ex-store. No change of any importance occurred in the spring wheat flour market, price being well maintained. No improvement was noted in the foreign trade. The winter wheat flour market was quiet but prices were steady. The feature of the milled trade was the weaker feeling and millers generally reduced prices another $1.00 per ton for all lines. This was attributed to the steady increase in the production of late. There was no change in prices for rolled oats. Owing to the continued favorable weather prevailing for an increased production of eggs throughout the country the further weakness at the leading American centres at the close of last week and the more liberal supplies coming forward here, the market was decidedly weak today and prices scored a further decline of 3 to 4 cents per dozen, which makes a net decline of 9 to 11 cents per dozen this day week. But the indications are that they will not go much lower. Prices were well maintained for all grades of butter. The tone of the cheese market was firm with made No. 1 white and colored goods quoted at 20 1/2 to 20 3/4 cents per pound, and No. 2 at 19 1/2 to 19 3/4 cents per pound. Beans were firm at $2.70 per bushel.

Nothing Else Builds Him Up So Much

So Says Mr. Allan McMullin of Dadd's Kidney Pills

Nova Scotia Man was unable to move in his bed, but Dadd's Kidney Pills brought him relief. Upper Grand Mira, N. S.—(Special)—"I am more than thankful to Dadd's Kidney Pills, because they have helped me so much" states Mr. McMullin, a well known and highly respected resident of this place. "I know I could not live without them. Before I started taking Dadd's Kidney Pills I was so bad I could not move in my bed, I was suffering with rheumatism, humpback and pains in my back. I could not rest day or night, I had to turn myself in bed with straps. After the first box of Dadd's Kidney Pills I noticed a great improvement. I am sorry I did not start taking them ten years ago. I will never be without them if I can get them. I cannot find anything which builds me up so much."
