W. M. S. MEETS—The W. M. S. of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church took charge of the Sunday evening service. The President, Mrs. M. W. Wood presided. On the platform with her was the Secretary Miss Sadie Jones. The music was under the direction of Miss Francis Wood. The meeting opened with the hymn Jesus Shall Reign, Scripture reading by the President, Psalm 72, followed by prayer by Miss Sadie Jones. Solo, by Miss Frances Wood; Reading by Miss Sadie Jones. Duett by the Misses. Jennett Chisholm and Alecia Jenkins. Hymn, Break Thou the Bread of Life, was then sung, followed by the Pageant, "The Challenge of the Cross," which was put on by the young people of Hazelbrook and needless to say was well carried out. Closing hymn in the Cross of Christ I Glory. Benediction closed the service.

HOW DID THE NAME 'BLUE-NOSE' ORIGINATE?—Who is able to say definitely how the name "Bluenose" applied to Nova Scotians and things Nova Scotia came into use? Various theories are advanced, but perhaps some erudite antiquarian will come forth and tell us the indisputable origin of this nickname. An item in "THE MARITIMER", the official organ of the Maritime Provinces Club of Montreal, recently put forth two explanations. One is that in the good old days of "wooden ships and iron men," Nova Scotia skippers, of whom there were many famous on the Seven Seas, drank far too much rum and developed blue noses as a result. Another is that the biting cold of winter winds along the Atlantic seaboard gave Nova Scotia skippers blue noses. Neither of these explanations is quite acceptable. Far more reasonable is the one that generally accepted explanation that the sobriquet "Bluenose" was first given by the Bostonians. In the fall of the year in the early days vessels from the Bay of Fundy took up to the Boston market cargo lots of potatoes of a variety called "Bluenose" grown in the Annapolis Valley. The Bostonians applied the name of the potatoes to the people who produced them, and by and by, after the particular variety of potato was displaced by newer varieties, and the connection forgotten by a later generation, the term came to have a wider application, until now Nova Scotians and Maritimers generally are known by that name. Whatever dispute there may be about the origin of the name "Bluenose," there is no doubt that MORSE'S BLUE-NOSE TEA affords the consumer the best value in tea that he can buy at this time. Though only 35 cents per pound package it is of a quality equal to or better than that of some of the 40-cent package teas that are so extensively advertised. It has a flavor that clicks with the critical Maritime taste and has that thick-liquoring quality so desirable in the cup. It is already known as the great economy tea, combining dependability with low price.

Summer School At Mt. Allison

SACKVILLE, N. B., June 21.—The Maritime Summer School at Sackville begins its tenth session on July 5th next.

Particular attention will be paid to courses for teachers, the French language, and to Fine Arts. The courses in Education will be given by Paul R. Spencer, Ph.D. (Columbia), of New York, and by Miss Georgie Wall, M. A., (Chicago). Dr. Spencer has had unusually good training and a wide experience both as teacher and superintendent and his courses on How to Study, Educational Psychology, and School Administration will be of great interest and importance. Miss Wall is a Latin teacher of very unusual teaching ability and will give a course on How to Teach Latin.

In Fine Arts, course will be given by Dr. Walter H. Abell, Professor of Aesthetics at Acadia University, and by Miss Elizabeth McLeod, Director of the Owens' School of Fine Arts. Dr. Abell will lecture on Art History and Appreciation, and Miss McLeod will give practical courses in Drawing, in Charcoal and in Art Structure.

Credit courses will be given in many regular University subjects, and any students who wish to complete matriculation requirements will have an opportunity to spend six weeks at such subjects under skillful guidance.

Professors Brunton, Hamer, Selfridge and Miss Smith will continue their work in Piano, Organ, Vocal and Violin.

The students at the Maritime Summer school not only make good progress with their work, but they have a very happy time together.

