A GROUND drift prevailed in the country nearly all day yesterday.

FRANK RABBY, Lowell Mass is visiting relatives in North Tryon.

ALEXANDER KENNEDY, Montague is recovering from a severe illness.

A hockey match is being negotiated between Charlottetown Business College and St. Dunstan's teams.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed in the city by the presentation of the Drama, "Hand of a Friend."

The pitches on the country roads are reported very dangerous. Otherwise travelling is excellent.

A VERY enjoyable party and dance was given at the North American Hotel, Kent Street on Wednesday night.

A show of Shire horses in Toronto recently J. M. Gardhouse, a judge at recent exhibition won a silver cup for his stallion.

The body of the late Miss Cullen who died Tuesday was taken to her home Hope River from Charlottetown Hospital yesterday.

CITY men are now engaged in filling in the pitches on the city streets. Citizens are asked to open drains whenever possible.

THE amount netted at the social and whist party in the Lyceum on Wednesday night was in the vicinity of $150 for the Charlottetown Hospital.

JOHN WILLIAMS, who is conducting a tailoring establishment at Port Blakely, Wash. leaves this morning on return after a visit to his home in Craipud.

THE ice dealers are hauling ice to the city again after the recent storms. All ice has to be procured on this side of the river and only small loads can be taken.

JOHN COLLINGS of the S. S. Northumber, and who has been some weeks at Pictou, returning from Boston crossed at the Capes yesterday. Mrs. Collings is still at Pictou.

J. A. MATHESON and L. H. Douglas, Georgetown, drove home yesterday. They were met at Southport by John C. McDonald who had driven up to meet them there.

In the instrumental quartet at St. Peter's concert, the name of Charles Hines who kindly consented to take the place of Mr. Galbraith in his absence should have been mentioned.

YESTERDAY an effort was made to improve the crossing on the Hillsboro ice by filling in the bad holes to Southport with brush. The work, however, did not improve the travelling.

MANY friends will be sorry to learn that Will Wright, formerly with A. E. McEachen of this city and who is now in Montreal has to undergo a serious operation shortly.

C. P. CLARKE, the popular commercial man has kindly consented to give a number of readings from Dr. W. H. Drummond in P. W. C. Hall on March 10th next in aid of the Women's Council.

THE officers and crew of the steamer Stanley held a very enjoyable ball in the Town Hall, Georgetown last night. It is expected that the steamer will make another effort to reach the mainland today.

ONE ice boat in charge of Capt. Thomas Howatt left Cape Traverse for the Main-land yesterday morning at 8.10 with 22 bags of mail. It was compelled to return, however, reaching the shore again at half past two.

YESTERDAY mails were despatched from Charlottetown Post Office by courier service to Souris, Kensington, Montague, Georgetown, Cardigan, Cape Traverse and the far west taking in all points in these different sections.

POSTMASTER Wheat has appointed Henry Howard, York, mail courier from Charlottetown to York during the snow blockade. This is a great convenience to the northern Post Offices as York is the distributing P. O. on that route.

Two hundred bags of mails, mostly papers were left at Cape Tormentine yesterday. It is estimated that there are upwards of two thousand bags of old mail at Pictou and Sackville, awaiting transportation to the Island. They will not likely reach here until the steamers run again.

PRINCE St. Concert takes place Tuesday next. For tots, a doll drill; for juniors, a patriotic drill; for seniors, a wand drill; for all, choice songs, elocution and a special Scotch number by the Scotch comedian, Jas Calder. Then the Extravaganza carries you to Fairy Land. "And you may touch with your finger tips the ivory gates and the golden." A flower reel, a fairy fete, a brownie burlesque, all unprecedented. Next Tuesday; get your tickets now. B. B. B.

NERVOUS, SICK HEADACHE
MR. O. BARBER, Simcoe, Ont., writes: "I was troubled for a long time with headaches, which would come on about once a week with such violence that I could not eat or do my work. I tried headache powders and quick cures, which did me no good. About eight months ago I took six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I have not been troubled with headache since."

THE Island men who have been attending the Agricultural School at Truro returned to the Island by the Capes yesterday. They were as follows:—John A. Annear, Lower Montague; Artemus Moffat, New Glasgow; John Moore, Craipud; Robert Agnew, Wilnot Valley; Thomas Linkletter, St. Eleanor's; W. J. Montgomery, Port Hill; W. M. Lea, Victoria; David MacDonald, Glenfinnan. All speak in the highest terms of the excellence of the course in Truro and have acquired much knowledge of practical farming which will be of great value in Institute work.

THE work on the railway yesterday was steadily continued but slow progress was made. Cond. McKenna who left Summerside in the morning had got to within 2½ miles east of Kensington. Cond. Kelly had reached within a short distance of North Wiltshire going west. Cond. Gillis had reached Kinkora going to Emerald, Brakenan Martin had arrived at Alberton going west; Conductor Hibbett had made Bedford going east; Cond. Cox is still between Selkirk and St. Peter's; Cond. Stetson who left Summerside for the west expecting a clean run has not passed Miscouche and is now tied up in some cuttings that have filled in since Brakenan Martin passed through on Sunday.