IN MEMORIAM

ERNEST CAMERON

A well known resident of Hampton passed away after a brief illness on Monday, May 29th, in the person of Mr. Ernest Cameron. He was born in Hampton on May 29th, 1883, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Cameron. Mr. Cameron is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Gussie Purdy of Charlottetown, and one son David and one daughter May, also one brother, Mark H. of Hampton and two sisters, Miss Harriet of Boston and Mrs. Rogerson Reid of Victoria, P. E. Island, and a large circle of relatives and friends who feel that they have sustained a great loss in his departure, and the sympathy of the community is with those who mourn.

Mr. Cameron endeared himself to all who knew him by his many acts of kindness and gracious hospitality, and while not enjoying the best of health was cheerful and uncomplaining. Deceased was for many years a member of the Methodist Church, now United, and at the time of his death was a member of the Trustee Board of the Hampton Church. When health permitted he was regular in his attendance at the Sunday and mid-week services of the Sanctuary, and his presence will be very much missed in their midst.

The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held from the family residence on Wednesday, May 31st and the service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. George Ayers.

The pallbearers were George Cannon, Warren Villet, Ernest Inman, Wm. MacFarlane, Arthur Inman and Austin Sobey. Interment was in the Crapaud Cemetery.

MRS. THOS. J. WILSON

On Monday, May 1st Mrs. Flora Large, Hunter River, received the sad news that on Thursday evening April 27th her daughter, Mrs. Thos. J. Wilson had passed away quite suddenly in the Memorial Hospital, Concord, N. H.

For some months the deceased had been in a rather poor condition of health because of heart trouble. About a week before the coming of the end she had gone to the Hospital for treatment in hopes that she would soon be restored to health. But instead of improving it was soon evident that her condition was getting gradually worse. She kept continually losing in strength until on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Mrs. Wilson was one of a family of five members—one brother and four sisters.

The one brother Gordon Large, passed away in 1919 while another sister Mrs. Harry Walker Concord, N. H., died in 1930. Besides a sorrowing husband and a sadly bereaved mother, Mrs. Flora Large, Hunter River, the deceased leaves to mourn their loss two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Robinson, Durham, N. H., and Miss Martha Large, Concord, N. H. Mrs. Wilson was a young lady of strong and noble character and was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. For some years she was a member of the North Congregational Church, Concord, N. H. and took a deep interest in all departments of the work. She will be much missed by a large circle of relatives and friends.

But while all will miss her, it is in her own home that the loss will be felt most keenly. There her husband in his lonely hours will often sigh for the touch of a vanished hand, and long for the sound of a voice that is stilled. But all in vain. For she can never return. Yet knowing that she has passed forever beyond all suffering and all pain none would be so unkind as to wish her "unbound spirit back into bonds again."

The funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, April 30th at the Hoyt Funeral Home, 33 South Maine Street, Concord, N. H. Rev. George H. Reed, D.D., pastor emeritus of the First Congregational Church was the officiating clergyman.

The pallbearers were Okky Vanelst, Robert McAllister, Edward Lorey and Edward Robinson.

The committal services at the grave in the family plot in Blossom Hill Cemetery were also conducted by Rev. Dr. Reed.

There passed peacefully to rest at the home of her father on June 17th, Mrs. Frank Rooney, one of the most respectable citizens of Emerald at the early age of 19 years. She was born on the Beaton Road, Lot 9 and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Martin. She was one of a family of five, namely Adeline, Sadie May, Raymond, and Clifford and a sorrowful husband and one child Gerald, ten months old. The late Mrs. Rooney was equipped with more than ordinary mental brilliance, and was a fine citizen. To know her was to love her. One could not resist that fine personality, that kindness and appealing friendliness that she seemed to radiate around about her. The frequent visits of her pastor were true testimonials of her kind and loving nature. Those who were privileged to know her appreciated her loyal friendship as well as the sincerity of her convictions. For the last year she had been in failing health, but she could see the workings of the Divine Master in this, and she bore

Doctor Would Prove He "Isn't Just a Kid"

VANCOUVER, June 24.—To prove to his father and his friends that he isn't "just a kid" any longer, Dr. J. Allen Harris who made fame for his alma mater, University of British Columbia, by discovering Element 61, is going into politics. He is nominated at the Liberal convention in Kelowna.

"Because I have lived in Summerland nearly all my life no one will admit I'm just a kid," said Dr. Harris, who is now 28. "People still think I'm just a kid because I have grown up in the old home town, and the old-timers can't think of me except as a little boy. Dad still regards me as an infant."

Indian Monk To Anoint King

LONDON, June 21.—A young Indian monk has arrived in London to anoint the King and the Prince of Wales, he says, with the sandalwood paste of his Order, which holds spiritual command over 100,000,000 Hindus.

Heads of this Order always anointed the Kings of India in olden times and so gave their blessing and support to the ruler in the presence of his subjects.

The monk who is named Swami Bon anointed Lord Willingdon at Delhi last winter. He is the first Viceroy to have been so anointed. "I give you the blessing of God, and the allegiance of our people," said the monk as he streaked Lord Willingdon between the eyes with the paste. Sedition in Bengal, where this Order predominates, ceased, he claims, from that moment.

Artillery Off To Petawawa

MONCTON, N. B. June 23.—The annual movement of artillery from the Maritime Provinces to Petawawa camp for summer training has commenced and transportation facilities are being arranged by Canadian National Railway officials. The 89 Field Battery of Woodstock, N. B., entrained there this afternoon with five officers and thirty other ranks. They will join the 90th Field Howitzer Battery of Fredericton and the headquarters staff enroute.

OPIUM SMUGGLERS EVADE N. Y. CUSTOMS

NEW YORK, June 23.—Customs agents aboard a patrol boat emptied their pistols in a vain attempt to stop a fleeing speedboat yesterday, when it shot out from under the stern of the Conte di Savoia, of the Italian Line, lying at her pier.

Shortly thereafter, the agents found 123 pounds of opium, wrapped in 114 silverleaf packages and sewed up in several burlap sacks, lying on the deck of the Conte di Savoia. At first they believed the opium was of the smoking variety, but George Brewer, solicitor of customs, valued it yesterday afternoon as crude opium worth about $750. He had the Line post a bond for the $750 to guarantee the Treasury against any fine which might be imposed.

Fishing Trophies For Maritimes

MONCTON, N. B., June 23.—Trophies for fishermen are now the order of the day. Following upon the heels of the announcement of the inauguration of a gold button championship to the fisherman catching the heaviest trout in the waters of the newly opened Malaga River in Jasper National Park, Alberta, this year, news comes from the New Brunswick Guides Association, according to the Fish and Game Department of the Canadian National Railways, that association will offer two silver trophies, one for the largest Atlantic salmon and the order for the largest speckled trout taken in New Brunswick waters by non-resident sportsmen, the qualification being that a qualified member of the association act as guide.

The trophies, which will be in the shape of cups, will be put up for competition each season and will be won permanently by the sportsman who wins it three times, not necessarily in succession. Each year an engraved plaque bearing the name and address of the winner and particulars regarding the prize winning fish together with the name of the guide, will be attached to the base of the trophy. In addition each holder of a trophy will be awarded an engraved badge as a permanent recognition of his supremacy in the art of angling for the year.

The only waters in the province excepted from the awards are the open waters of the Restigouche and Upsalquitch rivers and any lease streams. The trophies are life like models in silver of a salmon and trout on the "stroke".

TIENSIN, China, June 23.—Indications of renewed Sino-Japanese differences in North China became evident today.

Break In Sino-Jap Truce Is Evident

TIENSIN, China, June 23.—Indications of renewed Sino-Japanese differences in North China became evident today.

Despite a truce signed May 31, which specified the Chinese would police a neutral zone south of the Great Wall, Chinese military leaders now are charging that Japanese are causing large numbers of Manchukuo troops to enter the zone for policing purposes.

"The Japanese are thereby given unbroken control of the district," the Chinese allege.

The Chinese claims are upheld by foreign sources within the zone, which extends north of the roughly drawn from Peking eastward to the sea.
